WAMC-FM broadcasts 365 days a year to eastern New York and western New England on 90.3 MHz. Our studios and offices are in Albany, NY.

The WAMC transmitter is located atop Mount Greylock in Adams, MA. The WAMC-AM transmitter is located in Albany, NY. WAMK’s transmitter is located on Overlook Mountain, Woodstock, NY.
The question, of course, is what will happen to WAMC in the event that the political landscape changes. For example, what would happen if Donald Trump, who has proclaimed his dislike for public radio, were to win a second term? In Great Britain, the conservative government has proposed freezing the public support for the BBC, the bulk of which has traditionally come from television licensing fees. Who is to say that a similar kind of defunding couldn’t happen here?

I get letters about the fact that we receive some public support here at WAMC. I understand that those people who want to see public radio die would be delighted with such an outcome. I’m sure that you’re way ahead of me on this. The best way to ensure that we stay here is to do it ourselves. Our audience has proven itself very generous. While I have no doubt that we could survive such a threat, I am not quite as confident that the rest of the public radio stations in the country have the same committed audience that we enjoy. So the name of the game is to get ahead of what might happen. You may think I’m being an alarmist, but I say, “Think again.”

We know that we have less than one year’s operating expenses in the bank. That could run out very quickly if our funding source dries up. In the end, it is up to every listener to put something into the pot. It may be 50 cents or it may be $50,000.

Ronald Reagan was fierce in his insistence on killing federal funds for public radio. Legend has it that his well-heeled supporters, some of whom played major leadership roles on their local stations, spoke to Reagan who apparently did not like NPR. A compromise was reached that had all the federal money going not directly to NPR, but to the member stations through the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. Of course, NPR gets a lot more from us than they lost under the Reagan changes. I will guarantee you that if the former president and a Congress of his own party retake power, one of the first things on the chopping block will be public radio. It may take a few years of what is called “forward advance” to lose the money, but it will most assuredly happen. It is incumbent upon those who want to save our station (SOS) to do whatever they can now so that it is clear to the people who want to see us go away that they will not succeed.

One of the reasons why I believe WAMC will survive is because enough of us want it to continue. Pretty simple. So far, you have been there, but we might have to fight very hard to keep going. It will take everyone. Even NPR, who now finds itself with a surfeit of resources, much of it coming from us, will have to do what it can to watch its pennies. Frankly, that does not seem to be the case now. Just saying.

Alexis de Tocqueville thought that one of the reasons why Americans support their institutions is because of what might be called “the spirit of volunteerism.” I don’t think that is really such a bad idea. There is a movement afoot to have the government support newspapers. Now that is a bad idea. If you’ve been around as long as I have, you know that what the government gives, the government can take away. As soon as they see something that they don’t like, they will pull the plug. We have to do our best to become self-supporting in anticipation of what might be coming. We’re depending on you.
It’s hard to believe January is now past us. As we look ahead to the longer days, we prepare for a wonderful month ahead. February brings us Presidents Day specials, reminding us of history (that we may or may not have known), Black History Month specials showcasing those who have advanced in various fields, and triumphal stories of musicians who started from humble beginnings.

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING:

On Monday, Feb. 21 we’ll enjoy a few specials to celebrate Presidents Day. We’ll start the day hearing about a woman who stepped in for a former president during the term of President Andrew Johnson in “Constant Wonder – Presidents Day” at 9 a.m.

At 10 a.m. we’ll learn about the two most important documents in the foundation of the United States: the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. And at 11 a.m. hear a breakdown of 1976’s “All the President’s Men” and recent White House stories in “Filmspotting: The President’s Men.”

At 2 p.m. we’ll celebrate Black History Month by hearing stories from a poet, Olympic fencer, writer and historian in a Live Wire Radio special.

On February 5 The Met will celebrate its first decade on the air, marking the 90th anniversary season of Met broadcasts. Hear historic moments from the 1930s and early 40s featuring stars such as Kirsten Flagstad, Lily Pons, and Rosa Ponselle. On Feb. 12 we’ll hear “Verdi’s Requiem,” and on Feb. 19 Mussorgsky’s “Boris Godunov.” To celebrate Black History Month we’ll hear highlights of the Met’s most revered African American stars, including Marian Anderson, who broke the Met’s color barrier in 1955, in “Groundbreaking Artists on the Air,” on Feb. 26. The Met Opera airs on Saturdays at 1 p.m. through June 11.

REGULAR PROGRAMMING

This month on The Academic Minute we’ll discuss topics ranging from faculty’s key role in student success, transgender rights in forgotten places, and why improvisation is the future in an A.I.-dominated world. Tune in weekdays at 7:30 a.m. and 3:56 p.m. on WAMC or anytime online at academicminute.org.

On “Person Place Thing,” hear about the design of the Presidential Center from architects Tod Williams and Billie Tsien on the Feb. 4th. We’ll also hear from visionary artist, activist, and violinist Midori Gotô on the Feb. 11; composer David Amram, who scored ‘The Manchurian Candidate’ and was composer in residence for the New York Philharmonic and played with Dizzy Gillespie on Feb. 18; and hear about the struggle pianist and host of NPR’s “Amplify,” Lara Downes, had to overcome on Feb. 25. “Person Place Thing” airs Fridays at 10:30 p.m. and Saturdays at 7:30 a.m.

On “Earth Wise,” host Dr. Randy Simon explains how in 2021, five states – Illinois, Massachusetts, Oregon, North Carolina, and Rhode Island – passed laws requiring a shift to 100% carbon-free electricity or net-zero emissions. This month we’ll hear how more states made progress on climate and clean energy, how climate change is affecting the winter Olympics, and how violent storms could migrate northward in our hemisphere and southward in the Southern Hemisphere as a result of warming caused by greenhouse gas emissions. “Earth Wise” airs weekdays at 11:10 a.m. and 4:04 p.m.

WAMC’s Performing Arts Studio The Linda features the best live and local music and events in the Capital Region. On Feb. 2 come see a documentary film screening of “Poly Styrene: I am a Cliché.” We’ll also host one of the most highly regarded guitarists in the world, Stephane Wrembel, on Feb. 4. And listen to NY Folklore presented by the NYS Folklore Society on the Feb. 13. For a full list of concerts, tickets, and up-to-date information please visit thelinda.org.
