8pm Hetty Wainthropp Investigates (Hd)

A High Profile

Michael, a highly educated schizophrenic living by himself, has been missing for 12 days. His mother, Hilda, tells Hetty that she is anxious for his safety but that her husband, Reg, refuses to have his step-son in the house. Hetty sets out for Michael's last-known address and finds Ian, Michael's community nurse, who suspects that Michael is probably not taking his medication. He also warns her that Michael may be contemplating suicide. The only clue Hetty has to go on is a librarian, Aileen, who seems to have been friendly with Michael. Her letters to him quote from his poems about a skeleton and dying animals. Meanwhile, Michael is in the seaside town of Staverton Sands, reliving his childhood. Irene, the landlady of the private Sunnysands Hotel, tries unsuccessfully to get the police to arrest him for loitering outside. He is hearing voices in his head and getting into trouble. Can Hetty and Geoff find him - before it is too late?

10pm Voces: ASCO - Without Permission

ASCO: Without Permission challenges the limits of documentary conventions to tell the story of a revolutionary Chicano art group who turned 1970s LA into their defiant canvas. Merging activism with radical art-making, ASCO challenged the established order of Hollywood, museums, and media and are now considered amongst the 20th century's most significant artists. Director Travis Gutierrez Senger mirrors their boundary-breaking spirit through a groundbreaking approach, weaving nonfiction and fiction together with a new generation of artists. The result is more than a profile it's a reimagining of what's possible in art and cinema, celebrating iconoclasts who were decades ahead of their time.

The Magic of Nureyev

An incredible 89 curtain calls provide an enduring testament to the ballet history that was written at the Vienna State Opera on October 15, 1964. The event was a performance of Swan Lake choreographed by Russian dancer Rudolf Nureyev, who also took on the lead male role of the Prince; his partner was the great British prima ballerina Margot Fonteyn. In his novel interpretation of this iconic favorite of classical ballet, Nureyev revolutionized the role of the male dancer, seeking to be Fonteyn's equal counterpart. This fascinating behind the scenes film features extensive excerpts from the legendary production, which was captured for posterity two years after its 1964 stage premiere. In new interviews, dancers Michael Birkmeyer and Gisela Cech, who danced alongside Nureyev at the premiere of Swan Lake, share personal insights on Nureyev's peerless virtuosity as well as his mercurial off-stage personality, while contemporary experts look back at Nureyev groundbreaking technique from a modern-day perspective.

10pm Secrets of the Dead
Field of Vampires

A terrifying discovery: A skeleton dating from 1650 buried with a sickle across her neck and giant padlock on her toe - double protection to keep her from rising from the dead. Whoever buried her was petrified of her returning from the grave. All the evidence is she was buried as a vampire. She's found wearing a silk cap with a gold headress. Inside her mouth, which was green and possibly the result of poison, is a leather pouch with writing on it. And she's not alone, ultimately, more than 50 deviant burials around her. Who was she? What did all of the burial rituals mean?
