TIME TEAM AMERICA

Time Team America, the PBS series that combines archaeological discovery with good storytelling, is back for a gripping second season. Each of the four new episodes explores a different region and time in U.S. history through the eyes, ears, and expertise of a team of adventurous archaeologists.

Search for Josiah Henson: The Man Behind the Story of Uncle Tom's Cabin, Episode 1

Josiah Henson's 1849 autobiography inspired Harriet Beecher Stowe's novel Uncle Tom's Cabin and galvanized abolitionists. But for 30 years, he was enslaved, on what was once a 270-acre plantation run by Isaac Riley. An acre of land and an old house are all that remain. Time Team America descends on a upscale DC suburb, peeling back layers of the old kitchen floor to discover what remains here of Henson's life and legacy.

Bones of Badger Hole, Episode 2

At Badger Hole, Oklahoma, the Time Team America crew excavates what may be the largest Folsom-period bison kill site in North America. Long extinct, Bison Antiquus roamed the plains 10,000 years ago. How were Paleoindian hunters able to kill so many of these massive bison—weighing 1500 pounds each—without the help of bows and arrows or even horses? What can these bison bones tell us about our ancient past?

Unlocks America's Past

Lost Civil War Prison, Episode 3

In 1864, the Confederate Army marched Union prisoners into a hastily built compound called Camp Lawton in Jenkins County, Georgia. The population mushroomed to more than 10,000 in just six weeks. Then, as Sherman's army approached, guards and prisoners alike were forced to flee. Abandoned, the camp disappeared into the forest and remained undisturbed for over a century. The Team searches for the original camp site and for artifacts that tell us of the hellish experiences of the prisoners once held captive here.

Lost Pueblo Village, Episode 4

In Cortez, Colorado, the Team explores a village that 1500 years ago was home to people of the Basketmaker III era, a culture that advanced itself with technologies like farming, pottery, and the bow and arrow. The innovations of the Basketmaker III era led to the complex, beautiful Ancestral Pueblo cliff dwellings of the nearby Mesa Verde region, one of the first permanent settlements in North America. Recent discoveries lead researchers to ask: how did life here shape human history?

On both 3-2 and HD3-1, Time Team America will be broadcast as follows: Episodes 1 and 2 can be seen Tuesday, August 19th at 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Episodes 3 and 4 air Tuesday, August 26th at 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. On HD3-1 only, the series repeats Wednesdays at 6:00 a.m and 12:00 noon (Pts. 1 & 3) and 7:00 a.m and 1:00 p.m. (Pts. 2 & 4).

Masterpiece Mystery!

Breathless

Just What the Doctor Ordered

Jack Davenport, Zoe Boyle, and Catherine Steadman team up for a medical series with astounding suspense, supreme satire, and smart sixties style on "Breathless," airing in three parts on Masterpiece Mystery!

Jack Davenport stars as Dr. Otto Powell and Catherine Steadman portrays Angela Wilson in "Breathless."

Set in London in 1961, "Breathless" follows the exploits of doctors, nurses, and spouses connected with a busy obstetrics ward at a National Health Service hospital. It's a time when gynecologists are all men and nurses aspire to a trip down the aisle with a good-looking doctor. Abortion is illegal, the Beatles are still nobodies, and society is on the cusp of profound change.

No one seems to have more going for him than Otto Powell (Davenport), a welloff gynecologist who can perform miracles in the operating room and has a trophy wife and a bright, well-mannered son. Otto also has a wandering eye, which alights most recently on new nurse Angela Wilson (Steadman), who plays uncommonly hard-to-get. Unknown to all, Angela is already married—although abandoned years earlier—and is the sister of another of Otto's nurse conquests, Jean (Boyle). Both sisters are mixed up in Otto's occasional "specials"—secret abortions that he performs out of concern for the health of women in dire straits. All risk imprisonment for their deeds.

The plot thickens considerably with the appearance of an obsessed detective who connects the dots that link some of the characters to events in another country and a different decade. It's an inquiry that leaves protagonists, not to mention viewers...breathless.

"Breathless" on Masterpiece Mystery! will be broadcast Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning August 24th and repeats Friday, August 29th at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, the series airs Sundays at 8:00 p.m. and 12:00 midnight beginning August 24th and repeats Mondays at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

24 Emmy Nominations

Masterpiece has been honored by the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences with 24 nominations for the 2014

Primetime Emmy Awards—12 for "Downton Abbey" and 12 for "Sherlock: His Last Vow."

The two-hour "Sherlock: His Last Vow" starring Benedict Cumberbatch (left) on Masterpiece will be re-broadcast Sunday, August 3rd at 10:00 p.m. with a repeat Friday, August 15th at 10:30 p.m.

DICK CAVETT'S WATERGATE

Dick Cavett's Watergate premieres exactly 40 years to the hour since President Nixon appeared on television to announce his resignation, which would officially take effect the next day, August 9th, 1974.

With the exception of the nightly network news shows, no one on television devoted more airtime to Watergate than talk show host Cavett. From 1972 to 1974, America watched the Watergate scandal unfold on "The Dick Cavett Show" as Cavett interviewed nearly every major Watergate figure—on both sides of the crisis—including John Ehrlichman, Alexander Haig, G. Gordon Liddy, Jeb Magruder, and members of the Senate Watergate Committee: Senators Howard Baker, Daniel Inouye, Herman Talmadge, Lowell Weicker, and more.

Dick Cavett's Watergate begins with the first critical Watergate milestone: the arrest of five men for breaking and entering into the Democratic National Committee (DNC) headquarters at the Watergate complex in Washington, DC, on June 17th, 1972, and then takes viewers through each development in the scandal to the final critical milestone, the subsequent pardon by President Gerald R. Ford on September 8th, 1974. In an interview from 1979 with President Ford, Cavett pressed the president for his opinion of Nixon's guilt or innocence. President Ford's response, 35 years later, is still surprising.

Dick Cavett's Watergate can be seen Friday, August 8th at 9:00 p.m. and repeats Tuesday, August 12th at 10:00 p.m.

Dorothea Lange: Grab a Hunk of Lightning

Her celebrated photograph "Migrant Mother" is one of the most recognized and arresting images in the world, a haunting portrait that came to represent the suffering of America's Great Depression. Yet few know the story, struggles, and profound body of work of the woman behind the camera: Dorothea Lange.

Migrant Mother (1936)

American Masters "Dorothea Lange: Grab a Hunk of Lightning" explores the life, passions, and vision of the influential photographer. Her enduring images document five turbulent decades of American history, including the Great Depression, the Dust Bowl, and World War II Japanese American internment camps.

Award-winning cinematographer Dyanna Taylor—the grand-daughter of Lange —directs and narrates this intimate American Masters portrait of the artist whose empathy for people on the margins of society challenged America to know itself.

American Masters "Dorothea Lange: Grab a Hunk of Lightning" can be seen Friday, August 29th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, August 31st at 9:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Friday, August 29th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, August 30th at 7:00 p.m.

Secrets of Her Majesty's Secret Service

Her Majesty's Secret Service, or MI6 as it is known, is the world's most legendary spy agency, thanks to the James Bond stories. Set up in 1909 as the Secret Service Bureau, the existence of MI6 was not formally acknowledged until 1994—which goes a long way toward understanding the modus operandi of this government agency. Secrets of Her Majesty's Secret Service reveals that initially, the bureau was set up to control secret intelligence operations overseas, particularly concentrating on Imperial Germany's activities.

With unprecedented access to some of the key players in British espionage, this film lifts the veil on the shadowy world of spying, going back in time and behind the scenes to look at some of the world's most calculated and delicately executed operations.

Secrets of Her Majesty's Secret Service airs Sunday, August 31st at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Sunday, August 31st at 7:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m.

15 TO LIFE: Kenneth's Story

The United States is the only country in the world that routinely condemns children to die in prison, some as young as 12 years old.

Does sentencing a teenager to life without parole serve our society well? This is the story of one of those children, now a young man, seeking a second chance in Florida. At age 15, Kenneth Young received four consecutive life sentences for a series of armed robberies. Imprisoned for more than a decade, he believed he would die behind bars. Now a U.S. Supreme Court decision could set him free.

"15 to Life: Kenneth's Story" on P.O.V. (Point of View) follows Young's struggle for redemption, revealing a justice system with thousands of young people serving sentences intended for society's most dangerous criminals.

Kenneth's sentence was not a rarity. There are more than 2,500 juveniles serving life sentences in the United States for non-lethal crimes, as well as for murder. In the 1990s, many states reacted to a rise in violent youth crimes by amending their laws to allow more juveniles to be tried as adults. Then, in 2010, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Graham v. Florida that life sentences for juveniles convicted of crimes other than murder were unconstitutional. That made 77 Florida inmates, including Kenneth, eligible for early release. But how would the Florida courts, historically in favor of juvenile life sentences, apply the Supreme Court decision to a decade-old case?

"15 to Life" is an eye-opening portrait of the American justice system as it stands today, putting an indelibly human face on its policies concerning children.

"15 to Life: Kenneth's Story" on P.O.V. will be broadcast Monday, August 4th at 9:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Monday, August 4th at 8:00 p.m. and Tuesday, August 5th at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Jimmy Van Heusen: Swingin' with Frank & Bing

Frank Sinatra and Jimmy Van

Jimmy Van Heusen: Swingin' with Frank & Bing celebrates the four-time Oscar-winning composer and test pilot who wrote high-flying songs for his legendary pals—Frank Sinatra and Bing Crosby-including "Swinging on a Star" and "Moonlight Becomes You" for Bing Crosby and "Come Fly With Me" for Frank Sinatra, plus "Call Me Irresponsible," "The Tender Trap," "All the Way," "High Hopes," "Here's That Rainy Day," and many others. Sinatra recorded over 80 songs by Van Heusen—more than any other composer. They were close friends and musical kindred spirits, "they got into music together, they got into movies together and they got into trouble together," says Frank Sinatra, Jr.

The special features interviews with Frank Sinatra, Jr., Harry Crosby, Tony Bennett, Angie Dickinson, Shirley MacLaine, Woody Allen, and John Pizzarelli along with archival footage of timeless performances by Sinatra, Crosby, Judy Garland, and many others, Born Edward Chester Babcock in Syracuse, New York in 1913, Van Heusen was playing the piano at five and creating his own melodies at seven. Moving to New York, he was inspired by a department store display of Van Heusen shirts and changed his name. Working as a house pianist in Tin Pan Alley, he met and became friends with a rising young singer named Frank Sinatra.

Jimmy Van Heusen: Swingin' with Frank & Bing airs Saturday, August 9th at 6:30 p.m. and Sunday, August 17th at 6:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, August 10th at 6:00 p.m.

Burt Bacharach's Best

Burt Bacharach and Dionne Warwick

For over half a century, the popular melodies of celebrated composer Burt Bacharach have touched millions of music lovers around the world. Bacharach established himself in the 1960s, creating some of the most beloved and successful pop music ever to grace radio, television, and film. Hosted by Robert Wagner and featuring rare clips from the 1960s to the 1980s, Burt Bacharach's Best celebrates the legendary songwriter with performances by the original artists who made his music famous.

Bacharach teamed with lyricist Hal David for a stunning run of classic songs, many in tandem with Dionne Warwick ("Walk On By," "I Say A Little Prayer," "Alfie"). British songbird Dusty Springfield introduced the seductive standard "The Look Of Love," while Tom Jones popularized the playful "What's New Pussycat?," Herb Alpert romanticized with "This Guy's In Love With You," and Jackie DeShannon touched hearts with the iconic "What The World Needs Now Is Love." The Carpenters reached #1 with "(They Long To Be) Close To You," following another number one, "Raindrops Keep Fallin' On My Head." The 1980s witnessed more Bacharach chart-toppers such as "That's What Friends Are For."

Burt Bacharach's Best can be seen Sunday, August 10th at 9:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Saturday, August 9th at 8:30 p.m.

PBS Previews: The Roosevelts: An Intimate History

PBS Previews: The Roosevelts: An Intimate History is an exclusive peek at the making of The Roosevelts: An Intimate History, Ken Burns's upcoming seven-part, 14-hour documentary series that airs for seven consecutive nights beginning Sunday, September 14th.

PBS Previews gives viewers first-hand access into the grand estates and intimate cottages of the Roosevelts, and visits the studio where Burns recorded the voices of the stars who read the diaries, letters, and contemporary accounts of Theodore, Franklin, and Eleanor Roosevelt.

The Roosevelts: An Intimate History marks the first time the Roosevelts' individual stories have been woven into a single narrative, following the family's story for more than a century, from Theodore's birth in 1858 to Eleanor's death in 1962. Over the course of those years, Theodore would become the 26th president of the United States and his beloved niece, Eleanor, would marry his fifth cousin, Franklin, who became the 32nd president. Together, they redefined the relationship Americans had with their government.

PBS Previews: The Roosevelts: An Intimate History can be seen Monday, August 11th at 7:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, August 10th at 7:30 p.m.

Chicken Soup for the Soul: Food & Family

In today's busy world, gathering together for dinner with family or friends can seem like a luxury. But sharing food with people you care about is not only fun, it's important for health and well-being, and has the power to create lasting bonds between the generations.

Three extraordinary hosts from the food world—Amy Newmark, Publisher and Editor-in-Chief of the Chicken Soup for the Soul series, Catherine Cassidy, Editor-in-Chief of Taste of Home Magazine, and John Doherty, former Executive Chef of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York—explore the relationship between food, family, and love, in Chicken Soup for the Soul: Food & Family.

The program combines current research on the medical and health benefits of shared meals with personal insights on how the legacy of caring and love can be gifted to others.

The hosts dispel the belief that it's too much work and not enough fun to create family dinners, special occasion meals, or invite friends to drop by for a bite to eat. They discuss how to stock the pantry so you are always prepared to feed friends or family easily; inspiring stories about how shared meals have changed lives; how to have fun and not worry when cooking for large numbers of people; and how to prepare easy one-pan recipes and great comfort food.

Chicken Soup for the Soul: Food & Family can be seen Sunday, August 10th at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, August 12th at 8:30 p.m., and Sunday, August 17th at 3:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it will be broadcast Saturday, August 9th at 6:00 p.m. and Wednesday, August 13th at 9:00 p.m.

KENW Public Radio "Summer of Fun" Drive

We are especially grateful to our many listeners who helped us raise the necessary funds to continue to bring you the programming you enjoy. A very special "thank you" goes out to the following Challenge Grant Donors who very generously offered dollar-for-dollar matching grants to all pledges that came in from their communities:

*Candlewood Cards & Gifts of Carlsbad, NM - $1000 grant

*The Toles Company of Roswell, NM – $1000 grant

*Ruidoso Physical Therapy Clinic of Ruidoso, NM – $300 grant

We also want to thank our volunteers who donated their valuable time and talents both on-air and behind-the-scenes. And another thanks goes out to Daylight Donuts of Portales, who provided delicious snacks for our volunteers throughout the drive.
