Vintage Market Days® Returns to Knoxville with "An American Story" — A Weekend of Treasure Hunting, Local Flavor, And Giving Back

More than 100 upscale small business curators come together at the Knoxville Expo Center for an epic shopping weekend supporting two local non-profits.

Knoxville, Tenn. - August 5, 2026 - The celebration of America's 250th continues this September with the return of our region's most anticipated shopping experience: Vintage Market Days®, happening September 18-20, 2026 at the Knoxville Expo Center.

This "American Story" comes with your chance to discover vintage and antique treasures, boutique clothing, and exclusive seasonal items. Shoppers will find more than 100 upscale vendors as well as sweet treats and coffee, set to a live DJ soundtrack. The first 25 people in line Friday and Saturday morning will receive an amazing swag bag with gifts & coupons from our vendors.

Vintage Market Days® of Knoxville doesn't just bring families and friends together for a weekend of fun experiences. This fall, it supports True Purpose Ministries out of Maryville, which provides a low-cost Recovery Center and Vocation Training Campus for those who have struggled with addiction.

This weekend also again supports Calvary Chapel of Crossville, which is building a new community center. In addition, 100% of the fees from pre-purchased tickets go to Humanitix's Non-Profit Partners, supporting "Tickets for Good, Not Greed."

Plus, the value continues with free parking, free re-entry all weekend with an event selfie, and bag check and porter services to help with those big purchases.

Grab your besties or a date, shop local, and discover exclusive finds!
