Sunday Drama

Poldark rides again!

Almost 40 years ago Captain Ross Poldark galloped across the TV screens of millions of PBS viewers, vexing villains and winning female hearts in "Poldark," one of Masterpiece's earliest hit series. Now the gallant captain rides again in a thrilling new version with all the action, adventure, and romance of the original in seven new episodes on Masterpiece.

Demelza and Ross Poldark

Aidan Turner stars as Ross Poldark, a redcoat who returns to Cornwall after the American Revolutionary War to discover that his father is dead, his lands are ruined, and his true love is about to marry his first cousin. Also starring is Eleanor Tomlinson as the fiery servant Demelza, a strong-willed miner's daughter who runs away from home and finds refuge in Poldark's enlightened household.

Poldark is based on a beloved series of novels by Winston Graham. The first, Ross Poldark, was published in 1945; the last, Bella Poldark, appeared in 2002, the year before Graham's death. All twelve are subtitled A Novel of Cornwall and trace the fortunes of a landed, mine-owning family in windswept Cornwall two centuries ago.

The new series opens with a prologue in Virginia in 1781, when Captain Poldark's regiment is ambushed by the local militia fighting for independence. After the war and with a scar across his face as a souvenir, he goes home to Cornwall, where his real struggle begins.

"Poldark" on Masterpiece airs Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 21st and repeats Fridays at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 21st and repeats Mondays at 8:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

The Forsyte Saga

The Forsyte Saga, the dazzling 13–part British television drama of class, sex, and power, returns to public television. Based on John Galsworthy's novel of the same name, The Forsyte Saga chronicles the lives of an English family over 34 years from the Victorian era through World War I.

Superior, arrogant, and confident, the Forsytes are the ultimate power family. What lies beneath is a festering core of unhappy and brutal relationships, riddled with tensions and jealousy. The protagonist of the saga is Soames Forsyte (Damian Lewis): at 31, Soames is a rich, successful partner in the family law firm. His fiery, tormented relationship with his beautiful wife Irene (Gina McKee), is at the heart of the saga. Her life changes forever when she meets Philip Bosinney (Ioan Gruffudd), an architect hired by Soames to build a country house, and they fall in love.

The Forsyte Saga, a classic of English literature, was originally published in three volumes from 1906–1920. It painted a fascinating picture of early twentieth century London life, and helped win the author John Galsworthy the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1932.

The Forsyte Saga can be seen Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 14th. On HD3-1, it airs Mondays at 7:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. beginning the 1st.

Celia and Alan

Last Tango in Halifax III

The critically acclaimed British drama Last Tango in Halifax returns for a third season.

The six-part series tells the story of love-struck septuagenarians Alan (Derek Jacobi) and Celia (Anne Reid) who rediscover their love for each other later in life—60 years, in fact, after they first met.

As the third season begins, Celia and Alan are planning to make the most of their time together when a surprise visitor forces Alan to think about his past and keep a secret from Celia, which is bound to backfire.

Last Tango in Halifax will be broadcast Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 28th. On HD3-1, it can be seen Sundays at 9:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. beginning the 28th.

Crimson Field

The hopes, fears, triumphs, and tragedies of WWI's frontline medics come together in a new drama, Crimson Field. In a tented field hospital on the coast of France, doctors, nurses, and women volunteers work together as a team to heal the bodies and souls of men wounded in the trenches. The hospital is a frontier: between the battlefield and home front but also between the old rules, hierarchies, and a new way of thinking. Each of the six episodes features stories about the particle.

tients, who include British soldiers and troops from all over the world.

Crimson Field airs Sundays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 21st and repeats Fridays at 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 21st.

Tales from the Royal Wardrobe

Tales from the Royal Wardrobe examines the significance of the royal wardrobes of English monarchs over the last 400 years. Most kings and queens have carefully choreographed every aspect of their apparel. For those who haven't, the consequences have sometimes been calamitous.

Earlier on in history, it was important to impress your subjects with your wealth. That's why Elizabeth I wore dresses weighed down with jewels, and why James II got married in a suit covered in gold lace!

In more recent times, the super-stylish George IV got into trouble for spending more time with his tailor than his cabinet ministers. Edward VIII, who abdicated in 1936, was thought to be too interested in clothes. To him we owe modern trends such as sportswear worn on non-sporting occasions, and informal fashions such as Fairisle sweaters. While Princess Margaret, the Queen's younger sister, could wow the fashion world in Christian Dior's sumptuous 'New Look' of the 1940s, the Queen herself had to wear more subtle designs.

Tales from the Royal Wardrobe visits a number of museums in search of royal fashion, including Elizabeth I's extraordinary set of stays (a garment like a corset) from 1603, King James II's wedding suit, beautiful 1950s evening dresses for the Queen and for Princess Margaret, and Oliver Cromwell's hat (or is it really his hat?). And so much more.

Tales from the Royal Wardrobe airs Sunday, the 21st at 7:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Sunday, the 21st at 11:00 p.m. and Monday, the 22nd at 6:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon.

In Performance at the White House

The Gospel Tradition

In Performance at the White House "The Gospel Tradition" showcases an evening of celebration with President and Mrs. Obama at the White House in honor of gospel music and its profound influence on American music.

Emmylou Harris

The evening includes performances by Lyle Lovett,

Aretha Franklin, Darlene Love, Bishop Rance Allen, Pastor Shirley Caesar, Rodney Crowell, Rhiannon Giddens, Emmylou Harris, Tamela Mann, and Michelle Williams—with T Bone Burnett as music director and Robin Roberts as host.

"The Gospel Tradition on In Performance at the White House will be broadcast Friday, the 26th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 28th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it will be broadcast Saturday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m. on KENW-TV.

FIRST PEOPLES

200,000 years ago our ancestors took their first steps on the African savanna. Today, seven billion of us live across the planet. How did we spread from continent to continent? First Peoples is a global detective story that traces the arrival of the first Homo sapiens on five continents. The series reveals how the mixing of prehistoric human genes led the way for our species to survive and thrive around the globe. Grounded in the latest genetics, archaeology, and anthropology research, the story told is vastly different from the story of our origins that we knew just five or ten years ago.

Each episode of the five-part series focuses on a different continent—the Americas, Africa, Asia, Australia, and Europe—and meets the earliest Homo sapiens on that continent.

Episode 1 – The Americas: As early humans spread out across the world, their toughest challenge was colonizing the Americas because a huge ice sheet blocked the route. It has long been thought that the first Americans were Clovis people, who arrived 13,000 years ago. But an underwater discovery in Mexico suggests people arrived earlier—coming by boat, not on foot. How closely related were these early Americans to today's Native Americans? The answer involves one of the most controversial fossils in the world, Kennewick Man.

Episode 2 – Africa: 200,000 years ago, a new species, Homo sapiens, appeared on the African landscape. While scientists have long imagined eastern Africa as a real-life Garden of Eden, the latest research suggests humans evolved in many places across the continent at the same time.

Episode 3 – Asia: When early humans ventured out of Africa and into Asia, the latest evidence suggests they interbred with the Denisovans, a newly discovered type of ancient human whose existence was established only four years ago when geneticists extracted DNA from a tiny fragment of finger bone. Because our ancestors mated with them, their genes found a home within our DNA.

Homo sapiens in prehistoric Europe prevailed over our genetically similar cousins, the Neanderthals.

Episode 4 – Australia: When humans arrived in Australia, they were, for the first time, truly alone, surrounded by wildly different flora and fauna. There is a close cultural and genetic link between early Australians and modern-day Aborigines; here the ancient and modern story intersect as nowhere else.

Episode 5 – Europe: When Homo sapiens turned up in prehistoric Europe, they ran into the Neanderthals. The two types of human were similar enough to interbreed. As more and more Homo sapiens moved into Europe, the balance of power shifted. Neanderthals were overwhelmed. Ever since, we've had Europe and the rest of the world to ourselves.

First Peoples airs Wednesdays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 24th, two hours air back-to-back on the 24th and July 1st, and the final hour airs on July 8th. On HD3-1, the first two hours air back-to-back Wednesday, the 24th beginning at 7:00 p.m. and repeat Thursday, the 25th beginning at 7:00 a.m. and again at 1:00 p.m.

1913: Seeds of Conflict

Once Arabs and Jews lived together relatively peacefully in Palestine. How and why that changed.

Breaking new ground and laying bare old myths, 1913: Seeds of Conflict explores the little-known history of Palestine during the latter part of the Ottoman Empire, a time of relative harmony between Arabs and Jews. Living side by side in the multi-lingual, cosmopolitan city of Jerusalem, Jews, Christians, and Muslims intermingled with a cultural fluidity enjoyed by all. How did this land of milk and honey, so diverse and rich in culture, become the site of today's bitter and seemingly intractable struggle? Was there a turning point when things could have been different?

Collectives of European immigrants, soon known as the kibbutz, were an early building block of the Zionist movement.

Weaving the raveled threads of Arab and Jewish narratives back together, 1913: Seeds of Conflict provides new and fascinating insights into events that took place in Palestine which presaged a century of unrest. Shot on location in Israel and the West Bank, dramatized scenes bring many key figures of the era to life, with dialogue in five languages taken directly from the historical record—personal letters, government documents, and newspaper accounts.

1913: Seeds of Conflict offers a fresh look at the complex circumstances that transformed this once relatively peaceful outpost of the Ottoman Empire into a land perpetually torn by violence.

1913: Seeds of Conflict will be broadcast Tuesday, the 30th at 8:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 30th at 7:00 p.m.

FACING FEAR

A moment of hate. A lifetime of forgiveness.

In Facing Fear, an Academy Award–Nominee, Best Documentary Short Subject, worlds collide when a former neo-Nazi skinhead and the gay victim of his hate crime attack meet by chance 25 years after the incident that dramatically shaped both of their lives.

As a 13-year old, Matthew Boger was thrown out of his house for being gay. Trying to survive on the streets of Hollywood, he was savagely beaten by a group of neo-Nazi skinheads and left for dead. Twenty-five years later, Boger and one of his attackers, Tim Zaal, found themselves face-to-face in a chance meeting. What happened next reshaped both of them in ways they could not have imagined.

Together, they embark on a journey of forgiveness that challenges both to grapple with their beliefs and fears, eventually leading to an improbable collaboration...and friendship. Some adult language.

Facing Fear will be broadcast Friday, the 19th at 11:30 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Monday, the 8th at 8:30 p.m. and Tuesday, the 9th at 8:30 a.m. and again at 2:30 p.m.

Easy Yoga for Easing Pain airs Tuesday, the 2nd at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 7th at 10:30 a.m. On HD3-1, it will be broadcast Monday, the 1st at 9:00 p.m.

CLOUDSTREET: Soaring the American West

Cloudstreet: Soaring the American West, set in the intermountain west, is a visually stunning film that gives viewers the extraordinary experience of soaring along the Rocky Mountains of New Mexico, Colorado, Idaho, and Wyoming. Using specially developed aerial video technology, the program puts viewers in the cockpit of a sailplane flying three miles above sea level and takes them on an epic adventure, offering a view few have seen.

Cloudstreet follows four glider pilots in high-performance cross-country sail-planes as they balance the beauty, joy, and adventure of cross-country soaring with the dangers of motorless flight. Cockpit cameras capture the focused but serene expressions on the faces of the pilots as they guide their aircraft above vast vistas with their towering peaks.

Along with the beautiful vistas, the program explores the science of soaring, the art of flying sailplanes cross-country, the unique geography of the intermountain west, and the practical workings of the atmosphere.

Cloudstreet: Soaring the American West will be broadcast Monday, the 8th at 9:00 p.m. and Friday, the 12th at 10:00 p.m. On HD3-1, it can be seen Wednesday, the 3rd at 8:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 14th at 4:00 p.m.

A Message from Nancy Zieman Host of Sewing with Nancy

"I'd like to take a few moments to update you on what's happening with my life. Recently, I received unsettling news. I was diagnosed with Osteosarcoma, bone cancer. In April, the tumor was removed and I now have a partially bionic left leg! The surgery went very well. For the next several months, I'll be devoting my time and energy to intense therapy... Sewing and quilting experts from around the country will come to my aid to fill in during my absence. Regardless of how we stitch together this season, I promise that you'll learn new ideas and be inspired to create with needle and thread...

Through the grace of God, the wisdom of my medical team, and the love and support of family of friends, I plan to return to complete the remaining portion of the SWN sea-

Thanks for all the support you've given me through the years; you haven't seen the last of me yet! Bye for now!"

Summer Pledge Drive

June 13th – June 20th

First, I want to thank all of our members and contributors who gave their "Pledge of Love" during our February drive. You helped us reach our goal so that we could continue to give you the programming you enjoy.

Now it is time once again to ask for your support. On Saturday, June 13th, we begin our KENW Public Radio Network Summer Fund Drive. Public radio is listener supported and we depend on your financial contribution in order to survive.

Our goal is to give you more programming with less on-air interruption. We are asking you to make a pledge now in order to help shorten the length of the drive.

You can make a pledge by calling (575) 562-2112, toll free at 1-888-367-5369 or online at kenw.org. We hope to exceed $18,000 during this drive

We appreciate all of our members and hope that you will consider a gift of any amount in support of programs you enjoy! We look forward to hearing from you
