Fall Festival Specials

The 2003 film Broadway: The Golden Age delighted theater fans with its astonishing compilation of intimate interviews with the stars of Broadway from the 1940s and 50s. Now, great news for Broadway fans craving theater, a new team has finally brought the sequel, “Broadway: Beyond the Golden Age” to fruition.

This second installment, presented by Great Performances, continues the story from the legendary Broadway season of 1959 (Gypsy, Raisin in the Sun, Once Upon a Mattress, etc.) through the tumultuous 60s (Hair, Oh, Calcutta, etc.), the revolutionary 70s (Sondheim, A Chorus Line, Chicago, etc.), up to the opening night of 42nd Street in 1980.

“Beyond the Golden Age” is told with personal interviews with over 100 newly filmed, legendary stars, including: Bea Arthur, Alec Baldwin, Carol Burnett, Glenn Close, Charles Durning, Celeste Holm, Jane Fonda, Robert Goulet, Liza Minnelli, Robert Morse, Jerry Orbach, Elaine Paige, Robert Redford, Chita Rivera, Elaine Stritch, Dick Van Dyke, Lesley Anne Warren and more.

Great Performances “Broadway: Beyond the Golden Age” airs on 3-2 Thursday, the 19th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Saturday, the 14th at 7:00 p.m.

Daniel O'Donnell and Special Guests

Filmed in Derry, Northern Ireland, Daniel O'Donnell returns to PBS performing his favorite songs with special guests Charley Pride and Crystal Gayle.

The late great Charley Pride was one of Daniel's all-time favorite people and most admired singers—they recorded together many times. Charley and Daniel perform “Crystal Chandeliers,” one of Charley's greatest hits. Daniel and Crystal Gayle duet on “Wrong Road Again,” one of her best-loved songs and one that has become synonymous with her name.

In addition to the duets, Daniel sings some of his best-known songs and hits that have wooed audiences wherever he has performed, including “I Just Want To Dance With You,” “My Shoes Keep Walking Back To You,” “A Thing Called Love,” and “Moonlight And Roses.”

Daniel O'Donnell and Special Guests airs on 3-2 Saturday, the 14th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 22nd at 5:30 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Tuesday, the 17th at 7:00 p.m.

A Musical Celebration of the Iconic Broadway Score

Kristin Chenoweth and Idina Menzel are our guides in Wicked in Concert, as we celebrate the music of one of the most successful productions in Broadway history: Wicked. This two-hour concert version of the famed musical explores the story of Elphaba and Glinda, the journey of two young women that continues to provide inspiration to young and old, in every culture.

The winner of over 100 international awards, Wicked looks at what happened in the Land of Oz...but from a different angle. Long before Dorothy arrives, there is another young woman, born with emerald-green skin, who is smart, fiery, misunderstood, and possessing an extraordinary talent. When she meets a bubbly blonde who is exceptionally popular, their initial rivalry turns into the unlikely of friendships...until the world decides to call one “good,” and the other one “wicked.”

With a thrilling score that includes the hits “Defying Gravity,” “Popular” and “For Good,” Wicked has been hailed by The New York Times as “the defining musical of the decade,” and by Time Magazine as “a magical Broadway musical with brains, heart, and courage.”

Wicked in Concert will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 29th at 7:00 p.m.

LIZA WITH A “Z”

One of the first concert films made for television, Liza with a Z (1972), starred Liza Minnelli and was produced by Fred Ebb and Bob Fosse. Fosse also choreographed the concert, while Ebb wrote and arranged the music with his songwriting partner John Kander.

Minnelli performed highlights from Cabaret, along with a variety of popular songs and material written for her by Kander and Ebb, including the title song.

Liza with a Z wasn't simply a case of putting cameras in front of an existing concert.

Liza and her team rehearsed at a Broadway theatre for eight weeks, and the special was shot on film instead of video, a rarity for TV at that time.

Marvin Hamlisch was the music conductor and Halston, a friend of Liza Minnelli's, designed the costumes. Premiering the same year as Cabaret (which would win Academy Awards for Liza and Fosse), Liza with a Z earned four Emmy Awards and a Peabody.

Liza with a Z will be broadcast on 3-2 Saturday, the 21st at 8:30 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Saturday, the 14th at 9:00 p.m.

Dreadnought Destruction: Sinking the German Battle Fleet

Dreadnought Destruction: Sinking the German Battle Fleet chronicles the greatest loss of warships in history and the last casualties of World War I.

While the Treaty of Versailles is still being negotiated in Paris to bring an end to World War I, the admiral of the German High Seas Fleet, von Reuter, secretly orders the deliberate sinking or “scuttling” of his entire fleet in Orkney, Scotland. Having been forced to surrender to the Allies, von Reuter decides that self-annihilation is better than total defeat.

Under the terms of the surrender of the German Navy, the fleet of 70 German warships, led by von Reuter, joined a convoy of 191 Allied vessels that sailed to the Orkney Islands in Scotland on November 21, 1918 for internment at the massive natural harbour at Scapa Flow. The treaty called for the surrender of the interned ships by June 21, 1919. On discovering this news, von Reuter planned to scuttle his fleet as he’d been ordered to in the event the ships were to be seized by the Allies.

Unknown to von Reuter, the deadline for surrender was subsequently extended to June 23. Rear Admiral Sydney Fremantle, commander of the 1st Battle Squadron at Scapa Flow guarding the German ships, had planned to seize them on June 23 on his return from seagoing exercises. When the British fleet left Scapa Flow for exercises on June 21, von Reuter saw his chance.

Von Reuter gave the order to scuttle and his crews opened seacocks, torpedo tubes and portholes on the ships to flood them and once again hoisted their flags of the Imperial German Navy. Of the 74 German ships interned at Scapa Flow, 52 were scuttled within five hours. Eventually, almost all of the ships were raised for salvage. Only seven remain at the bottom of the sea today, and provide some of the best shipwreck diving in Europe.

Dreadnought Destruction: Sinking the German Battle Fleet airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 3rd at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 5th at 7:00 p.m. It can be seen on 3-1 Wednesday, the 4th at 8:00 p.m.

A Song for Love: An Ape with an App

A Song for Love: An Ape with an App is the story of an unlikely team who set out to help the world’s rarest gibbon find the perfect mate.

In the mountains on the China-Myanmar border lives a newly discovered species, the Skywalker Gibbon, and there are only a handful left. A gibbon’s life revolves around song. A lone female sings across the jungle in the hope of winning a life-long partner. A lone male lives twenty miles away, but they can’t find each other over the huge terrain.

Beijing pop star Xingyu Lee and biologist Professor Fan jerry-rig a system of speakers and microphones to help these solitary apes find each other. Hooked up by telephone, the gibbons search for each other, drawn by their songs. The speakers are then moved to guide the gibbons through the jungle until they are within natural earshot.

Thanks to a wild love song down the telephone, the two Skywalker Gibbons are about to meet—a match that could determine the future of a species.

A Song for Love: An Ape with an App can be seen on 3-2 Wednesday, the 4th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 7th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Wednesday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m.

Great Scenic Railway Journeys: 150 Years on the Right Track

Visit some of North America’s treasured heritage railways and historical sights in Great Scenic Railway Journeys: 150 Years on the Right Track.

Re-live one of America’s greatest transportation accomplishments, the completion of the Trans-Continental Railroad. Take a trip through Arizona’s Red Rock Canyons, where rail passengers travel 1800 feet down into the beautiful Red Rocks on the Verde Canyon Railroad in Clarkdale, Arizona.

Wine and dine on America’s only bed and breakfast train. Take a steam journey along the banks of Lake Superior, and then ride on North America’s oldest continually operating shortline railroad: the Strasburg Railway. See where Hollywood goes when they need to film a train.

Go deep in the Appalachian mountains to see the largest collection of logging locomotives at work, and then experience all the wonders that the Black Hills offer by rail. We finish our adventure by carving our way through the Rocky Mountains.

Great Scenic Railway Journeys: 150 Years on the Right Track will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 23rd at 9:00 p.m. and Friday, the 27th at 10:30 p.m.

In Their Own Words

Princess Diana

“Princess Diana” on In Their Own Words is a unique exploration of Diana’s life—her choices, her suffering and her triumphs—through a contemporary lens. It is the story of a woman who defied expectations and evolved into one of the most impactful icons of our time.

Through interviews with many who knew her personally, a picture of Diana emerges that reveals what drove her to challenge the restrictions of her personal life—marriage to a man who loved another woman and a royal family that attempted to mold her in its image.

When her marriage dissolved, Diana could have stepped off the world stage and created a quiet, private life. Instead, driven by a need to help others, she chose to use her celebrity to change lives.

The film features interviews with John Travolta, biographer Andrew Morton, several close friends and others.

In Their Own Words “Princess Diana” airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 8th at 7:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. and Monday, the 23rd at 8:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 8th at 6:00 p.m. and Monday, the 9th at 2:00 p.m.

Can one murder change the world?

Fatal Shot, a four-part series, uses forensic research and hard facts to go inside the minds of assassins, and to discover how their acts have affected the course of world history, from the assassinations of Archduke Franz Ferdinand to President John F. Kennedy.

"From One Death, Many" focuses on the assassinations of Archduke Ferdinand, Rwandan President Juvénal Habyarimana, and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, all of which have something key in common: these political assassinations triggered war, genocide and the deaths of countless others.

"Disrupters of Peace" looks at the assassinations of Mahatma Gandhi, Martin Luther King Jr., and John F. Kennedy, all proponents of peace and progressive ideals. Who, then, were the individuals driven to annihilate their dreams?

"Clandestine Killers" follows the assassinations of Mujahideen leader Ahmad Shah Massoud, former Russian secret service agents Alexander Litvinenko and Sergei Skripal, and Swedish Prime Minister Olof Palme, all killed because they knew too much.

Finally, from suicide squads and murderous cult members to deluded misfits hell-bent on fame, "Brainwashed Assassins" explores how the mind can be manipulated, transforming ordinary individuals into lethal assassins.

Fatal Shot can be seen Monday, the 2nd at 8:00 p.m./9:00 p.m. (Pts. 1 & 2) and Tuesday, the 3rd at 8:00 p.m./9:00 p.m. and Sundays at 11:00 p.m. beginning the 8th. Watch it on 3-1 Monday, the 9th at 7:00 p.m./8:00 p.m. (Pts. 1 & 2) and Tuesday, the 10th at 7:00 p.m./8:00 p.m. (Pts. 3 & 4).

Native America

Native America, a four-part series, weaves oral history and science with living Indigenous traditions to bring to life the world created by America's First Peoples 15,000 years ago. The series reveals a land of massive cities connected by social networks spanning two continents, with unique and sophisticated systems of science, art and writing.

Explore the rise of great American nations, from monarchies to democracies, investigate lost cities in Mexico, a temple in Peru, and a tapestry of shell beads in upstate New York whose story inspired our own democracy.

Filmed in some of the most spectacular locations in the hemisphere, Native America illuminates the splendor of a past whose story has for too long remained untold.

Native America will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 24th. It airs on 3-1 Tuesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 24th.

Anne Boleyn: Arrest, Trial, Execution

Anne Boleyn: Arrest, Trial, Execution, a three-part series, examines the final days of Anne Boleyn, second wife of Henry VIII.

Part one explores Anne Boleyn's final days of freedom, her relationships with the men she was accused of committing adultery with, her last letter to her husband, the confession of musician Mark Smeaton that led to her arrest, and how her one-time ally, Thomas Cromwell, led the case against her.

Part two details the charges brought against Anne Boleyn: adultery, incest and conspiracy to murder the King.

The final verdict is reached as Anne Boleyn is tried before a jury of her peers in the King's Hall of the Tower of London—a public spectacle that attracted over 2,000 attendees. Was the trial an orchestrated plot or were the accusations legitimate?

Anne Boleyn: Arrest, Trial, Execution will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 15th. The series airs on 3-1 Sundays at 11:00 p.m. beginning the 15th.

Ernie Pyle: Life in the Trenches

More than 75 years after his death, famed World War II correspondent and Pulitzer Prize-winning columnist Ernie Pyle remains one of the most accomplished and beloved journalists in American history.

Ernie Pyle: Life in the Trenches follows Pyle from his beginnings as a cub reporter in Indiana to his travels across the U.S. covering the Great Depression, and finally, to his firsthand reports from the foxholes alongside American troops during World War II. The colloquial charm and folksy style of Pyle's writings spoke to his readers as he captured snapshots of American life during the 1930s.

At the height of his popularity during World War II, 40 million people read Pyle's dispatches from the frontlines of World War II, often told from the perspective of the common US soldier. The documentary reveals that through some of the darkest chapters in America's history, the voice of Ernie Pyle became the voice of the American people—a voice of promise, grit and determination.

Ernie Pyle: Life in the Trenches can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 9th at 9:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Sunday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m.

The Lesson

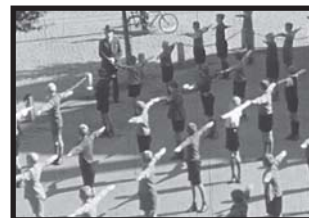

At age 14, every child attending school in Germany is brought face to face with the nation's past. For many, this means confronting the reality of the Holocaust for the very first time.

The Lesson traces the educational journey of four students in the town of Fröndenberg over the course of five years. From the first uneasy discussions in the classroom to an emotional visit to the nearby Sachsenhausen concentration camp, the students are introduced to the atrocities committed in their own community.

Complicating matters, students hear conflicting ideas from their gym coach that contradict the formal curriculum.

The film lays out the architecture of the Nazi educational curriculum that was installed in public schools before World War II for wartime indoctrination.

The Lesson airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 8th at 2:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 10th at 10:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Wednesday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m.

Fall Festival Specials

Discovering You Warrior Spirit

In a new PBS fundraising program, D.J. Eagle Bear Vanas (Ottawa) teaches us to tap into the power of our warrior spirit to build a more fulfilling life. Discovering You Warrior Spirit with D. J. Vanas applies Native American traditions and philosophy to the challenges of everyday life, inspiring us to find and empower the warrior in each of us.

The program provides a clear and compelling guide to creating a more rewarding and satisfying life, leading viewers to recognize and use their assets, leverage their own strengths, and have a positive impact on others. As we emerge from the global pandemic, many are examining their lives and seeking a more meaningful path. The message of Discovering Your Warrior Spirit is as timely as it is timeless. "A warrior fights for something bigger than self, leads by example, and isn't focused on what they can get but what they can do for others," Vanas said.

Vanas' personal path informs his work. Born to impoverished teenage parents, he graduated from the Air Force Academy and became a decorated Air Force captain, a best-selling author, and a sought-after motivational speaker.

Discovering Your Warrior Spirit airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 17th at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 21st at 12:00 noon. It airs on 3-1 Sunday, the 15th at 11:00 a.m. and Friday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m.

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD:

The William Still Story

Underground Railroad: The William Still Story captures the personal story of William Still, one of the most significant figures in the abolition of slavery. His passion for the cause of freedom was so great that when he died in 1902, The New York Times called him the "Father of the Underground Railroad."

Still was chairman of the Philadelphia Vigilance Committee that offered desperately needed assistance to runaway slaves. He helped hundreds escape slavery, but his enduring achievement was recording the stories of those he helped reach freedom.

Still's diaries remain one of the most awe-inspiring records of the Underground Railroad. This program reveals many of the dramatic and heroic stories that were part of the most immense humanitarian enterprise of the 19th century, perhaps ever.

Underground Railroad: The William Still Story airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 18th at 8:30 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 22nd at 5:30 p.m.

All Creatures Great and Small: Between the Pages

Based on James Herriot's beloved books, All Creatures Great and Small on Masterpiece was the feel-good hit series of the winter. All Creatures Great and Small: Between the Pages brings viewers behind-the-scenes and between-the-pages of the hit series to experience all the drama, humor and joy that preserves the rich spirit, tone and values of Herriot's iconic characters and novels.

The program captures the best moments from the series, and interviews with the cast and creators offer their insights and reflections on this life-affirming and timeless story.

Between the Pages looks back fondly at the warmth, humor and quirkiness of the fictional village of Darrowby as we celebrate the first season of All Creatures Great and Small and look ahead to Season Two.

All Creatures Great and Small: Between the Pages airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 15th at 6:30 p.m. On 3-1 it airs Sunday, the 22nd at 7:00 p.m.

Mary Chapin Carpenter: One Night Lonely

In November 2020, acclaimed singer, songwriter and musician Mary Chapin Carpenter performed a special concert in her favorite venue, Virginia's legendary Wolf Trap. Taped during the pandemic, the one-of-a-kind event featured a rare solo performance by Carpenter to an empty house.

Mary Chapin Carpenter: One Night Lonely features songs from throughout her career including her most recent album, The Dirt And The Stars, and The Things That We Are Made Of—Carpenter's first collection of all-new material since 2016.

Mary Chapin Carpenter: One Night Lonely can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m. It will be broadcast on 3-1 Saturday, the 21st at 8:30 p.m.

Salute to Budapest and Vienna

A dazzling musical celebration of song and dance, Salute to Budapest and Vienna features works from some of Europe's most beloved composers, including Johann Strauss Jr., Emmerich Kálmán and Franz Lehár. With songs from The Merry Widow, Gipsy Love, Die Fledermaus, Countess Maritza and more, this glorious new production was taped in Budapest in 2020. It includes traditional Hungarian dances and the breathtaking "Blue Danube Waltz."

Salute to Budapest and Vienna can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 22nd at 7:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 15th at 9:00 p.m.

FRONTLINE

In the Shadow of 9/11

"In the Shadow of 9/11" on Frontline is a searing tale set in the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks. The program charts the story of the so-called "Liberty City Seven," a group of young Black men who were accused of assisting Al Qaeda in a plot to blow up buildings within the U.S. Although these young men were not Muslims, had no weapons and never communicated with anyone from Al Qaeda, five of them were convicted at the third federal trial, after two mistrials.

Through the tragic journey of the Liberty City Seven, the documentary explores the moral panic that emerged from the attacks, as well as the FBI's obsessive search to uncover the "enemy within."

"In the Shadow of 9/11" on Frontline can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 10th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 12th at 7:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Friday, the 13th at 9:00 p.m.

A Two-Hour Special Marking the 20th Anniversary of the 9/11 Attack

Of the almost 3,000 people who died on 9/11, around one hundred were fathers of babies who were not yet born.

GENERATION 9/11 explores the lives of seven of these children and their families, as we track their journeys into adulthood.
