MYSTERIES of the JESUS PRAYER

Known by generations of eastern Christians, the ancient Jesus Prayer has been in use since the Apostles, but remains largely unknown in the west. For the first time on film, desert hermits, monks, and nuns reveal the simple prayer, bringing us into their private cells, caves, and sanctuaries in the Middle East, Mediterranean, Eastern Europe, and Russia.

Mysteries of the Jesus Prayer travels along with theologian and author, Dr. Norris J. Chumley, and renowned historian and priest, Very Rev. Dr. John A. McGuckin, as they take a modern exodus to the ancient lands where Christianity and the Church began. Witness some of the world's oldest treasures of religious art and sacred altars, hidden away in monasteries and chapels and off-limits to the outside world.

Mysteries of the Jesus Prayer begins at the oldest surviving monastery and church in the world, St. Antony's from the 4th century, near the Red Sea in Egypt. Crawl inside St. Antony's cave where he lived for 46 years. Meet Father Lazarus, former atheist, now its spiritual leader. Travel to Mt. Sinai, where Moses encountered God, to St. Catherine's Monastery to experience prayers and meditations with the monks, long before daylight. Voyage to holy Mt. Athos, Greece, where only hermits and monks are allowed, joining in continuous prayers and chants for the last 1,000 years.

Mysteries of the Jesus Prayer airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 9th at 5:00 p.m., Sunday, the 23rd at 2:00 p.m., and Monday, the 24th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Tuesday, the 25th at 9:00 p.m.

(LtoR): The Very Rev. Dr. John A. McGuckin and Dr. Norris J. Chumley travel to the ancient lands where Christianity and the Church began in MYSTERIES OF THE JESUS PRAYER.

Walking the Camino: Six Ways to Santiago

Spain's 1200 year-old Camino de Santiago has attracted millions of people from all around the world to embark on an epic 500-mile pilgrimage famous for its profoundly enlightening, spiritually nourishing, and physically challenging rewards. The pilgrimage started as a religious processional to the shrine of St. James in Galicia, Spain. Over 300,000 people a year embark on this sacred path, and more than eight times the number of Americans do the Camino today as a decade ago.

Walking the Camino: Six Ways to Santiago follows six modern-day pilgrims, ages 3 to 73, as they attempt to cross an entire country on foot. Equipped with only a backpack, a pair of boots, and an open mind, our six pilgrims set off on individual journeys, but finish together as pilgrims-in-arms unhindered by age, nationality, religious backgrounds, or life experience. Walking 11 to 15 miles per day, the film captures the trials and tribulations of the pilgrims as they cope with exhaustion, loneliness, and self-doubt to triumph over the fears and prejudices that have become roadblocks in their own lives.

There are several Santiago trails across Europe, all of which lead to Galicia. Often pilgrims choose to finish their Camino by walking the Camino Finisterre, which is the only route that begins in Santiago and takes you towards the Galician coast at Cape Finisterre, also known as the end of the world. The most famous route, the Camino Frances, was the route featured in the movie "The Way," starring Martin Sheen and his son, Emilio Estevez.

Walking the Camino: Six Ways to Santiago airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 16th at 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 18th at 9:00 p.m.

SACRED

Sacred is a kaleidoscopic travelogue depicting demonstrations of faith worldwide. The film features 40 top filmmakers in 25 countries who record scenes large and small, to create a respectful exploration of faith and religious practice across the globe.

At a time when religious hatreds dominate the world's headlines, this film explores how people around the world turn to ritual and prayer to navigate the milestones and crises of private life. Sacred aims to portray the positivity, the joy, and fulfillment, and at times the humor, of practicing religion. The film has no narrator and usually just reveals the first name of the subject and the town and country in which they are filmed.

Traveling from weddings to funerals to family blessings and more, Sacred proves that the commonalities of individual devotional experience across vast divisions of geography, culture, and faith are greater and more fundamental than the differences.

Sacred can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 10th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 16th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 16th at 9:00 p.m.

Happy Holidays with the Boston Pops

Happy Holidays with the Boston Pops showcases the best of the New England holiday season with the Boston Pops and Tanglewood Festival Chorus, under the direction of Keith Lockhart, performing beloved classics, including “Christmas Canticles” and “Hallelujah Chorus” from Handel’s Messiah.

Filmed at historic Symphony Hall in Boston, the show features several special segments, including a performance by Justin Hopkins, bass-baritone. Country superstar Sara Evans sings songs from her holiday album “At Christmas,” and “Mad Men,” and Broadway star Robert Morse reads “’Twas the Night Before Christmas.”

No holiday Pops concert would be complete without the orchestra’s signature rendition of Leroy Anderson’s “Sleigh Ride,” a piece written expressly for the Boston Pops.

Happy Holidays with the Boston Pops airs on 3-2 Monday, the 24th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 25th at 7:00 p.m.

Christmas with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir featuring Sutton Foster and Hugh Bonneville

Broadway actress, singer, and dancer Sutton Foster and acclaimed British actor Hugh Bonneville (Downton Abbey) are the featured guest artist and narrator at this year’s Christmas concert by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir. The holiday special guarantees audiences world class music, dance, and storytelling.

A distinctly Victorian flair marks this year’s concert. From the opening processional featuring dancers performing to the music of a fiddler on stage, to the audience sing-along of “Jingle Bells,” to the narration by Bonneville of a heartrending 1873 tale of tragedy and triumph, the Mormon Tabernacle Choir holiday concert evokes an 1800s yuletide feeling.

The Christmas with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 17th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 23rd at 10:00 a.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 22nd at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 25th at 8:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

New York Philharmonic’s New Year’s Eve with Renée Fleming

Ring in the New Year with beloved American soprano Renée Fleming and the New York Philharmonic for an evening of elegance and sophistication celebrating the intersection of classical music and dance, on Live From Lincoln Center’s “New York Philharmonic’s New Year’s Eve with Renée Fleming.”

From the great waltzes and polkas of Johann Strauss II to musical pearls from composers like Stephen Sondheim, Kander & Ebb, and acclaimed film composer Alexandre Desplat (“The Shape of Water”), the Philharmonic conjures the splendor and sparkle of a night at the Ball.

LFLC’S “New York Philharmonic’s New Year’s Eve with Renée Fleming” airs on 3-2 Monday, the 31st at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 31st at 7:00 p.m.

INDEPENDENT LENS

MAN ON FIRE

“Man on Fire” on Independent Lens tells the story of Charles Moore, an elderly Methodist minister, who drove to an empty parking lot in his old hometown of Grand Saline, Texas—population 3,266—and set himself on fire. He left a note on his car’s windshield explaining that this act was his final protest against the virulent racism of the community and his country at large. “Man on Fire” seeks to understand what drove Moore to his shocking final act—and what if anything, it changed.

Grand Saline, home to one of Morton’s largest salt mines, has always had a reputation as a town inhospitable to African Americans. Oral tradition has it that there were signs at each end of the town warning African Americans to leave before sunset, and stories of lynchings and beheadings are well-known. Although the town fathers claim the stories are just rumors, African Americans from neighboring towns still avoid passing through. The shroud of secrecy ended when Charles Moore self-immolated and the media took note.

A committed Methodist, Moore attended Southern Methodist University and became a preacher, first in Texas and then on the west side of Chicago, where his passion for social justice flourished. A fierce supporter of racial equality, LGBT rights, the abolition of the death penalty, and more, his parishioners and colleagues marveled at the depth of his commitment. Even before his death, they understood that Moore was willing to die for what he believed.

Independent Lens “Man on Fire” can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Sunday, the 23rd at 9:00 p.m.

Sarah Brightman in Concert: Hymn

Thrill to the exquisite voice of the world's best-selling soprano in Sarah Brightman in Concert: Hymn. Featuring beloved favorites from her career and enchanting songs from her new album "Hymn," the concert was filmed from the Festspielhaus in the enchanted Bavarian Alps, known for the historic and captivating Neuschwanstein Castle.

The concert closes with a new rendition of Brightman's signature smash duet with Andrea Bocelli, "Time To Say Goodbye," singing lyrics that she wrote herself, and sung in English for the first time.

Sarah Brightman in Concert: Hymn can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 2nd at 7:30 p.m.

Donny Osmond: One Night Only!

In 2017, Donny Osmond embarked on a sold-out United Kingdom arena tour. The final performance, at the Birmingham National Exhibition Center, was filmed in HD, capturing the pop heartthrob as he performs all his major hits, plus a range of classics from every genre.

Donny Osmond: One Night Only! features new songs from his 60th—yes 60th!—album along with his enduring repertoire. Proving that his place in music history is well deserved, this is the definitive concert for this pop culture icon.

Donny Osmond: One Night Only! can be seen on 3-1 Sunday, the 2nd at 8:30 p.m.

Call the Midwife Holiday Special 2018

Acclaimed actress Miriam Margolyes (Professor Sprout in "Harry Potter") guest stars in the Call the Midwife Holiday Special 2018 and in episode one of Season 8 (which premieres in early 2019) as Sister Mildred, a forthright and indefatigable sister from the Order. She arrives unexpectedly at Nonnatus House, her hands full with four Chinese orphans. Having fled China, the child refugees were found abandoned in Hong Kong and are being adopted in the UK.

While the midwives are busy caring for the expectant mothers of Poplar, these unexpected visitors cause both joy and chaos.

The Order's Mother Superior has also been taken ill and a new spiritual leader needs to be elected. It soon becomes clear, much to Sister Julianne's horror, that she is the favoured candidate to take over.

Call the Midwife Holiday Special 2018 airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 25th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, 30th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 30th at 9:00 p.m.

Inside Balmoral

It's difficult to think of a giant royal estate that covers 50,000 acres as a private getaway, but for the British royal family, that's what Balmoral is. Inside Balmoral, a three-part series, covers the dramatic moments and historical events that occurred within the walls of Balmoral Castle as Queen Elizabeth and her family lived there.

Hidden away in the heart of the Scottish Highlands is the royal retreat—twice the size of Britain's largest city. It is the one place on earth where Queen Elizabeth can truly escape. While the Queen treats Buckingham Palace as her office and Windsor Castle as her home, Balmoral is her private sanctuary. At the end of every summer, Queen Elizabeth II makes her annual pilgrimage north to Scotland for a multiple week-long holiday at Balmoral Castle.

Inside Balmoral reveals how the lives of the Queen and her family have been shaped by this most secret royal home. The vast estate has witnessed some of the most dramatic moments in Royal history. Balmoral served as the destination for Prince Charles and Princess Diana's less-than-romantic honeymoon. It's also where Prince Harry and Prince William learned of their mother's tragic death in 1997.

The first home at Balmoral was reportedly built in 1390, but the property didn't enter into the British Royal family until 1852, when Prince Albert purchased the estate as a gift for his wife, Queen Victoria, who loved the Scottish countryside. When the residence was deemed too small, the royal couple built an additional castle—the one that still exists today. The new structure was completed in 1856, and the other building was torn down. Now, the grand estate features 150 buildings.

When the Royal Family is in residence, Balmoral is closed. There are guided tours on several dates throughout the winter, and the property offers several accommodations that are available for booking year-round.

Inside Balmoral airs on 3-2 Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 9th and Wednesdays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 12th. On 3-1, it airs Tuesdays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 11th.

Queen Elizabeth I's Battle for Church Music

Queen Elizabeth I's Battle for Church Music reveals an unlikely gift of the violent Reformation era of the British monarchy: religious music. Host and historian Lucy Worsley documents how Queen Elizabeth I and her two siblings changed the religious structure of England forever, eventually leading to the introduction of choral evensong.

Henry VIII loved religious music, but he loved power more. When he instigated his English Reformation, he dramatically split from the ancient Catholic church that controlled much of his country. But in doing so, set into motion changes that would fundamentally transform the religious music he loved.

Host and historian Lucy Worsley

Following Elizabeth I's personal story, Lucy recounts how she and her two siblings were shaped by the changes their father instigated. Elizabeth witnessed both her radically puritan brother Edward VI bring church music to the very brink of destruction and the terrifying reversals made by her sister Queen Mary I, which saw Elizabeth thrown into the Tower of London and forced to beg for her life.

When Elizabeth I finally took power, her aim was to guide the nation into an easier relationship with itself—a Protestant state, but one where priests and the archbishops of any persuasion would no longer find themselves burned at the stake simply for holding a mass with the wrong kind of hymns.

Elizabeth I resurrected the Protestant religion of her brother, but kept the music of her beloved father—music that she too adored.

Queen Elizabeth I's Battle for Church Music can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 2nd at 10:00 a.m. and Sunday, the 9th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 4th at 8:00 p.m.

Letters from Baghdad

Letters from Baghdad tells the extraordinary and dramatic story of Gertrude Bell, the most powerful woman in the British Empire in her day. Sometimes called the "female" Lawrence of Arabia was a British adventurer, archaeologist, spy, and political powerhouse, who helped shape the modern Middle East after World War I in ways that still reverberate today.

More influential than her friend and colleague Lawrence of Arabia, Bell traveled widely in Arabia before being recruited by British military intelligence to help draw the borders of Iraq after WWI. Why has she been written out of history?

Using never-before-seen footage of the region shot a century ago, the film chronicles Bell's extraordinary journey into both the uncharted Arabian desert and the inner sanctum of British male colonial power. With unique access to Bell's own 1600 letters, the story is told entirely in the words of the players of the day, excerpted verbatim from intimate letters, diaries, and secret communiqués. It is a unique look at both a remarkable woman and the tangled history of Iraq.

Letters from Baghdad will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesday, the 11th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 23rd at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Monday, the 17th at 7:00 p.m.
