George W. Bush

American Experience chronicles the fascinating life and tumultuous events, domestically and internationally, that dominated George W. Bush's eight years in office. The two-part, four-hour biography of our 43rd president is the latest addition to American Experience's Peabody Award-winning collection of presidential biographies.

Part One chronicles Bush's unorthodox road to the White House. The once wild son of a political dynasty, few expected Bush to ascend to the presidency. Yet 36 days after the November 2000 election, Bush emerged the victor of the most hotly contested race in the nation's history.

George W. Bush's self-described political philosophy was compassionate conservatism—he gained popularity for his bipartisanship and basing much of his policy on the principles of limited government and local control, strong families and personal responsibility. George W. Bush took on reforms in education, federal taxes, Medicare and conservation.

But the new administration's focus on domestic issues was abruptly brought to a halt by the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Bush's response to the deadly terrorist attacks would come to define a new era in American foreign policy.

Part Two continues through Bush's second term, as the President confronts the subsequent war in Iraq, the search for weapons of mass destruction, the devastating impact of Hurricane Katrina and the most serious financial crisis since the Great Depression.

"George W. Bush took office less than 10 months before 9/11 ushered in a new era of fear, anger and uncertainty, as news of threat levels and anthrax scares became a daily occurrence," said senior producer Susan Bellows.

President George W. Bush embraces a firefighter at the site of the World Trade Center, September 14, 2001.

"Twenty years after the dramatic Bush-Gore election of 2000 that introduced the term 'hanging chad' to our lexicon, this new film explores the evolution of George W. Bush's character and how it shaped his presidency."

"What makes George W. Bush such a fascinating subject is that he was one of the least prepared presidents in our history, yet faced some of the greatest challenges," said filmmaker Barak Goodman. "Not since Lincoln has such an inexperienced leader been called upon in a moment of genuine existential crisis. How Bush evolved in office under these pressures—at first struggling mightily, but later finding his feet—illuminates not only his character, but the evolving nature of power and the presidency in an increasingly dangerous world."

"George W. Bush" on American Experience airs on 3-2 Monday and Tuesday, the 4th and 5th, at 8:00 p.m. and Sundays, 10th and 17th, at 5:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Monday and Tuesday, 4th and 5th, at 7:00 p.m.

1935: One of the first passenger airplanes flies over the unfinished Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco.

ACROSS THE PACIFIC

Across the Pacific is a three-part documentary about one of the great milestones in aviation history: the 1935 crossing of the Pacific Ocean by a Pan American Airways flying boat known as the China Clipper.

Broadcast live over nine radio networks reaching millions of listeners on four continents, the China Clipper's take-off from San Francisco Bay in November of 1935 was one of the most-listened-to events in history to that point. If the Pacific could be crossed, there would be no place on earth that could not be reached by airplane.

During take-off, the plane was so heavily loaded that the pilot, Capt. Edwin Musick, was forced to fly under the cables of the unfinished Bay Bridge, then gained altitude along the San Francisco waterfront and flew over the unfinished Golden Gate Bridge. One week and four stops later, the China Clipper was in Manila.

But as with the space program, the real drama in this story is not in the flight itself, it's in the effort it took to reach this point. The Clipper's maiden voyage was the culmination of eight years of explosive innovation and growth, involving hundreds of men and women, from the famous to the unknown.

These early aviation pioneers built new aircraft, invented new technologies and overcame innumerable obstacles. They had begun in 1927 with a single, 90-mile airmail route. Now, inconceivably, they stood at the water's edge, poised to conquer the final frontier of flight by hop-scotching across 8,700 miles of the mighty Pacific. How did they do it? This is their story.

Across the Pacific is built around three fascinating characters:

- ♦ Pan Am's young chief executive, Juan Trippe, whose business acumen, political instincts and legendary foresight allowed him to build the world's largest airline by age 35.
- ♦ Igor Sikorsky, the Russian émigré who designed most of the flying boats that fueled Pan Am's meteoric rise in the 1920s and '30s. These odd aquatic aircraft played a critical role in the early days of commercial flight, particularly overseas.
- ♦ And an unsung radio engineer named Hugo Leuteritz, who invented the navigation systems that guided Pan Am's planes safely to their destinations. Pan Am needed navigational methods that would allow its pilots to find their way unerringly across thousands of miles of trackless ocean. Leuteritz realized the secret lay in radio—a technology that would be at the heart of virtually every navigational technique developed since the 1930s.

Across the Pacific will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesday, the 19th beginning at 7:00 p.m. (all three episodes back-to-back) and Sundays at 10:00 a.m. beginning the 24th. On 3-1, it can be seen Tuesdays at 2:00 p.m. beginning the 26th.

Quakers: The Quiet Revolutionaries explores Quakerism from its beginnings in the 1600s to its present day practice and ideology. The history, deep faith and enduring impact of the Religious Society of Friends, known as Quakers, are richly illuminated in the documentary. Though a relatively small denomination of less than 400,000, the influence of the Quakers far outweighs their numbers.

In the 17th century it was illegal to be a Quaker in the British Isles. Collecting on a debt inherited from his father, William Penn accepted a grant of land from King Charles II in lieu of money. He used the grant to establish Pennsylvania ("Penn's Woods") and invited Quakers and others seeking religious freedom to settle there in 1681. In America, Quakers found religious freedom, economic opportunity and an evolving nation ripe for their activism.

The Quakers' far-reaching impact is illustrated through their most significant causes. The abolition movement awakened the country to the inhumanity of slavery. The women's suffrage movement won the vote for women thanks to the shrewd leadership of Quakers Alice Paul, Susan B. Anthony and Lucretia Mott. Bayard Rustin brought the concept of nonviolent protest to Martin Luther King Jr.

The film also addresses the two Quaker presidents—Herbert Hoover, who denied government aid to impoverished Americans during the Depression, and Richard Nixon, whose actions as president belied his Quaker faith.

Quakers: The Quiet Revolutionaries airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 12th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 14th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 19th at 9:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 21st at 7:00 a.m.

1ST TO FIGHT: PACIFIC WAR MARINES

On the Pacific island of Guadalcanal in 1942, the famed 1st Marine Division—the oldest, largest and most decorated division of the U.S. Marine Corps—defeated Japanese forces in a turning point of WWII. 1st to Fight: Pacific War Marines focuses on several Americans of the famed 1st Marine Division, who took part in the United States' first significant land offensive of World War II. These same Marines then went on to fight in bloody battles at Cape Gloucester, Peleliu and Okinawa.

1st to Fight features drone footage of Guadalcanal and the Solomon Islands, as well as the remote island of Peleliu, one of the most horrific and least known battles of World War II. Peleliu cost the 1st Marine Division and the United States Army some 10,000 causalities. In the film, viewers get a feel for what the battle sites look like today and some of the daunting terrain these Marines faced back in 1942, 1943 and 1944.

1st to Fight: Pacific War Marines airs on 3-2 Monday, the 25th at 8:00 p.m. and Friday, the 29th at 9:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 24th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, the 25th at 3:00 p.m.

Matthew Eversmann was immortalized in the epic film "Black Hawk

SEND ME

Down," which tells the heroic account of a group of elite US soldiers sent into Mogadishu, Somalia, in 1993 as part of a UN peacekeeping operation. Eversmann was in charge of a mission to capture two of Somalia military commander Mohammed Adid's top lieutenants within the increasingly hostile city Mogadishu. What began as a routine mission, however, quickly devolved into chaos.

Eversmann, then a staff sergeant, was among a group of Army Rangers and Delta Force soldiers that became trapped within an extremely volatile region of the Somali capital after two helicopters were shot down and three others were damaged. For eighteen hours, Eversmann and his fellow soldiers—vastly outnumbered and targeted by an angry mob-fended off a fierce, unrelenting attack until finally being rescued. By that time, 18 Americans had perished and 73 more were injured.

Eversmann narrates the 2019 Emmy award-winning film Send Me, that tells the story of American men and women serving in our wars in the Middle East. The half-hour film highlights the tremendous advances in battlefield medicine since his days on the dusty streets of Mogadishu.

Send Me will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 24th at 12:00 noon and Friday, the 29th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 24th at 10:00 p.m. and Monday, the 25th at 2:30 p.m.

VIRAL

Antisemitism in Four Mutations

By virtually every yardstick, antisemitism in the U.S. and Europe is rising and worsening in ways not seen since the 1930s. It comes in the forms of vandalism, social media abuse, assault and murder. Like a virus, it mutates and evolves across cultures, borders and ideologies, making it all but impossible to stop. Traveling through four countries, Viral: Antisemitism in Four Mutations explores its infectious behavior with firsthand accounts from victims, witnesses, antisemites and others.

The film examines how some on the American far right have incited such acts as the mass shooting at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh, PA. In Hungary, we see how the Prime Minister has launched a massive campaign against Jewish Holocaust survivor and billionaire George Soros that's reminiscent of Nazi propaganda. In England, we see members of the traditionally antiracist Labour party conflating Israel and Jews. And in France, the film illuminates the seemingly endless wave of violence against Jews by Islamists and radicals.

The increasing bigotry within each of these four countries paints a terrifying portrait of how global hatred disseminates and harms.

Viral: Antisemitism in Four Mutations airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 26th at 8:00 p.m. and Friday, the 29th at 10:30 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Wednesday, the 27th at 7:00 p.m.

The Queen at War

Seventy-five years after the end of the war in Europe, The Queen at War offers a fascinating look at how Princess Elizabeth—just 13 years old when World War II broke out—was set on her life's path to become a legendary monarch. Together with sister Margaret, the young princesses became symbols of hope for a nation wracked by a horrific war, the terrors of the Blitz and the relocation of over a million children.

By 1945, Elizabeth had been transformed from a shy girl into a confident young woman and proved her mettle as a driver and mechanic in the women's branch of the army. She was also already in love with the handsome naval officer she would one day marry.

Told through the reminiscences of friends and others, the documentary features rare footage of the Queen's war years culled from private and public collections.

The Queen at War airs on 3-2 Tuesday, the 5th at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 24th at 11:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Tuesday, the 5th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, the 11th at 2:00 p.m.

The Windermere Children

The Windermere Children is the dramatization of a remarkable true story about hope in the aftermath of the Holocaust. The film follows a group of child Holocaust survivors who are transported to the Calgarth Estate by Lake Windermere, England in August 1945. Carrying only the clothes they wear and a few meager possessions, they bear the emotional and physical scars of all they have suffered.

A child psychologist and his team of counselors have four months to help the children begin to heal and reclaim their lives. Haunted by nightmares, they yearn for news of their loved ones from the Red Cross, but in the absence of relatives, the children find family in each other.

The Windermere Children will be broadcast on 3-2 Sunday, the 17th at 10:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 24th at 5:30 p.m.

INDEPENDENT LENS

REWIND

"Rewind" on Independent Lens uncovers a horrifying secret buried within one tightknit suburban family's home video footage.

For as long as Sasha Neulinger can remember, a video camera was ever-present, with his father constantly filming—from birthday parties, to hockey games, to holidays. But his father's camera, trained on the frequent gatherings of a tight-knit family, was also documenting a hidden secret, the revelation of which would lead to a media firestorm, a high-stakes court battle and a generational reckoning.

Drawing upon an incredibly revealing home video archive, Neulinger revisits these events 20 years later to piece together an unflinching story of the cycles and consequences of abuse, to examine what it means to heal, and to use those experiences to effect positive change in the world.

Independent Lens "Rewind" airs on 3-2 Monday, the 11th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Monday, the 11th at 12:00 midnight.

This program contains adult content and broadcast is limited to the hours between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. Viewer discretion is advised.

More than just a picture postcard of iconic stone statues, Rapa Nui, also known as Easter Island, is a microcosm of a planet in flux. Native Rapanui grapple with a booming tourism trade that brings in money—and waste—and a changing climate that threatens the fragile ecology and economy on the island.

In "Eating Up Easter" on Independent Lens, a Rapanui filmmaker introduces viewers to the modern dilemma of their people—descendants of the ancient statue builders—as they face the consequences of their rapidly developing home.

Though it is the most remote inhabited island in the Pacific Ocean, Rapa Nui reflects the clash between growth and sustainability faced by communities worldwide. The film is a global wake-up call.

"Eating Up Easter" on Independent Lens will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 25th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, watch it Tuesday the 26th at 9:00 p.m.

In the Declaration All Men are Created Equal

In the Declaration All Men are Created Equal: Abraham Lincoln in Illinois, 1830–1860 is a docudrama that covers Lincoln's life from his arrival at the log village of New Salem, IL to his election to the presidency thirty years later. The drama explores Lincoln's use of the phrase "all men are created equal" to confront the expansion of slavery in the 1850s, and also the idea that hard work and study is the path to achievement, as exemplified by Lincoln, himself.

The drama was filmed in the Old State Capitol, Lincoln's Law Office, the old U.S. Courtroom in Springfield and at Lincoln's New Salem State Park. It includes hundreds of period photographs of Lincoln, Stephen A. Douglas and a host of others, along with images of period newspapers and documents in Lincoln's handwriting.

In the Declaration All Men are Created Equal airs on 3-2, Friday the 22nd at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Wednesday, the 20th at 7:00 p.m.

Canyons & Ice: The Last Run of Dick Griffith

Canyons & Ice recounts the adventurous life of an adventurer's adventurer, who has undertaken a series of remarkable wilderness journeys over the past six decades, mostly by himself.

In his 20s, Dick Griffith was a canyoneer in Mexico before that term was coined, and a whitewater rafter, going through Glen, Grand, and Copper Canyons in the 1950s. In his 30s, the year Alaska was granted Statehood, he traversed half the Brooks Range alone, completing the other half in his 40s. In his 50s, he introduced packrafting during the original adventure race, the Alaska Mountain Wilderness Classic. In his 60s and 70s, he followed the Arctic coast of Alaska and the Northwest Passage to Hudson Bay alone on skis. At 64, he paddled the Grand Canyon in an open Sherpa Packraft, also alone.

Now at 90, Griffith takes one last whitewater rafting trip through the Grand Canyon in this inspiring film.

Canyons & Ice: The Last Run of Dick Griffith airs on 3-2 Saturday, the 9th at 10:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Wednesday, the 13th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday the 19th at 8:00 a.m.

Building Notre Dame

How did the Notre Dame cathedral emerge over the centuries as one of the world's most celebrated and beloved buildings? Secrets of the Dead "Building Notre Dame" takes viewers on a major historical and scientific investigation into the construction of Notre

Notre Dame de Paris is believed to have looked like this in the 13th century.

Dame de Paris, which began in the 12th century and was completed several hundred years later.

Standing alongside the builders of yesterday and today, uncover the vast architectural, technical, human, financial and political challenges experienced throughout the cathedral's turbulent history.

Secrets of the Dead "Building Notre Dame" can be seen on 3-2 Thursday, the 7th at 7:00 p.m.

Linda Ronstadt: Live in Hollywood

On April 24, 1980, Linda Ronstadt recorded a concert for an acclaimed HBO special that was considered by many fans to be a high point in her career. The concert, Linda Ronstadt: Live in Hollywood, featured electrifying performances of many of her greatest songs.

On stage, Ronstadt held the packed audience spellbound with powerful renditions of her biggest hits—Blue Bayou," "Poor Poor Pitiful Me" and "It's So Easy," plus an incredible, previously unreleased six-minute jam of her #1 smash, "You're No Good."

Other stellar renditions include Ronstadt's versions of Chuck Berry's "Back in the U.S.A," The Eagles' "Desperado" and megahits "Heat Wave" and "Just One Look."

Following the TV taping, the master tapes of the concert were lost for years. A chance encounter would eventually lead to the missing tapes and Linda Ronstadt's first-ever live album "Live in Hollywood" was finally released on February 1, 2019.

Linda Ronstadt: Live in Hollywood can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 31st at 6:30 p.m.

The Kinks – Echoes of the World

The Kinks' 1968 album "The Kinks Are the Village Green Preservation Society" failed to chart on release, but it went on to become one of the most influential and important works in rock. Now, more than 50 years later, The Kinks – Echoes of the World takes a closer look at the album's creation

Set to the context of the time, the musical documentary explores the secret of the album's enduring appeal and how it overcame its inauspicious start to become one of the best-loved albums of all time. Featuring new interviews with members Ray Davies, Dave Davies and Mick Avory, the program also includes songs from the album, as well as classics like "You Really Got Me," "All Day and All of the Night," and "A Well Respected Man."

The Kinks – Echoes of the World airs on 3-2 Saturday, the 30th at 9:00 p.m.

An Accidental Studio: The Story of Handmade Films

An Accidental Studio: The Story of Handmade Films tells the tale behind musician George Harrison's Handmade Films, the small British production company behind such maverick hits as Life of Brian, The Long Good Friday, Time Bandits and Mona Lisa.

"Nuns on the Run" was a 1990 British comedy from Handmade Films starring Eric Idle and Robbie Coltrane.

Featuring footage of Harrison himself, as well as interviews with Monty Python members Michael Palin and Terry Gilliam, and others, the film explores Handmade's baptism by fire, the risks it took in producing uniquely crafted films, and the many revealing stories behind its productions.

An Accidental Studio: The Story of Handmade Films can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 31st at 8:00 p.m.

The most ambitious television chronicle of the Asian American story in the United States premiers during Asian Pacific American Heritage Month. The five-hour documentary examines what the U.S. Census identifies as the fastest growing racial/ethnic group in the United States.

The series traces the epic story of Asian Americans, spanning 150 years of immigration, racial politics, international relations and cultural innovation. It examines the significant role of Asian Americans in shaping American history and identity.

The story begins in the 1850s during an era of U.S. expansion. The first wave of Asian immigrants arrive from China, India, Japan, the Philippines and beyond. Eventually barred by anti-Asian laws, they become America's first "undocumented immigrants." Yet they build railroads, dazzle on the silver screen and take their fight for equality to the U.S. Supreme Court.
