MASTERPIECE.

Beecham House

"Beecham House" on Masterpiece takes viewers back to a time before British rule in India, when the Mogul Empire was on its last legs. The six-part epic showcases the culture and grandeur of one of the greatest civilizations on earth at the end of the 18th century.

Shot on location in Rajasthan and Delhi in India, "Beecham House" is set in 1795. The Mogul Empire is losing its grip over a subcontinent it has dominated for the past two centuries and unrivalled wealth is up for grabs.

The drama depicts the fortunes of the residents of an imposing mansion surrounded by acres of exotic woods and pristine lawns. Tom Bateman takes the role of enigmatic, soulful John Beecham, a handsome former soldier who has purchased the magnificent mansion, Beecham House, to begin a new life with his family.

The epic family drama has everything: gorgeous locations, exquisite costumes, rich diverse characters and a compelling storyline full of deepening mystery. Add in greed, treachery and amorous entanglements, and the stage is set for a gripping saga of far-flung adventure, suspense and passion.

"Beecham House" on Masterpiece can be seen on 3-2 Sundays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 14th. On 3-1, it airs Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 14th and Mondays at 2:00 p.m. beginning the 15th.

Grantchester Season 5 Premiers

It's 1957, the year Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told the British people that they had "never had it so good." But if there's one thing you can be sure of in Grantchester, it's murder!

The new season of "Grantchester" on Masterpiece brings back all of our favorite characters with their relationships intact and stronger than ever. Will Davenport (Tom Brittney) has settled into his role as the vicar, preaching to a packed church. But his faith will be thoroughly tested as he and best friend Detective Inspector Geordie Keating (Robson Green) are reminded once more that there's darkness lurking in their little corner of Cambridgeshire. When a student from an all-female college is found dead, Geordie and the vicar are forced to infiltrate the murky world of campus life to find the killer.

"Grantchester" on Masterpiece airs on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 14th and repeats Fridays at 11:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 14th and repeats Mondays at 1:00 p.m.

Secrets of the Royal Jewels

The sparkling documentary Secrets of the Royal Jewels takes a close look at the tiaras, earrings, rings and necklaces that make up the royal collection, and tells the incredible stories behind them as they pass through the generations.

The most spectacular of all is the Koh-i-Noor diamond, translated as "the mountain of light." It sits right in the center of the British Imperial State Crown created in 1937 for King George VI. Probably the most famous diamond in the world, it's more than 300 years old and comes from India. It has never been sold, only taken away by force from one owner to another.

In 1849, after the colonization of India, the diamond landed in Queen Victoria's hands. After independence, the Indian government asked the English to return their national treasure, but the British government refused.

Secrets of the Royal Jewels can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 30th at 7:00 p.m. Watch for additional plays on 3-2 and 3-1 in July.

Prince Albert: A Victorian Hero Revealed

History remembers Prince Albert as Queen Victoria's German husband whose untimely death inspired decades of mourning. New material also suggests he played a profound role as a reformer whose innovative ideas transformed Great Britain's fortunes.

In Prince Albert: A Victorian Hero Revealed, Professor Saul David looks through

Windsor Castle's archives to tell the German prince's story. With access to more than 20,000 of Albert's private letters, journals and photographs, David examines his lasting influence on British culture and governmental policy. Historians consider Albert one of the greatest Englishmen ever, though he was German.

Among the items in the archives is the copy of Sir Walter Scott's Peveril of the Peak, which Victoria read aloud to Albert, with a black marker showing where she stopped reading when he died at age 42.

Watch Prince Albert: A Victorian Hero Revealed on 3-2 Sunday, the 14th at 7:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 14th at 6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 16th at 1:00 p.m.

Lucy Worsley's Royal Myths & Secrets

Lucy Worsley's Royal Myths & Secrets takes viewers across Britain and Europe to visit the incredible locations—beautiful palaces, castles and dramatic battlefields where royal history was made.

The three-part series investigates how royal history is a mixture of facts, exaggeration, ma-

Lucy Worsley's Royal Myths & Secrets airs on 3-2 Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 21st. Watch it on 3-1, Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 21st with a repeat Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m.

Operation Foxley – Mission: Liquidate Hitler

Operation Foxley – Mission: Liquidate Hitler recounts the full story and the detailed plan that could have led to the assassination of Adolf Hitler, and ultimately reveals why it failed.

On June 6, 1944, more than 150,000 allied troops stormed the beaches of Normandy and their victory against the Nazis was one of the major turning points in the war. Germany would eventually surrender nearly a year later, but the European theater, and possibly World War II itself, could have ended just one month after D-Day.

Operation Foxley was a scheme devised by the British government to assassinate Adolf Hitler during one of his solitary morning walks outside of his residence at the Berghof in the Bavarian mountains. It was the best chance anyone had of killing Hitler, but numerous roadblocks stopped the plan from succeeding—including the British government itself.

Operation Foxley is based on the British secret service's declassified documents and features fictionalized reenactments of the events.

Operation Foxley–Mission: Liquidate Hitler airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 9th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 14th at 5:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Monday, the 15th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 16th at 7:00 a.m.

Divided We Fall: Unity Without Tragedy

Divided We Fall: Unity Without Tragedy brings ordinary citizens together to wrestle with the complex issues that divide our nation. Breaking out of partisan echo chambers to listen to one another, the participants explore what it means to be an American, what constitutes a "more perfect union" and what can be done to bridge the gaps between them.

Over the course of two days, two sets of twelve individuals—equal numbers of whom strongly approve and disapprove of President Donald Trump and equal numbers of men and women, from Gen Xers to millennials—faced a series of topics and exercises about the challenges facing our country. They discussed the legacy of September 11, race, gun control, immigration, the news media and more.

The honest, open conversations revealed that despite divisions that are exploited and amplified on social media and cable news by pundits and politicians, that ordinary Americans "choose unity." They want the core of our democratic experiment—"We the People" to succeed.

Divided We Fall: Unity Without Tragedy will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesday, the 9th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Friday, the 12th at 9:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m.

Minor Injustice Can we morally keep sending our youth to adult prisons?

During a single year, an estimated 2.1 million youth under the age of 18 are arrested in the United States. Minor Injustice focuses on the fight to raise the age of adult prosecution from 17 to 18 in the state of Texas. Right now, Texas is one of only 3 states that charges 17 year olds as adults.

During the 2017 legislative session there were two bills being introduced that addressed this issue. One to raise the age of adult prosecution from 17 to 18, and the other would allow people currently in prison for a crime committed before the age of 18 a chance at early parole.

Currently, Texas sentencing laws ignore recent scientific evidence on adolescent development and neuroscience, and the state's current parole system provides no viable mechanism for reviewing a case after a young person has grown up and matured.

Minor Injustice can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 2nd at 10:00 p.m. and Friday, the 12th at 11:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Tuesday, the 30th at 9:00 p.m.

Over a nearly 50-year period, one of the largest cities in America was run by socialists. Between 1910 and 1960, the people of Milwaukee, WI elected three socialist mayors and the country's first socialist U.S. Congressman. America's Socialist Experiment recounts both the victories and failures of a unique brand of socialism in this historically conservative city.

Milwaukee's socialist mayors were widely respected for ending corruption, improving conditions for working people and cleaning up the environment. These socialist mayors established the nation's first municipal public housing project, pressed for an 8-hour work day and enacted the first workers' compensation law, as well as the first iterations of what would later become Social Security.

Working with the private sector, they created an extensive public parks system, appointed the country's first director of parks and recreation, and left a legacy of government support for its citizens' quality of life. They also established a public health strategy that doubled life expectancy in the city, which was one of the reasons Milwaukee escaped the worst of the 1918 Spanish Flu pandemic that ravaged other American cities.

Despite their many initiatives, the Milwaukee socialists always ran balanced budgets. But their socialist experiment was not without its failures: some programs were too optimistic and others created unintended consequences for their citizens.

Their decades-long rule in Milwaukee the longest tenure of socialists in office anywhere in America—ended only when their once-radical plans were absorbed and incorporated into the mainstream Democratic platform. Today, both Democrats and Republicans lay claim to parts of their legacy.

America's Socialist Experiment will be broadcast on 3-2 Friday, the 12th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 21st at 5:00 p.m. It can be seen on 3-1 Tuesday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m.

A Summer of Trailblazers

During the summer of 2020, PBS will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment by sharing the inspiring stories of trailblazing women—those who fought for women's suffrage in the U.S., feminist leaders throughout the 20th century and modern-day changemakers.

ANN

— Great Performances-

American

Great Performances "Ann" is a noholds-barred theatrical portrait of Ann Richards, legendary Governor of Texas (1991-95). Written and performed by Emmy Award-winning actor Holland Taylor (Two and a Half Men), the play is a compelling look at the housewife, mother, grandmother, leader and iconic patriot who enriched the lives of her followers, friends and family.

Neither partisan nor political, Ann Richards is revealed as an inspiring, complex, colorful and captivating character bigger than the state from which she hailed.

"Ann" on Great Performances can be seen on 3-2 Friday, the 19th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 21st at 10:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Saturday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m.

Gloria: A Life

Five decades after Gloria Steinem began raising her voice for women's equality and championing the equality rights of others, her vision and call to action are as urgent as ever. Great Performances "Gloria: A Life" is a richly detailed tapestry about one of the most remarkable women in modern history.

Written by Emmy-winning actress Christine Lahti, an all-female cast perform in this unique and thought-provoking theatrical format about Steinem's life story and her path to activism that includes a talking circle moderated by Steinem herself.

Great Performances "Gloria: A Life" will be broadcast on 3-2 Friday, the 26th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 28th at 10:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Saturday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m.

MASTERS Mae West: Dirty Blonde

American Masters "Mae West: Dirty Blonde" is the first major documentary film to explore West's life and career, as she "climbed the ladder of success wrong by wrong" to become a writer, performer and subversive agitator for social change.

Mae West achieved great acclaim in every entertainment medium that existed during her lifetime. A fulltime actress at seven, a vaudevillian at 14, a dancing sensation at 25, a Broadway playwright at 33, a silver screen ingénue at 40, a Vegas nightclub act at 62, a recording artist at 73, a camp icon at 85— West left no format unconquered. She possessed creative and economic powers unheard of for a female entertainer in the 1930s and still rare today.

American Masters "Mae West: Dirty Blonde" airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 21st at 12:00 noon. It airs on 3-1, Monday, the 22nd at 7:00 p.m.

° Toni Morrison: The Pieces I Am

Completed shortly before her death in August 2019, the two-hour film"Toni Morrison: The Pieces I Am" on American Masters is an unequivocal celebration of the life and work of the renowned American novelist. Toni Morrison was the author of 11 novels, recipient of the 1988 Pulitzer Prize for her work Beloved, and in 1993 the first Black woman to win the Nobel Prize in Literature.

Inspired to write because no one took a "little black girl" seriously, the film includes Morrison herself, who leads an assembly of her peers, critics and colleagues on an exploration of race, America, history and the human condition as seen through the prism of her own literature.

American Masters "Morrison: The Pieces I Am" airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 28th at 10:00 a.m. It airs on 3-1 Sunday, the 28th at 9:00 p.m.

And She Could Be Next

As U.S. demographics shift toward a nonwhite majority, elections will be decided by Americans inspired to vote for the first time. Many of these voters, who are often poor and largely immigrant, are ignored by politicians and journalists alike.

"And She Could Be Next" on POV focuses on a defiant group of women of color—as candidates and organizers—who are harnessing the political power of this New American Majority.

"There is this assumption that black people don't vote, that Latinos are not American citizens, that Asian Americans are Republicans, that young people are wholly unreliable," says one woman in the film. But history-making former Georgia gubernatorial candidate Stacey Abrams, Representative Rashida Tlaib and many other women spotlighted in this film are working to dismantle these myths.

These women of color are determined to galvanize underserved communities come Election Day. In describing the New American Majority, one young woman says, "...they're young, they're brown, they might speak another language." "And there's a lot of us," another young woman adds.

"And She Could Be Next," a two-part miniseries on POV, airs on 3-2 Monday and Tuesday, the 29th and 30th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday and Tuesday, the 29th and 30th at 7:00 p.m.__

CIVILIZATIONS

Civilizations is an awe-inspiring, gorgeously conceived exploration of the wealth of treasures created through the entirety of the human experience.

India and the funeral site of China's first emperor.

State-of-the-art photography allows viewers to see the world's treasures in new ways, bringing remote objects up close in order to celebrate detail, craftsmanship and artistry as never before.

From the great dome of the Suleymaniye mosque to the paintings of the Dutch Golden Age, Civilizations goes inside some of the world's greatest museums, historic locations, cathedrals and mosques to provide viewers special access to priceless works of art and architecture.

Civilizations will be broadcast on 3-2 Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 14th.

Greatest Bond can be seen on 3-2 Friday, the 5th at 10:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Monday, the 1st at 2:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 23rd at 7:00 a.m.
