the talking dog.

By Kynled Smorgan Wriston
Once upon a time there was a talking dog named Brayden. He was trying to get to school.
He ran into his friend cat.

They were talking about apples and eating them for breakfast. Why they were walking.
Then they ran into Pig they walked and talked they talked about apples and oranges. Because Pig brought some to eat.
They ran into turtle and talkt about apples and oranges also ate them.
The Oner herd them and said wow you can talk! Then they got to School on time.
