Search for the Last Supper

Today, no one disputes the genius of Leonardo da Vinci or the impact of his Milanese masterpiece, the Last Supper. But few know that only about 20 percent of Leonardo's original fresco remains. Most experts are resigned to the same conclusion: we no longer know what the painting that ushered in the age of the High Renaissance looked like...or do we?

Based on the new book Young Leonardo by art historian Jean-Pierre Isbouts and Christopher Health Brown, an art connoisseur, Search for the Last Supper embarks on a thrilling quest across Europe in search of a missing masterpiece, one that may finally reveal Leonardo's true vision of the most famous sacred art work in the world.

Filmed on location in Italy, France, and Belgium, with lavish period dramatizations, Search for the Last Supper culminates with an extraordinary revelation—the discovery that a life-sized canvas, in all its brilliant hues and tones, of the Last Supper in a remote Belgian monastery was actually painted by Leonardo and his studio, showing us exactly what the original Last Supper looked like.

The film reveals how Isbouts and Brown discovered that Leonardo and his workshop had painted a second Last Supper on canvas, just seven years after the original fresco was completed—making this the most exciting da Vinci discovery in years.

The film also overturns many old and cherished assumptions about Leonardo's early career, showing that

The internal nave of the church Santa Maria Delle Grazie, Milan, Italy, hosts the Last Supper mural painting by Leonardo da Vinci.

Leonardo was not a "celebrity court artist" in Milan, but rather an outlier, which forcefully motivated him to create something revolutionary with the Last Supper.

Search for the Last Supper will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 25th at 10:00 a.m. and Thursday, the 29th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 29th at 7:00 a.m.

Stealing Your Life with Frank Abagnale

Identity theft affects someone every four seconds. Who is a better target for identity thieves than a Chicago millionaire? The answer might surprise you: your 14-year-old son, for one. Who is a better target than your 14-year-old son? Even more surprising—your new born baby with a social security number.

Stealing Your Life with Frank Abagnale is an essential reference, presented by the unsurpassed authority on identity theft. Abagnale's years as a con man were depicted in the film "Catch Me If You Can." After serving prison sentences in three different countries, he spent decades as an FBI agent specializing in identity theft and has written several best-selling books on the subject.

In Stealing Your Life, Abagnale begins with an account of his earlier years, from running away from home at 16-years-old, to traveling millions of miles around the world while impersonating a Pan Am pilot, to his tenure impersonating a medical doctor, to finally landing in a French prison.

In the program, Abagnale examines the growing problem of identity theft, explaining how incredibly easy it is for anyone to assume someone else's identity, the devastating impact of such a crime, and the ways identity thieves work. He shares dozens of steps viewers can take to protect themselves and their family from identity theft, offering a critical proactive solution to one of today's most nefarious and common crimes.

The program reveals how everyday ordinary occurences may make you vulnerable to identity thieves, such as writing a check; owning a credit card or debit card; posting a front-facing photo of yourself on social media; sharing personal details of your life on facebook, such as your date and place of birth or your vacation plans; and discarding mail with the address label still intact, just to name a few.

Stealing Your Life with Frank Abagnale airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 11th at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, the 22nd at 7:00 p.m., and Friday, the 30th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday the 14th at 2:00 p.m. and Friday, the 23rd at 9:00 p.m.

Into the Night: Portraits of Life and Death

Into the Night: Portraits of Life and Death, a two-hour film, features nine men and women grappling with the universal questions posed by our mortality. How do we endure when we know death is near—with defiance, as Dylan Thomas exhorts us, "To rage, rage against the dying of the light"?

Or with gentle acceptance? Clenched fists? With mordant humor? Or, more commonly, with denial? What story gives our lives meaning in the face of death?

Into the Night presents intimate, candid portraits of individuals from all walks of life—an actor, an astrophysicist, preacher, philosopher, artisanal mortician—young and old, for whom death is no longer a far-off abstraction. Each of them has been shocked into mortality and are forever changed.

For some, witnessing the death of others has shaped their life's direction, their world view and their beliefs. Others, facing terminal illnesses for years, confront their imminent end with unexpected epiphanies. These dramatic accounts challenge, unsettle and inspire while bringing lyrical insight to this often taboo topic.

Weaving science, cryonics, near-death stories and green burials, Into the Night invites us to rethink our place in the universe.

Into the Night: Portraits of Life and Death can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Tuesday, the 27th at 8:00 p.m.

An American Home:

Frank Lloyd Wright's B. Harley Bradley House

Architect Frank Lloyd Wright redefined architecture with the B. Harley Bradley House—one of his earliest designs—in Kankakee, Illinois. This commission helped launch Wright's Prairie School period where he experimented with open floor plans, long ribbons of art-glass windows, horizontal elevations, and other design elements that forever changed how homes were designed.

An American Home: Frank Lloyd Wright's B. Harley Bradley House spotlights the story of this architectural treasure and explores its uncanny connection to the rise, fall, and resurgence of its designer and the community in which it resides. All three have faced moments of great hardship, but have emerged from the struggle, thanks to perseverance and determination.

An American Home airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 11th at 9:30 p.m. and Tuesday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 14th at 1:00 p.m., Monday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, the 27th at 7:00 a.m., and Thursday, the 29th at 2:00 p.m.

The Rise and Fall of the Brown Buffalo

The Rise and Fall of the Brown Buffalo is a look at the unorthodox life and complex legacy of Oscar Zeta Acosta, the Chicano movement's forgotten activist hero, radical lawyer, and literary celebrity. The story of Acosta's life served as the basis for the character Dr. Gonzo in Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas.

Acosta's powerful literary voice, brash courtroom style and notorious revolutionary antics made him a revered figure within the Chicano movement of the 1960s and 70s, and offered one of the most brazen assaults on the status quo and white supremacy seen at the time.

Nasario Remembers the Río Puerco

Nasario Remembers the Río Puerco follows celebrated folklorist Nasario García doing what he loves: wandering through landscape and memory amid the ghost towns of New Mexico's Rio Puerco valley, reviving recuerdos tales of his youth when the ranching villages thrived and viejitos elders told stories beside a river that once ran.

Dr. García's first book of oral histories was adapted into the stage play, When the Stars Trembled in Río Puerco, performed in Santa Fe and Albuquerque. Oral histories, ar-

Call the Midwife Season 7

Fans of Call the Midwife will be pleased that the ladies of Nonnatus House are back for a seventh season. In the new series, Nonnatus House faces the changes of 1962, from the beacon of the contraceptive pill to new welfare policies. As they strive to help mothers and families cope with the demands of child-bearing, disability, disease and social prejudice, our beloved medics must make choices.

Back in Poplar,

the austere Sister Ursula is appointed the new head of Nonnatus House, and Sister Julienne finds herself demoted. Poplar welcomes Nurse Lucille Anderson (Leonie Elliott), the first West Indian midwife to be featured as a series regular. Bryony Hannah, Emerald Fennell, and Kate Lamb decided to quit the midwifery drama.

INDEPENDENT LENS Dolores

"Dolores" on Independent Lens focuses on one of the most important, yet least known activists of our time. Dolores Huerta was an equal partner in founding the first farm workers union with César Chávez. Leading the fight for racial and labor justice, Huerta evolved into one of the most defiant feminists of the 20th century—and she continues the fight to this day, at 87.

With unprecedented access to this intensely private mother of 11, the film tells the story of Huerta's life from her childhood in Stockton to her early years with the United Farm Workers, from her work with the grape boycott in 1965 to her role in the feminist movement of the 70s to her continued work as a fearless activist.

Dolores Huerta, CA, 1969

"Dolores" is an intimate and inspiring portrait of a passionate champion of the oppressed and an indomitable woman willing to accept the personal sacrifices involved in committing one's life to social change.

"Dolores" on Independent Lens airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 27th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 28th at 7:00 p.m.

The Rolling Stones: Sticky Fingers

On May 20th, 2015, at the historic 1920s Fonda Theatre in Hollywood, California, the legendary Rolling Stones performed their entire Sticky Fingers album live in concert for the first and only time. The show celebrated the reissue of the Sticky Fingers album and was the opening night of the band's "Zip Code" tour of North America that would take place over the next two months.

The intimate setting of the Fonda Theatre was in contrast to the huge stadiums in which the band would perform for the rest of the tour, making this an incredibly special occasion for those fans lucky enough to get a ticket.

The Rolling Stones: Sticky Fingers at the Fonda Theatre features some of the band's greatest hits, including "Brown Sugar" and "Wild Horses."

The Rolling Stones: Sticky Fingers airs on 3-2 Monday, the 5th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 6th at 8:00 p.m.

I simply help children learn." Archive performances by Tony Bennett, Wynton Marsalis, Hillary Hahn, and many others are also featured, along with Rogers' wife Joanne, who shares personal stories.

Mister Rogers: It's You I Like airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 6th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Saturday, the 3rd at 9:30 a.m. On 3-3, it airs Sunday, the 11th at 1:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 17th at 3:30 p.m.

On the 40th anniversary of the album and tour, this lost documentary is pieced together for the first time in Queen Rock the World.

Queen Rock the World will be broadcast on 3-2 Thursday, the 8th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Saturday, the 17th at 9:00 p.m.

In Food: What the Heck Should I Eat?, Dr. Mark Hyman looks at every food group—from meats to beverages and everything in between—and explains what we've gotten wrong, revealing which foods nurture our health and which pose a threat. He also shares what foods will take less of a toll on our environment and our health.

Little Women: A Timeless Story

Little Women: A Timeless Story previews a new adaptation of one of the most-loved novels in the English language, premiering on PBS in May. Little Women is a truly universal coming of age story, as relevant and engaging today as it was when originally published in 1868.

Set against the backdrop of the American Civil War, the story follows the four sisters Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy March on their journey from childhood to adulthood, as they navigate what it means to be a young woman: from gender roles to sibling rivalry, first love, loss and marriage.

Emily Watson is set to play Marmee, the iconic matriarch of the March family, while Dame Angela Lansbury stars as the girls' wealthy relative, the cantankerous Aunt March.

Little Women: A Timeless Story airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 11th at 6:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m.

Survival Guide for Pain-Free Living

In Survival Guide for Pain-Free Living, Peggy Cappy joins forces with yoga and neuromuscular therapist Lee Albert to show how "easy to do stretches" and "held positions" of the body can relieve chronic pain which now affects more Americans than the combined number of those living with cancer, heart disease, and diabetes.

While there is no simple "cure" for chronic pain, it can be managed successfully if you follow a regular pain management plan that can help greatly relieve the symptoms.

Survival Guide will be broadcast on Sunday, the 11th at 5:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 18th at 11:00 a.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 4th at 12:30 p.m. and Friday, the 16th at 7:00 p.m.
