Sanditon

Jane Austen's Final Unfinished Work— Finished!

Jane Austen was chronically ill with a mysterious disease in early 1817 when she turned her thoughts to a happier subject. She started work on a witty and delightful novel set in a seaside town. She never finished it.

Now, noted screenwriter Andrew Davies picks up Austen's plot and takes it in a glorious direction, on "Sanditon." The eight-hour series premieres on Masterpiece.

The storyline, as Austen left it in 11 beautifully crafted chapters, is as follows: Tom Parker (Kris Marshall) is obsessed with turning the sleepy seaside village of Sanditon into a fashionable health resort, and he enlists the backing of local bigwig Lady Denham (Anne Reid).

Tom soon makes the acquaintance of the Heywoods and invites their eldest daughter, Charlotte (Rose Williams), for an extended stay at Sanditon. There, the sensible Charlotte observes hypochondria, avarice and attempted seduction run amok.

Lady Denham is playing matchmaker for her destitute nephew, Sir Edward (Jack Fox), who is determined to seduce Lady Denham's ward, Clara (Lily Sacofsky). The arrival of wealthy, mixed-race heiress Miss Lambe (Crystal Clarke), under the protection of Tom's upright brother Sidney (Theo James), adds an interesting complication. Eligible men naturally find Miss Lambe fascinating, while Charlotte is intrigued by Sidney...

With many promising loose ends and romantic possibilities, how will the young people pair off?

LtoR: Charlotte Heywood (Rose Williams) and Miss Lambe (Crystal Clarke)

Andrew Davies imaginatively enters this world of hustlers, health cranks and Georgian-era suitors, and boldly tells us what happens next.

Remarkably, even as Jane Austen was succumbing to the ravages of her fatal illness, she chose to lampoon the contemporary fad for tonics, sea water cures and other medical remedies. Undiagnosed at the time, her malady was probably Addison's disease, which today is easily treatable. She might have had many years of writing ahead of her, but Jane Austen died at age 41, on July 18, 1817.

"Sanditon" on Masterpiece airs on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 12th with two episodes back-to-back and repeats Fridays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 17th. Watch it on 3-1 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 12th with two episodes back-to-back and Mondays at 1:00 p.m.

Howards End

Often considered E.M. Forster's masterpiece, Howards End is the story of two independent and unconventional sisters and the men in their lives, seeking love and meaning as they navigate an everchanging world. The four-part miniseries is a presentation of Masterpiece.

Margaret Schlegel (Hayley Atwell) is an intelligent, idealistic young woman who is courted by the older Henry Wilcox (Matthew Macfadyen), a self-made conservative businessman, after his wife Ruth Wilcox (Julia Ormond) dies unexpectedly and he becomes owner of Howards End, a family house.

Meanwhile, Margaret's passionate and capricious younger sister Helen Schlegel (Philippa Coulthard) takes up the cause of Leonard Bast (Joseph Quinn), a young bank clerk who falls on hard times at work and at home with his partner Jacky (Rosalind Eleazar).

In the absence of their late parents, the sisters' loving but interfering Aunt Juley (Tracey Ullman) tries to keep the young ladies and their brother Tibby (Alex Lawther) on the straight and narrow.

"Howards End" on Masterpiece can be seen on 3-2 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. beginning the 12th. On 3-1, it will be broadcast Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 12th and Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. beginning the 14th.

Vienna Blood

Vienna Blood is a thrilling six-part crime drama set in 1900s Vienna—a hot bed of philosophy, science and art, where a clash of cultures and ideas collide in the city's grand cafes and opera houses. Based on the best-selling novels by Frank Tallis, Vienna Blood stars Matthew Beard as Max Liebermann and Juergen Maurer as Detective Oskar Rheinhardt.

When Max Liebermann, a brilliant young English doctor studying under psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud, encounters Oskar Rheinhardt, a detective inspector facing a strange case, he decides to help investigate a series of unusual and chilling murders.

As one would expect given his Freud connection, the young Dr. Liebermann focuses his attention on wanting to understand the criminal mind. As he begins to observe Rheinhardt, he is able to draw upon his extraordinary skills of perception and forensics, along with his deep understanding of human behavior and deviance, to solve some of Vienna's most mysterious and deadly cases.

Vienna Blood will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 9:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. beginning the 19th. On 3-1, it can be seen Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 19th.

AM®RICAN EXPERIENCE

McCarthy

"It's a story about the fragility of democracy and how someone in power can pervert democracy. And it's about being willing to challenge a bully and stand up for our sense of decency as Americans."

— filmmaker Sharon Grimberg

"McCarthy, a two-hour documentary chronicling the remarkable rise and precipitous fall of Joseph McCarthy, the Wisconsin senator whose zealous anti-communist crusade would test the limits of American decency and democracy, premieres on American Experience. The film is based on David M. Oshinsky's book A Conspiracy So Immense: The World of Joe McCarthy.

Joseph McCarthy took office after a stunning victory in an election no one thought he could win. After serving four lackluster years in Congress, he took center stage by declaring that there was a vast conspiracy threatening America—emanating not from a rival superpower, but from within.

Free of restraint or oversight, he conducted a crusade against those he accused of being Communists and enemies of the state, a chilling campaign marked by groundless accusations, bullying intimidation, grandiose showmanship and cruel victimization. With lawyer Roy Cohn at his side, he belittled critics, spinning a web of lies and distortions while spreading fear and confusion.

Many of those subjected to McCarthy's fierce interrogations, conducted in closed-door sessions and public hearings, lost their reputations and their livelihoods. When critics arose, he belittled them, spinning an ever-increasing web of lies and distortions to distract attention, while spreading fear and confusion.

Senator Joseph McCarthy (at right) and Republican Senator Millard Tydings of Maryland face off on the first day of hearings into McCarthy's allegations that scores of communists were working in the State Department.

Finally, after years in the headlines, he was brought down by his own excesses and overreach. Not long afterward, he died a broken man. But his name lived on. For more than half a century, it has been linked to an all-too-familiar phenomenon, the modernday witch hunt we call McCarthyism.

"McCarthy" focuses on the years 1950-54, and is set against the backdrop of an intensifying Cold War between the Soviet Union and the United States, as anticommunist fervor swept across America.

"McCarthy" on American Experience can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 6th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 12th at 5:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Monday, the 6th at 7:00 p.m.

Secrets

Bombing Auschwitz

In April 1944, Jewish prisoners Rudolf Vrba and Alfred Wetzler miraculously escaped from Auschwitz concentration camp and fled through Nazi-occupied Poland to find refuge in •ilina, Slovakia. Once they reached safety, they bore witness to the atrocities happening inside the camp and the full extent of the Nazi plan to exterminate the entire Jewish population of Europe.

The news they brought forced the Allies to confront one of the great moral questions of the 20th century: Should they bomb Auschwitz? Just a month after the men's escape, Nazis rounded up 800,000 Hungarian Jews who were transported to the camp. The majority were murdered on arrival.

But with the outcome of the war hanging in the balance, could Allied forces spare the resources needed to destroy the camp? And how would the world react to an attack on a camp filled with civilians? These were the hard questions faced by Churchill, Allied Air Command, the American War Refugee Board and the Jewish Agency. To save more lives in the future, should current prisoners have been sacrificed?

"Bombing Auschwitz" explores this dilemma through dramatic recreations of arguments that took place on both sides of the Atlantic and first-hand testimony from historians, survivors and expert voices.

January 27, 2020, marks the 75th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz and International Holocaust Remembrance Day.

"Bombing Auschwitz" on Secrets of the Dead will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesday, the 21st at 8:00 p.m. and Friday, the 24th at 11:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, the 21st at 9:00 p.m.

Rudolf Vrba (David Moorst) and Alfred Wetzler (Michael Fox) escape through the forest.

London: 2000 Years of History

London: 2000 Years of History, a fourpart series, is the fascinating true story of how an uninhabitable swamp became one of the most famous cities in the world.

Episode one pieces together the first 1,000 years of London's history. It includes a search for remains of the ancient city that was built by the Romans in the first century. The handwritten messages written almost 2,000 years ago by the very first Roman Londoners are disciphered, and the exploits of Boudica, the fearsome Welsh warrior queen who sacked and burned the first Roman London, are revealed.

Episode two delves into medieval London to discover a city ripped in two by deadly rivalries: power-hungry kings and devastating disease. It includes the littleknown true story of the super-rich businessman-turned-mayor, Dick Whittington, who held ultimate control over the fortunes of Kings. An exploration of the cellars below the Ministry of Defence reveals a hidden treasure of Tudor London: the one remaining room from Henry VIII's private "pleasure palace." Architectural innovations shaped some of London's most spectacular buildings, such as Westminster Hall, and the fabulous riches plundered by Elizabethan adventurers bailed out the Queen and transformed the city.

The third episode reveals how a grand, new capital arose from the ashes and began an unprecedented period of expansion, accelerated by the Industrial Revolution. But for London's poor, cruel living conditions and dreadful pollution ruined their health and drove them to seek comfort in the gin bottle.

The capital was also devastated by a deadly cholera epidemic that killed tens of thousands of Londoners, making life in the city intolerable. The great engineer, Joseph Bazalgette, saved the capital with his pioneering new sewerage system, the largest civil engineering project in the world.

Modern London is the focus of the final episode. The Spanish Flu pandemic has a horrifying impact, and the ravages of two devastating World Wars bring London to its knees. From the subterranean Tube tunnels to the dizzying heights of London's skyline, the city is forced to expand vertically.

London: 2000 Years of History will be broadcast on 3-2 Fridays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 10th and Sundays at 10:00 a.m. beginning the 19th. On 3-1, it can be seen Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 15th.

FRONTLINE

America's Great Divide: Obama to Trump

A Two-Part Four-Hour Special

Frontline investigates America's increasingly bitter, divided and toxic politics. Part one traces how Barack Obama's promise of unity collapsed as increasing racial, cultural and political divisions laid the groundwork for the rise of Donald Trump.

Part two examines how Donald Trump's campaign exploited the country's divisions and how his presidency has unleashed anger on both sides of the divide.

"America's Great Divide" on Frontline airs on 3-2 Monday the 13th at 8:00 p.m. (Pt. 1) and Tuesday, the 14th at 8:00 p.m. (Pt. 2). It repeats on 3-2 Sundays at 5:00 p.m. on the 19th (Pt. 1) and 26th (Pt. 2). It airs on 3-1 Thursday, the 16th at 9:00 p.m. (Pt. 1) and Friday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m. (Pt. 2).

It's "Just" Anxiety

It's "Just" Anxiety aims to destigmatize and humanize this debilitating yet treatable mental health condition that affects the lives of more than 40 million Americans. The film introduces a dozen people from diverse backgrounds who describe their personal struggles with mental health issues, ranging from excessive worry and fear to compulsive behavior and torturous panic attacks. Their real-life stories demonstrate how those who suffer can begin the path to recovery.

June Moss, for instance, a retired staff sergeant in the U.S.Army, thrived in the real life or death scenarios of war, but upon returning home has been facing the debilitating effects of post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). Similarly, Scott Stossel, editor of the monthly magazine "The Atlantic," has been grappling with his generalized anxiety and various therapies for years.

We also meet Lori Daniels, who has suffered from obsessive compulsive disorder (OCD). When she comes in contact with any person or object, she must aggressively wash her hands. However, by the end of the film, Lori is in therapy and poignantly thriving—shaking hands, petting cats, accepting hugs, and working as a teacher.

It's "Just" Anxiety airs on 3-2 Thursday, the 2nd at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 5th at 12:30 p.m.

NATURE

Whale Detective

In September 2015, a 30-ton humpback whale breached and just missed landing on wildlife filmmaker Tom Mustill and his friend as they kayaked in Monterey Bay, California. Both survived the incident, but the traumatic experience haunted Mustill and left him wondering if the whale was deliberately trying to hurt them or trying its best not to.

Surviving his breaching accident led Mustill to discover why the whale, called "Prime Suspect," seemingly attacked him. Returning to California, he meets with whale experts and those who have survived similar close encounters.

Viral videos of the accident from witnesses, a database of whale tail snapshots from hundreds of citizen scientists and scientific research aid his investigation.

There is some evidence that humpback whales exhibit altruistic behavior. In one viral video, we see a humpback tuck a diver under its fin to protect her from a shark and swim her to safety. Humpbacks have also been spotted coming to the rescue of seals, sea lions and dolphins.

Humpback whales have no teeth and their throats are only slightly larger than a human throat, making them only able to swallow smaller fish. As mammals, they also breathe air, give birth to live young and maintain a high body temperature.

Inside a humpback's pectoral fins are the biggest arms on the planet. Their big tail fins are called flukes, which can propel their 30-ton bodies into the air in what is known as a breach. In addition to breaches, there are four other types of whale splashes, although the meaning and significance of each splash type is not known.

"Whale Detective" on Nature will be broadcast on 3-2 Wednesday, the 8th at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 11th at 11:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 8th at 9:00 p.m., Thursday, the 9th at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, the 11th at 4:00 p.m. and Monday, the 13th at 6:00 a.m.

Shattered Dreams: Sex Trafficking in America

It is estimated that hundreds of thousands of young girls are trafficked for sex every year in America, with many succumbing to STDs, drug overdoses, PTSD, suicide and even death. With the average age of recruitment between 12 and 17, our youth are getting targeted at also of recruitment between 12 and 17, our youth are getting targeted at alarming rates as traffickers lure them online easily through tools like social media.

Experts and law enforcement struggle to combat this underground criminal enterprise as it expands online, affecting citizens of every race, gender, age, and socioeconomic class. Yet traffickers perpetually evolve their tactics to lure, manipulate and force a shocking number of young girls into selling their bodies to meet the high demand for commercial sex.

Shattered Dreams explores the deeply rooted psychological issues that victims of sex trafficking face on a daily basis at the hands of pimps and buyers. Through first-hand, heartbreaking testimony of abuse from three survivors of the illicit sex trade, the incredibly complex nature of this form of modern-day slavery is revealed. The film gives survivors a voice by allowing viewers to hear firsthand how young girls become trafficked, with the hope that we can prevent future generations from falling victim to this horrific crime.

Shattered Dreams: Sex Trafficking in America airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 14th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 19th at 9:00 p.m.

Survivor Jaimee

Every episode a place, every episode a painting.

The unique travel series Canvasing the World with Sean Diediker explores the interplay between art and life. Diediker takes viewers on a journey exploring the people and places around the world that inspire his art, finishing each episode with a painting influenced by the stories and perspectives he's encountered.

In the premiere season, Sean travels to Indonesia, Australia, Costa Rica, Argentina and the American West (Santa Fe, NM, episode 11). He releases sea turtles in Costa Rica, helps with the rice harvest in Bali and explores body painting in the Blue Mountains of Australia.

He is inspired by spiritual practices, including a Mormon smudge ceremony and a Balinese water healing. He also meets artists, philosophers and creative people in iconic countercultural sites. Sean then returns to his studio to create a painting inspired by the people he meets, providing a unique and stunning window into the human experience.

Canvasing the World airs on 3-2 Sundays at 6:00 a.m. beginning the 26th and repeats Mondays at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1 it airs Mondays at 2:30 p.m beginning the 29th.
