MASTERPIECE.

Mrs. Wilson

Actress Ruth Wilson stars as her own grandmother Alison in the true story of a woman's search for her husband's real identity on "Mrs. Wilson," airing in two thrilling episodes on Masterpiece.

At the outset of World War II, Alison McKelvie met and fell in love with Major Alexander Wilson when they were both working for the secret service. A popular author of spy novels, Alec was then doing real intelligence work for the war effort.

Iain Glen costars as Alec, a seductive operative in the mold of James Bond. It was Alec's novels that pioneered the character of the debonair spy, based on his own qualities. This personality type was later exploited by Ian Fleming in his Bond books.

"Mrs. Wilson" opens in 1963, when Alison and Alec have been married for more than 20 years. Shortly after Alec suffers a fatal heart attack, a grief-stricken Alison is confronted by a woman claiming to be Alec's real wife, Gladys. Alison is also approached by Alec's colleagues, who refer to puzzling aspects of his work and personal life.

Alison (Ruth Wilson) and Alec (lain Glen)

Spy or swindler? Determined to find out who Alec really was, Alison tracks down his old spymaster, and soon enters the world of secret intelligence, where agents assume identities, pursue careers, fake romances, and undergo public humiliations, all in the name of serving their country.

"Mrs. Wilson" on Masterpiece can be seen on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 31st. On 3-1, it airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 31st.

King Arthur's Lost Kingdom

In the fifth century, the future of Britain hung in the balance. After four centuries of Roman occupation and leadership, the Romans up and left, leaving the nation vulnerable to an invading Anglo-Saxon horde—or at least that's what the fragmentary historical texts record. The truth is no one really knows what happened, and this pivotal moment in history has been shrouded in mystery until now.

In Secrets of the Dead "King Arthur's Lost Kingdom," Professor Alice Roberts uses exciting new archaeological discoveries to decode the myths and piece together a very different story of this turning point in Britain's history. Key to her quest is the excavation of a stone palace complex on the Tintagel peninsula in Cornwalllong believed to be the birthplace of the King Arthur legend.

More than folklore, was Arthur in fact ruler of a prosperous and sophisticated Dark Ages trading village and the heroic defender of the native Britons against the invading Anglo-Saxons?

Secrets of the Dead "King Arthur's Lost Kingdom" will be broadcast on 3-2 Wednesday, the 27th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 31st at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Friday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m..

Host Julian Davison

OTTOMANS VERSUS CHRISTIANS:

THE BATTLE FOR EUROPE

Ottomans Versus Christians: The Battle for Europe travels to the Balkans, Eastern Europe, and the former Soviet Union, where the bloody power struggle between Christian Europe and the Muslim Ottoman Empire lasted for nearly three centuries. This conflict was more than just a fight over wealth and territory, it was a battle for cultural and religious supremacy.

The three-part series presents an epic tale that traces the Empire back to when it first began and explores its expansion into Europe. Although the exact date is unknown, the Ottoman Empire is said to have come about when its founder, Osman I, had a prophetic dream instructing him to take authority over the world. After gaining control of Anatolia, the Ottomans then set their sights on expanding their Empire.

The series explores the first battles the Ottomans fought to gain control of the Balkans in the 1300s, then moves to the Empire's Golden Age and fateful siege of Vienna in the 1600s, and concludes with the struggles between the Ottomans and the Tsarist Russians that resulted in the Crimean War in the 1800s, and the Empire's transformation into the modern Turkish state.

Host Julian Davison uncovers the vast legacy of the Ottoman Empire, its impressive architecture, and the continuing repercussions of this legendary clash of civilizations.

Ottomans Versus Christians: The Battle for Europe can be seen on 3-2 Tuesdays at 10:00 p.m. beginning the 12th amd Sundays at 10:00 a.m. beginning the 17th. On 3-1, the series will be broadcast Wednesdays late night at 12:00 midnight beginning the 13th and Fridays at 3:00 p.m. beginning the 15th.

Ottomans Versus Venetians: The Battle for Crete

Ottomans Versus Venetians: The Battle for Crete, a halfhour film, reveals how the island was claimed by the Ottomans in 1669 after one of the longest sieges in military history. For the Venetians, their only hope for victory over the larger Ottoman army in Crete lay in successfully starving it of supplies and reinforcements. Hence the war turned into a series of naval encounters between the two navies and their allies.

The Ottomans were victorious and despite many rebellions by Christian Cretans, the island was to remain part of the Ottoman Empire until the very end of the 19th century.

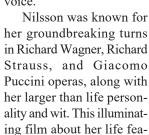

Ottomans Versus Venetians: The Battle for Crete airs on 3-2 Wednesday, the 13th at 9:30 p.m. and Sunday, the 15th at 11:00 a.m. On 3-1, it airs Thursday, the 14th at 10:30 p.m.

–Great Performances:

Birgit Nilsson: A League of Her Own

"Birgit Nilsson: A League of Her Own" on Great Performances celebrates the life of the era-defining Swedish dramatic soprano who became the face of opera in the tures rare television and archive footage of Nilsson showcasing her remarkable talents.

"Birgit Nilsson: A League of Her Own" on Great Performances airs on 3-2 Friday, the 22nd at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Saturday, the 23rd at 7:00 p.m.

Julius Caesar

Great Performances presents the exclusive U.S. broadcast premiere of the acclaimed all-female production of Shakespeare's masterpiece "Julius Caesar."

Set in a women's prison, this interpretation offers a powerful dramatization of the catastrophic consequences of a political leader's extension of power beyond constitutional confines through an all-female lens.

The women play male inmates and guards: Brutus wrestles with his moral conscience over the assassination of Julius Caesar, and Mark Antony manipulates the crowd with subtle and incendiary rhetoric to create frenzied mob violence.

Performed in-the-round on a mostly bare stage, the production creates a unique perspective on Shakespeare's tragedy.

Great Performances "Julius Caesar" will be broadcast on 3-2 Friday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Saturday, the 30th at 7:00 p.m.

306 Hollywood

In "306 Hollywood" on P.O.V., siblings Elan and Jonathan Bogarín use drama, fantasy, and whimsy to transform the story of their late grandmother's house into an epic tale of what life remains in the objects we leave behind. Their magical-realistic journey through a house full of memories is the first non-fiction film ever to be shown in Sundance's forward-thinking NEXT section.

Housewife, fashion designer, and beloved family member, Annette Ontell lived seven decades in the same house at 306 Hollywood Avenue, Hillside, New Jersey. When Annette died, she left behind heaps of clutter—dusty fragments of an unassuming life.

What to keep and what to throw away? In search of some way to quantify the emotional value of Annette's belongings, the siblings begin an exhaustive 11 month quest to catalog everything in the slumbering house. Through her mess, Annette blooms into a vivid presence.

Toothbrush by toothbrush, the Bogarins catalogue Annette's possessions. Under their scrutiny, each object is at once mundane and mysterious, like six cans of Band-Aids filled with pennies and 50-year-old toilet paper. To unsentimental eyes, the moldy paper is trash. To people who loved Annette—and the Bogarins dearly do—it's something entirely different.

The siblings fill the backyard with several rows of mismatched chairs—the sign of someone who embraced color and chaos? They paper the roof and shingles with their family's old clothing, shirts and dresses lying lifeless as if to emphasize their owners

For each of the last ten years of her 93year life, Annette was interviewed for one hour by her film-obsessed grandchildren. In one riotous scene, Annette is cajoled into wearing one of her old dresses. Despite her best efforts, she can no longer fit her 80-yearold frame into the 50-year-old dress. Annette wages a losing battle with the unforgiving fabric. It's an achingly human moment that captures the joy of living and the melancholy of loss, so emblematic of the power of "306 Hollywood."

Ultimately, a profound reflection on how we examine and deal with the past, "306 Hollywood" can also be viewed as a quirky instruction manual on how to live in the present.

"306 Hollywood" on P.O.V. can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 18th at 8:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 24th at 9:00 p.m.

FRONTLINE

The Trial of Ratko Mladic

In November 2017, the Bosnian Serb General, Ratko Mladic, was found guilty of genocide and crimes against humanity in

The Hague and sentenced to life in prison. Mladic was one of the most infamous figures of the Bosnian war of the 1990s and became synonymous with the Srebrenica massacres in 1995—the worst crime on European soil since World War II.

Filmed over five years, "The Trial of Ratko Mladic" on Frontline tells an epic story of justice, accountability, and a country trying to escape from its bloody past.

The Bosnian War cost the lives of over 100,000 innocent people. Mladic's forces besieged Sarajevo for 44 months and carried out the mass killing of nearly 8,000 Muslim men and boys in Srebrenica in July of 1995.

"The Trial of Ratko Mladic" on Frontline airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 19th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 21st at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Friday, the 22nd at 9:00 p.m.

WOMEN, WAR & PEACE II

The acclaimed documentary series Women, War & Peace II premieres four powerful films that tell the never-before-told stories about women across the globe who risked their lives for peace, changing history in the process.

The first film tells the story of the courageous Catholic and Protestant women fighting for human rights in the wake of Northern Ireland's civil war. This is followed by "Naila and the Uprising," that documents the non-violent women's movement that formed the heart of the Palestinian struggle for freedom during the 1987 uprising.

Then join a risky year-long UN peacekeeping mission into earthquake-ravaged Haiti with an all-female Bangladeshi police unit. Finally, follow three Egyptian women as they put their lives and bodies on the line fighting for justice during the Arab Spring.

Women, War & Peace airs on 3-2 Monday, the 25th at 8:00 p.m./9:00 p.m. (Pts. 1 & 2) and Tuesday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m./9:00 p.m. (Pts. 3 & 4). On 3-1, it airs Wednesday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m./8:00 p.m. (Pts. 1 & 2) and Thursday, the 28th at 7:00 p.m./8:00 p.m. (Pts. 3 & 4).

John Denver: Country Boy

At the peak of his fame in the 1970s, John Denver was the most popular singer in America. On the face of it, he was a wholesome country singer who penned pleasant songs with lyrics that were ridiculed by some for their simplicity. But there were extremes to his character—incredible highs reflected often in his music, alongside more private lows as he tried to grapple with the conflicts in his life.

John Denver: Country Boy explores the private life and public legacy of this lost American icon of the '70s and the enduring power of his music. Exclusive accounts from those closest to him reveal the man behind the music.

John Denver: Country Boy can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 4th at 8:30 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Thursday, the 7th at 7:00 p.m.

The Keto Diet with Dr. Josh Axe

In The Keto Diet with Dr. Josh Axe, the clinical nutritionist shares cutting-edge health and nutrition advice based on his new book of the same name.

Unlike many fad diets, the ketogenic diet (or "keto diet") has been practiced for more than nine decades and is based upon a solid understanding of physiology and nutrition science.

The keto diet doesn't rely on counting calories, limiting portion sizes, resorting to extreme exercise, or lots of willpower. This low-carb diet works because it changes the very fuel source the body uses to stay energized: namely, it triggers a switch from burning glucose (or sugar) to burning dietary fat.

The Keto Diet with Dr. Josh Axe airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 5th at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, the 9th at 3:00 p.m., and Sunday, the 17th at 12:30 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 3rd at 12:00 noon and Monday, the 11th at 7:00 p.m.

The Power of Radical Kindness

In The Power of Radical Kindness, Angela Santomero reveals a series of small, doable actions that can lead viewers toward a more fulfilled, happy, healthy, and successful life. She has dedicated her life to teaching the benefits of treating oneself and others with warmth, empathy, and respect.

Inspired by mentor Fred Rogers, each one of Angela's "Kindness Lessons" reveals a bit of profound wisdom about how to navigate our lives. The Power of Radical Kindness contends that kindness is the key to recognizing others, and ourselves, as worthy of love and understanding. As the Dalai Lama says, "Be kind whenever possible. It is always possible."

The Power of Radical Kindness can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 3rd at 12:30 p.m. and Tuesday, the 12th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 4th at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 9th at 1:30 p.m.

CALL THE MIDWIFE, one of the most popular dramas on PBS, returns for its eighth season. The series is set in impoverished East London in the 1950s and 1960s, and follows a group of nurse-midwives at Nonnatus House, a nursing convent. The drama is originally based on the memoirs of Jennifer Worth.

Season eight moves into the spring of 1964, and anticipation is building for a new royal baby. Community-minded Violet is holding a Teddy Bears' Picnic and raising funds through a competition on whether the Queen will have a boy or a girl.

Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning March 31st (3-1 & 3-2)
