Since 2010, the Buffalo Toronto Public Media Travel Club (BTPM) has been delighting its members with inspired and sophisticated travel locally and abroad. Each trip, planned in partnership with longstanding licensed tour companies, is carefully curated with WNED and WBFO's audiences in mind. In keeping with its mission of engaging the Western New York and Southern Ontario communities through exploration and entertainment, BTPM presents an array of PBS, NPR and locally produced streaming content that enriches and educates our audiences. Our programs include national series, such as Masterpiece, Antiques Roadshow, NOVA, Morning Edition, All Things Considered, and local productions like Compact Science, Shakespeare's Greatest Hits, Now We're Cooking LIVE, and The War of 1812. BTPM's programs are accessible on multiple media platforms. The BTPM Travel Club connects like-minded travelers and public media fans for once-in-a-lifetime experiences. Partial proceeds from each trip registration benefit BTPM's six stations, which means you get to travel the world and support local public broadcasting at the same time!

Don't miss this festive trip to New York City with BTPM and Anthony Chase

Travel with Anthony Chase, a Buffalo-based theater critic, broadcaster, writer, and educator whose voice has been a staple of BTPM NPR for more than 30 years. He hosts "Theater Talk," offering witty, insightful commentary on theater in Western New York, Southern Ontario, and New York City, and he founded the Artie Awards, which honor local theater while raising funds for HIV/AIDS charities. Anthony teaches theater history and dramatic literature at Buffalo State University.

RADIO CITY ROCKETTES The Rockettes are an American precision dance company. Founded in 1925 in St. Louis, they have, since 1932, performed at Radio City Music Hall in New York City. Until 2015, they also had a touring company. They are best known for starring in the Radio City Christmas Spectacular, an annual Christmas show, and for performing annually since 1957 at the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York.

SCHMIGADOON! Everybody needs an escape. Welcome to Schmigadoon! - the magical town where every day is a musical. Everybody has a song for everything, the corn is as high as an elephant's eye, and the only bridge out of town leads nowhere. When one couple accidentally wanders in, they discover the only way to escape is by finding true love - which may or may not be with each other.
