THE AFRICAN AMERICANS MANY RIVERS TO CROSS

African Americans: Many Rivers to Cross, a six-hour series, chronicles the full sweep of African American history, from the origins of slavery on the African continent through 500 years of historic events right up to when America has a black President, yet remains a nation deeply divided by race. Hosted by Harvard scholar Henry Louis Gates, Jr., the series draws on some of America's top historians to shed new light on the experience of being an African American.

The film also explores the multiplicity of cultural institutions, political strategies and religious and social perspectives that African Americans have developed against unimaginable odds. All of these elements define black culture and society in its extraordinarily rich and compelling diversity.

The Black Atlantic (1500–1800) portrays the earliest Africans, both slave and free, beginning a full century before the first documented “20-and-odd” slaves who arrived at Jamestown, Virginia.

The Age of Slavery (1800–1860) illustrates how black lives changed dramatically in the aftermath of the American Revolution.

Into the Fire (1861–1896) examines the most tumultuous and consequential period in African-American history: the Civil War and the end of slavery, and Reconstruction's thrilling but tragically brief “moment in the sun.”

Making a Way Out of No Way (1897–1940) captures the Jim Crow era, when African Americans struggled to build their own worlds within the harsh, narrow confines of segregation.

Rise! (1940–1968) focuses on the long road to civil rights, when the deep contradictions in American society finally became unsustainable.

A More Perfect Union (1968–2013) witnesses African Americans as they set out to build a bright new future on the foundation of the civil rights movement's victories, but a growing class disparity between the black middle class and the black urban poor threatened to split the black community in two.

African Americans: Many Rivers to Cross airs on 3-2 Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m./8:00 p.m. beginning the 4th. On 3-1, it airs Saturdays, 7:00 p.m./8:00 p.m. beginning the 8th.

LIBERTY & SLAVERY

The Paradox of America's Founding Fathers

Revolutionary America was a place of extraordinary paradox. America's Founding Fathers were men yearning for a nation of individual liberty and unprecedented independence. Thomas Jefferson expressed this desire for freedom from England in the Declaration of Independence in 1776 by writing: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

Indeed the phrase “all men are created equal” is the most powerful ideal that comes out of the American Revolution. But, at the time of the writing of this phrase, the origins of America were already seeded with a cruel paradox because many of the liberty-loving Southern Founding Fathers were also slave owners, including Thomas Jefferson, George Washington, James Madison and Patrick Henry.

But in examining this paradox, should we consider the 18th century culture into which the Founding Fathers were born? Further, why did the anti-slavery Northern Founders compromise with the slave-owning Southern Founders regarding slavery before ratifying the U.S. Constitution?

Liberty & Slavery: The Paradox of America's Founding Fathers takes viewers back in time to better understand the men responsible for America's greatest victories—and most heinous sins.

Liberty & Slavery: The Paradox of America's Founding Fathers airs on 3-2 Sunday, 16th at 10:00 a.m., Thursday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m. and Friday, 21st at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Friday, 28th, 9:00 p.m.

Nicholas and Alexandra: The Letters

Ever since their executions one hundred years ago during the Russian Revolution, the world has been fascinated by Tsar Nicholas II and his wife, the Empress Alexandra. Nicholas and Alexandra: The Letters, a two-part documentary, explores Nicholas and Alexandra's complex relationship, eccentric religious views, political ineptitude and reliance on the mystic Rasputin, one of the most interesting characters in Russian history. Nicholas' government was the final imperial state in Russia before the rise of a socialist revolution, led by the Bolsheviks and Vladimir Lenin.

Complete misjudgment on the part of the tsar and his wife led to the great Russian Empire's fall into economic and military collapse. And as the Revolution took hold in the country, their position became increasingly precarious as widespread blame for Russia's woes was aimed solely at the Royal couple, which would eventually bring an end to their reign.

Presented by historian Dr. Suzannah Lipscomb, the film relies on the personal correspondence between Nicholas and Alexandra to paint the full picture of how the Russian Empire fell. Their thousands of letters—written in English—reveal the intimate details of their affection, delusions and above all, the road to revolution. From their total isolation to their political ineptitude, these private and personal letters chronicle in graphic detail their disastrous leadership in the lead up to the Russian Revolution of 1917.

Nicholas and Alexandra: The Letters can be seen on 3-2 Sundays, the 9th and 16th at 7:00 p.m. and Sundays, the 23rd and 30th at 2:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Mondays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 10th.

Over the last century and a half, the camera has been the British Royal Family's confidante, messenger, pursuer and keeper of memories. British historian and host Lucy Worsley explores this complex relationship in Lucy Worsley's Royal Photo Album, uncovering the stories behind some of the most famous photographs of the British Royal Family. Viewers will learn how the royal family collaborated with generations of photographers to create images that reinvented the British monarchy.

Going back to the mid-19th century, Lucy looks at the earliest photographs of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, showing the British royals as a family rather than aloof rulers. One of the most iconic images of the post-war era was Elizabeth II's coronation portrait, which conjured a vision of magic and tradition for austerity Britain.

No royal, however, has mastered photography as much as Princess Diana. She used her image to focus attention on her message, whether meeting Aids patients or stepping onto a recently cleared minefield.

But for all the pictures like these that the royal family want you to see, there are plenty they don't, including daring portraits of Princess Margaret taken by her photographer husband Lord Snowdon and images of Edward VIII's scandalous relationship with Wallis Simpson.

Lucy Worsley's Royal Photo Album can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 16th at 6:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Sunday, the 16th at 6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 18th at 1:00 p.m.

The Poison Tree

A terrific suspense debut, reminiscent of Du Maurier's Rebecca. I wish I had written it.

— Stephen King

Based on a novel by Erin Kelly, The Poison Tree is a psychological drama that follows mother Karen Clarke as she investigates the double murder case that sent her partner, Rex, to prison for 12 years. This taut thriller begins when Karen and her nine-year-old daughter, Alice, pick up Rex from a ten-year stint in prison.

Flash back to the sultry summer in 1990s London when Karen, a straight-A student on the verge of college graduation, first meets the exotic, flamboyant Biba and joins her sordid lifestyle in a crumbling mansion.

Karen begins a relationship with Biba's older brother, Rex, and falls into a bohemian summer of freedom. Naïvely, Karen assumes her newfound happiness will last forever. But Biba and Rex have a complicated family history—one of abandonment and crippling guilt—and Karen's blissful summer is about to end in blood.

When old ghosts come back to destroy the life it has taken Karen a decade to build, she has everything to lose. She will do whatever it takes to protect her family and keep her secret. Alternating between the fragile present and the lingering past with a shocker of an ending, The Poison Tree is a brilliant suspense debut.

This program contains adult content and language. Viewer discretion is advised. The Poison Tree airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 2nd at 9:30 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 9th at 9:00 p.m.

MyAnna Buring stars as Karen Clarke.

Do No Harm: Exposing the Hippocratic Hoax

Doctors take an oath to save lives yet most people are shocked to learn that they have the highest rate of suicide among all professions—almost twice that of the general population. Now, the COVID-19 pandemic has put healthcare workers in the spotlight. But long before this outbreak, doctors and medical students were suffering in a toxic health care system leading to high rates of suicide and burnout.

In Do No Harm: Exposing the Hippocratic Hoax, filmmaker Robyn Symon, who comes from a family of physicians, pulls back the curtain on a toxic culture that is pervasive, beginning in medical school.

Symon travels the country interviewing dozens of medical students, residents, senior physicians, families as well as authors and the chiefs of top medical institutions. From bullying, sleep deprivation and seeing life and death every day in an assembly-line health care system, the internal and external pressures are a time bomb. At the same time, physicians are discouraged from seeking emotional help as they are programmed to be tough and seeking help could actually ruin their careers.

Striving to protect their public reputations, medical schools and hospitals have downplayed or ignored the crisis for decades. Yet in Do No Harm, we see a glimmer of hope with recent efforts to address the well-being of medical students and physicians.

Do No Harm: Exposing the Hippocratic Hoax airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 23rd at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, the 25th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday the 26th at 9:00 p.m.

Daring Women Doctors: Physicians in the 19th Century

At this crucial time when women physicians and nurses are contributing significantly to our community's health, Daring Women Doctors: Physicians in the 19th Century provides a look at the challenging and illuminating history of 19th century women doctors. Hidden in American history, all women's medical schools began to appear in the mid-19th century, long before women had the right to vote or own property.

The film highlights the intrepid, pioneering and diverse women who faced hostility and resistance in their pursuit of medical educations. It examines how these women physicians greatly impacted their communities around the United States and internationally.

Daring Women Doctors: Physicians in the 19th Century can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 18th at 10:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 30th at 10:00 a.m. Watch it on 3-1 Saturday, the 22nd at 4:00 p.m.

Reagan

In 1988, after two terms in office, Ronald Reagan left the White House one of the most popular presidents of the 20th century—and one of the most controversial. A former Hollywood star and seemingly simple man, Reagan was consistently underestimated by his opponents. One by one, he overcame them all.

“Reagan” on American Experience explores the man who saw America as a “shining city on a hill” and himself as its heroic defender.

The program follows Reagan’s life from his itinerant boyhood in Illinois to his dramatic 1980 victory over Jimmy Carter. Only 70 days into his presidency, a would-be assassin’s bullet left him more debilitated than anyone knew.

Reagan’s massive military buildup and bold challenges to the Soviet Union caused his critics to portray him as a trigger-happy cowboy. But he negotiated deep cuts in nuclear weapons and resolved to end the Cold War. Five years after leaving office, Reagan announced he had Alzheimer’s disease and dropped from public view.

The two-part “Reagan” on American Experience airs on 3-2 Mondays, the 17th and 24th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesdays, the 5th and 12th at 7:00 p.m.

Statecraft: The Bush 41 Team

“The more I study the end of the Cold War,” says historian Jeffrey Engel at the beginning of Statecraft, “the more amazed I am that we’re all still alive.”

Statecraft: The Bush 41 Team examines how the foreign policy team of President George H. W. Bush guided the country through a series of international crises. Told through the recollections of the individuals who faced them, the film considers the legacy—both positive and negative—of this consequential American presidency.

This fascinating documentary explores the presidency of George H.W. Bush and his foreign policy team’s expertise as they navigated the fall of the Berlin Wall, reunification of Germany, the collapse of Russia, the Panama invasion and the invasion of Kuwait.

Statecraft: The Bush 41 Team can be seen on Tuesday, the 4th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 6th at 7:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Friday, the 7th at 9:00 p.m.

Charlottesville

When Charlottesville, Virginia voted to dismantle a statue of Confederate general Robert E. Lee and rename the park in which it stood, from Lee Park to Emancipation Park, tensions flared.

By August 11, 2017, hundreds of white supremacists had arrived in Charlottesville, bearing flaming torches and angrily shouting antisemitic slogans. The next day, protestors and counter protestors amassed at Emancipation Park, many wearing body armor and wielding shields, clubs and guns. Self-proclaimed neutral militias wore military fatigues and bore semi-automatic long rifles.

The violence that occurred shocked America and the world, as they witnessed beatings on the streets and in parking decks and a car driving into a crowd of counter protestors, killing one young woman.

Charlottesville, a two-hour documentary, explores the events leading to the tragedies of August 2017, and grapples with the difficult question of how such acts are possible in modern America.

Charlottesville airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 25th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m.

The Highpointers with the Bargo Brothers

The Highpointers with the Bargo Brothers is about two adventurous brothers from Texas who explore the United States by climbing the highest point in each state. Along the way, they invite local experts to join them as they discover the best things each state has to offer, including unique dining spots and top historical and cultural destinations.

The five-part, half-hour series begins in Virginia where they climb that state’s highest peak, Mr. Rogers. They go on to tackle Guadalupe Peak in Texas, Mt. Washington in New Hampshire, Driskell Mountain in Louisiana and Mt. Elbert, the highpoint in Colorado.

The Highpointers will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 11:30 p.m. beginning the 9th, Thursdays at 4:30 p.m. beginning the 13th and Sundays at 1:00 p.m. beginning the 16th (except 30th). It can be seen on 3-1 Thursdays at 5:00 p.m. beginning the 27th.

Second Wind: Tale of a Sailor

Second Wind: Tale of a Sailor follows award-winning nautical photographer Onne van der Wal as he completes a solo, hands-on restoration of a 1972 Pearson 36 sailboat.

The film chronicles Onne’s three-decade career racing large sailboats and photographing some of sailing’s most thrilling moments around the world—from the Arctic to the tropic.

It shows how he draws upon the knowledge and tenacity he has gleaned from a lifetime at sea to refit his sailboat from stem to stern.

Working through the freezing winter in Newport, R.I., Onne finishes the renovation in time to enjoy the summer sailing season with his family.

Second Wind: Tale of a Sailor can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 9th at 2:00 p.m. and Wednesday, the 26th at 9:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Wednesday, the 19th at 9:00 p.m., Thursday, the 20th at 2:00 p.m. and Monday, the 24th at 6:00 a.m.

FEVER The Music of Peggy Lee

Fever – The Music of Peggy Lee explores the life and songs of the legendary singer-songwriter. 2020 marks the centennial anniversary of Peggy Lee's birth and her considerable contributions to the world of jazz and popular music. Fever is told in her own words through vintage interviews and performances, including "It's A Good Day," "He's A Tramp," "Why Don't You Do Right?," "Is That All There Is?," "I'm A Woman," "Hey, Big Spender" and, of course, "Fever."

Fever – The Music of Peggy Lee will be broadcast on 3-2 Saturday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m. on KENW-TV.

Johnny Cash A Concert Behind Prison Walls

In Johnny Cash – A Concert Behind Prison Walls, Linda Ronstadt and Roy Clark join the Man in Black at the Tennessee State Prison for a nationally televised concert appearance from 1974. The concert features a total of nine performances, including "Folsom Prison Blues," "Hey Porter," "Desperado," "You're No Good," "Shuckin' the Corn," "A Boy Named Sue" and more.

Although it was never intended that the concert soundtrack be released as an album, it was released 11 days after Cash's death.

In Johnny Cash – A Concert Behind Prison Walls airs on 3-2 Monday, the 31st at 7:00 p.m.

Riverdance 25th Anniversary Show

Filmed on the 25th anniversary of its first full performance at the 3Arena in Dublin—the spot where it all began—the Riverdance 25th Anniversary Show is a powerful and stirring reinvention of this beloved family favorite. Catapulting Riverdance into the 21st century, this new cinematic experience immerses viewers in the extraordinary and elemental power of music and dance.

Riverdance brings thrilling energy and passion to Irish and international dance. Twenty-five years ago, seven minutes changed the face of Irish dancing forever.

Riverdance 25th Anniversary Show airs on 3-2 Saturday, the 29th at 7:00 p.m.

ABBA Forever

In 2019 Swedish supergroup ABBA celebrated several anniversaries: 50 years since they first met, 40 years since their last concert, and 20 years since the musical Mamma Mia! gave them a second life. ABBA Forever—A Celebration is exactly that: a celebration of the lifetime of joy the group has brought to American fans.

Featuring Neil Sedaka, Donny Osmond, Tim Rice and the band members themselves, ABBA Forever leads viewers through what is surely the most surprising popular music story of our age. With the focus on music, a greatest hits soundtrack including "Dancing Queen" is a highlight.

ABBA Forever—A Celebration can be seen on 3-1 Saturday, the 29th at 7:00 p.m.

Deepak Chopra: Becoming Metahuman

Deepak Chopra, a world-renowned pioneer in integrative medicine and personal transformation, reveals how to become happier, more joyful and energetic in Deepak Chopra: Becoming Metahuman. Dr. Chopra and his guests explore the benefits of gaining a deeper understanding of the science behind happiness, meditation and consciousness. With a simple three-step process featuring tangible actions that anyone can take, Dr. Chopra transforms the scientific discoveries of consciousness into a part of our lives.

Throughout the two-hour program, Dr. Chopra unlocks the secrets of moving beyond our present limitations to access a field of infinite possibilities. The special features noted scientists and researchers, including astrophysicist Neil deGrasse Tyson, psychologist Rick Hanson, best-selling author and Harvard Ph.D. Martha Beck, neuroscientist Richard Davidson, cognitive psychologist Don Hoffman and others.

Deepak Chopra: Becoming Metahuman airs on 3-1 Saturday, the 29th at 2:00 p.m.

From Jesus to Christ: The First Christians

Frontline's "From Jesus to Christ: The First Christians" presents the epic story of the rise of Christianity. The two-part series transports viewers back 2000 years to the time and place where Jesus of Nazareth once lived and preached.

Jesus of Nazareth grew up in a hotbed of radicalism and political activism, eventually becoming a preacher. His message was characterized by simple metaphor and targeted at an agrarian populace. To the authorities, however, he was a politically dangerous social reformer whose message about the coming of the "Kingdom of God" was a threat to the peace of Rome.

The film focuses on the events that occurred after the death of Jesus as his followers created a movement that would transform the Roman Empire in just 300 years.

Frontline's "From Jesus to Christ: The First Christians" airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 30th at 11:00 a.m. On 3-1, watch it Sunday, the 30th at 5:00 p.m. (both episodes air back-to-back)
