Country Music, Ken Burns's new eight-part film, chronicles the compelling history of a truly American art form, from its early days to the mid-1990s.

Country Music: Live at the Ryman, A Concert Celebrating the Film by Ken Burns highlights the diversity of musical styles and artists that fall under the country music label.

An Opry Salute to Ray Charles celebrates the music of the blind "genius of Soul" and the magnitude of his contribution to country music.

Two popular dramas on Masterpiece—"Durrells on Corfu" and "Poldark" launch their final seasons.

Freedom and Impeachment: The Courage of Edmund G. Ross is the story of the Kansas senator who cast the deciding vote against the impeachment of President Andrew Jackson and who later became governor of the New Mexico Territory.

Road to Andersonville recounts the little-known history of Company K, made up of sharpshooters recruited from Michigan's Native American tribes and who fought in some of the fiercest battles of the Civil War.

"Now Hear This," a four-part series on Great Performances, reveals the amazing stories behind some of the world's most celebrated music by Vivaldi, Bach, Scarlatti and Handel.

"Raúl Juliá: The World's A Stage" on American Masters is a warm and revealing portrait of the charismatic actor.

VAPE, a documentary about vaping by New Mexico youth, is designed to help parents, educators and juveniles fully understand the dangers associated with E-cigarettes.

7. P.O.V. premiers "Farmsteaders," that follows Nick Nolan and his family of eight on a journey to resurrect his late grandfather's dairy farm, and then presents "The Silence of Others," the award-winning film that follows survivors of the Spanish Civil War in their fight against a state-imposed amnesia of crimes against humanity.

Hudson River School is a two-part film about a group of painters whose glorious images were inspired by the beauty of the American landscape.

Country Music

Step back in time and journey through the compelling history of a truly American art form in Ken Burns's Country Music, an eight-part, 16-1/2 hour film. The series chronicles country music's early days, from southern Appalachia's songs of struggle, heartbreak and faith to the rollicking Western swing of Texas, California's honky-tonks and Nashville's "Grand Ole Opry."

Country Music digs deep to uncover the roots of the music, including ballads, minstrel music, hymns and the blues. The film follows its early years in the 1920s, when it was called "hillbilly music," and was recorded for the first time and played across the airwaves on radio station barn dances. It explores how Hollywood B movies instituted the fad of singing cowboys like Gene Autry, and shows how the rise of juke joints after World War II changed the musical style by bringing electric and pedal steel guitars to the forefront.

Country Music focuses on the biographies of the fascinating trailblazers who created and shaped it—from the Carter Family, Jimmie Rodgers, Bill Monroe and Bob Wills to Hank Williams, Patsy Cline, Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, Loretta Lynn, Charley Pride, Willie Nelson, Dolly Parton, Emmylou Harris, Garth Brooks and many more—as well as the times in which they lived.

At the film's heart are the stories of unforgettable songs and the artists who created them: their emergence from humble beginnings, their musical influences and their breakthrough moments.

The narrative ends in the mid-1990s as a young Garth Brooks emerges from a small venue in Nashville to achieve phenomenal success and bring country music to an entirely new level of popularity.

Eight years in the making, Country Music includes more than 3,200 photographs, over two hours of archival footage and interviews with more than 100 people, including 40 members of the Country Music Hall of Fame (17 of whom have since passed on).

Country Music will be broadcast on 3-2 (Pts. 1–4) Sunday–Wednesday, the 15th–18th at 8:00 p.m. and (Pts. 5–8) Sunday–Wednesday, the 22nd–25th at 8:00 p.m. It repeats on 3-2 Saturdays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 21st. On 3-1, it can be seen (Pts. 1–4) Sunday–Wednesday, the 15th–18th at 7:00 p.m. and (Pts. 5–8) Sunday–Wednesday, the 22nd–25th at 7:00 p.m. On 3–1, each episode repeats the following afternoon at 2:00 p.m.

Country Music:

Live at the Ryman

Join celebrated musicians for Country Music: Live at the Ryman, A Concert Celebrating the Film by Ken Burns. This two-hour promotional concert premiers on PBS one week prior to Burns's Country Music series.

Hosted by Burns, the Live at the Ryman concert features many of the artists who appear in the upcoming Country Music series, including performances by Dierks Bentley, Rosanne Cash, Rodney Crowell, Rhiannon Giddens, Vince Gill, Kathy Mattea, Ketch Secor, Ricky Skaggs, Marty Stuart, Asleep at the Wheel, Holly Williams and Dwight Yoakam.

Vince Gill

The concert highlights the diversity of musical styles and artists that fall under the country music label. Viewers are in store for a taste of everything from western swing and bluegrass to honkytonk and cowboy music.

Country Music: Live at the Ryman airs on 3-2 Sunday, the 8th at 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, the 14th at 8:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Sunday, the 8th at 9:00 p.m. and Monday, the 9th at 1:00 p.m.

AN OPRY SALUTE TO

An Opry Salute to Ray Charles celebrates the music of the blind "genius of Soul" and the magnitude of his contribution to country music.

During his formative years in Georgia and Florida, Ray Charles listened regularly to the Grand Ole Opry, beamed throughout the South via Nashville's WSM-AM. Charles blended the blues and gospel into his original brand of R&B, played jazz, and recorded two volumes of the influential album Modern Sounds in Country & Western Music. Both the Grand Ole Opry and Ray shared the same vision—to bridge musical genres.

Charlie Wilson and LeAnn Rimes

Hosted by Opry member Darius Rucker, the 90-minute special unites two iconic entities with special performances of Charles's music by a star-studded lineup, including Boyz II Men, Cam, Brett Eldredge, Leela James, Jessie Key, Ronnie Milsap, Lukas Nelson, LeAnn Rimes, Allen Stone, Travis Tritt, Charlie Wilson, Chris Young, and Trisha Yearwood.

An Opry Salute to Ray Charles airs on 3-2 Saturday, the 7th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 15th at 10:00 p.m. On 3-1, it can be seen Sunday, the 8th at 7:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 10th at 1:00 p.m.

Two popular dramas launch their final seasons.

Durrells in Corfu, Season 4

The end of an era is approaching: Season 4 of the "Durrells in Corfu" on Masterpiece will be the series' last. But that doesn't mean that there won't be plenty of heartwarming family moments before then. The entirety of the main cast will be back for this last hurrah, along with Alexis Georgoulis as Spiro.

Following the events of the last series, the future is looking bright for the Durrells, with all of the family channelling their heartbreak in different ways. Choosing to keep herself busy, Louisa has opened the doors of the family villa as a guest house, but with Basil as their only paying guest, the business is still to find its feet and customers.

Meanwhile, Larry, struggling to get his risqué Black Book published, is enjoying the love of two ballet dancers, while heartbroken Leslie has thrown himself back into his job and shooting. True to form, Gerry continues to collect animals, ambitiously planning to open a zoo with a new owl and some lemurs joining the menagerie, and Margo seeks a new challenge, starting her own beauty salon.

"Durrells in Corfu" on Masterpiece will be broadcast Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 29th. On 3-1, it can be seen Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 29th and repeats Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m.

Poldark, Season 5

Almost 40 years ago, Ross Poldark galloped across the TV screens of millions of PBS viewers, vexing villains and winning female hearts in one of Masterpiece's earliest hit series, "Poldark."

Now, Aidan Turner returns as the heroic Ross Poldark for a final season of drama in Cornwall on Masterpiece. Also returning are Eleanor Tomlinson as Demelza and Jack Farthing as George Warleggan.

Returning to London, Ross discovers that Ned has been imprisoned thanks to a plot from slave merchant Ralph Hanson (Peter Sullivan), who is angry that Ned has married abolitionist and ex-slave Kitty (Kerri McLean). Meanwhile, George Warleggan is trapped in a prison of his own grief following the death of his wife Elizabeth.

"Poldark" on Masterpiece airs on 3-2 Sundays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 29th and Friday nights beginning in October. On 3-1, it airs Sundays at 7:00 p.m. beginning the 29th and repeats Mondays at 1:00 p.m.

Freedom and Impeachment: The Courage of Edmund G. Ross

Freedom and Impeachment: The Courage of Edmund G. Ross is a profile of Senator Ross, a politician who represented Kansas after the American Civil War and was later governor of the New Mexico Territory. His historic vote against convicting President Andrew Johnson of "high crimes and misdemeanors" allowed Johnson to stay in office by the margin of one vote. Andrew Johnson had ascended to the presidency in 1865, after Abraham Lincoln's assassination. A former Democrat, President Johnson's relationship with the GOP leadership quickly crumbled.

On February 24, 1868, President Johnson was impeached by the House of Representatives. The House charged Johnson with violating the Tenure of Office Act. The alleged violation stemmed from Johnson's decision to remove Secretary of War Edwin Stanton, a prominent Radical Republican left over from the Lincoln Cabinet.

To block Johnson from removing Cabinet members without its approval, the House had passed the Tenure of Office Act in 1867. Johnson challenged the act by firing Stanton and appointing an interim replacement. The House quickly filed 11 impeachment charges, sending the case to the Senate for disposition.

Two-thirds of the Senate was needed to convict Johnson, and the Republicans made up more than two-thirds of its members. But as the seventh of seven Republican U.S. Senators to break with his party, Ross proved to be the person whose decision would result in conviction or acquittal. Ross was expected to vote against Johnson. The chamber was stunned when Ross said "Not guilty." His vote against impeachment ended his political career at the national level.

The film is based on the biography by Richard A. Ruddy, Edmund G. Ross: Soldier, Senator, Abolitionist.

Freedom and Impeachment: The Courage of Edmund G. Ross will be broadcast on 3-2 Tuesday, the 10th at 8:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 19th at 7:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Sunday, the 15th at 6:00 p.m. and Tuesday, the 17th at 1:00 p.m.

Road to Andersonville:

Michigan Native American Sharpshooters in the Civil War

During the American Civil War, Union forces ran low on sharpshooters as few men could pass the marksmanship test. In Michigan, the answer was to change a law prohibiting Native American military service and then, in 1863, to ask members of the Three Fires Tribes—Ottawa, Potawatomi and Chippewa—to enlist.

Since Michigan's Native Americans were famous as skilled hunters, it was decided to recruit one company—Company K—from among the tribes. Road to Andersonville is the story of the 139 men who volunteered.

In 1864, Company K was sent to Virginia where they fought in some of the fiercest battles of the Civil War: The Wilderness, Spotsylvania and the Siege of Petersburg. In all, one fourth of the men of Company K were either killed or wounded in battle.

After the Battle of Petersburg, 15 of the captured Sharpshooters were sent to a living hell: the prison camp at Andersonville. According to the National Parks Service, of the 45,000 prisoners in the camp, almost 13,000 died of starvation and/or disease. Of the 15 from Company K, seven died and were buried there. In 2010, descendants of Company K and others traveled to Andersonville to pay homage to the spirits of the men of Company K.

Road to Andersonville can be seen on 3-2 Tuesday, the 24th at 7:00 p.m. and Friday, the 27th at 10:00 p.m. Watch it on 3-1 Wednesday, the 25th at 8:00 p.m.

NOW HEAR THIS

The Amazing Stories Behind Our Most Celebrated Music

Join Scott Yoo, renowned violinist and conductor of the Mexico City Philharmonic, in "Now Hear This," a new four-part documentary miniseries presented by Great Performances that merges music, storytelling, travel and culture, as he chases the secret histories of some of the greatest music ever written.

Each episode of "Now Hear This" focuses on a great composer, tracing the creation of their masterpieces and the profound, lasting cultural impact of their music, while exploring little known or recently discovered works.

In part one, "Vivaldi: Something Completely Different," Yoo crosses Northern Italy, chasing the story of one of the most recorded pieces of music in the world, Vivaldi's "The Four Seasons." Yoo discovers how the composer merged religious melodies, opera and a new level of violin playing to launch a new era of music. Yoo also discovers a new Vivaldi work, his connection to Stradivarius, a trove of original manuscripts and how Vivaldi's music was almost lost to history.

In "The Riddle of Bach," Yoo goes to Germany to learn Bach's sonatas and partitas, widely considered among the greatest works ever written for solo violin. There, Yoo discovers a riddle Bach left behind in his portrait, and that Bach based his melodic style on Vivaldi and his rhythms on the music of the French court, which leads to a spectacular finale in Paris.

"Scarlatti: Man Out of Time" takes Yoo to Spain and Morocco to discover the greatest composer you've never heard of: Domenico Scarlatti. He was the finest keyboard player in Europe, hired by the Queen of Spain as her personal instructor. Into Vivaldi's melodies and Bach's fugues, Scarlatti incorporated the sounds of Spain—Moorish, Jewish, Gypsy, folk, dance and guitar—to create a new musical language that inspired generations of musicians after him.

Before becoming the most famous composer of his time, Handel gained a lifetime of experience in Italy. Welcomed by wealthy patrons, he traveled with the Scarlatti family and learned from Corelli and the masters of the Italian Style. In "Handel: Italian Style," Yoo returns to Italy to follow in Handel's footsteps, taking in the art, architecture, fashion, food, wine, light and landscape that, even beyond Italian music, shaped this German composer for the rest of his life.

"Now Hear This" on Great Performances airs on 3-2 Fridays at 9:00 p.m. beginning the 20th and Sundays at 6:00 p.m. beginning the 22nd. On 3-1, enjoy this miniseries Saturdays at 8:00 p.m. beginning the 21st.

Raúl Juliá: The World's A Stage

"Raúl Juliá: The World's A Stage" on American Masters is a warm and revealing portrait of the charismatic, groundbreaking actor's journey from his native Puerto Rico to the creative hotbed of 1960s New York City, to prominence on Broadway and in Hollywood. The big man with the engaging personality and accent was able to amass a varied body of timeless work that helped pave the way for Latino actors today. Juliá's brilliant career was tragically cut short by his untimely death 25 years ago, at age 54.

Juliá's best-known roles include Titus Andronicus, Two Gentlemen of Verona with Clifton Davis, The Taming of the Shrew with Meryl Streep and The Threepenny Opera, the Broadway musical Nine, and films such as Kiss of the Spider Woman, Moon Over Parador, Romero, Presumed Innocent and The Addams Family.

The son of a prominent San Juan family, Juliá was discovered by Broadway actor Orson Bean, who heard Juliá's powerful singing at a popular nightclub while vacationing in Puerto Rico. Encouraged by Bean, he moved to New York City in 1964, where he quickly earned various roles and was soon performing with the acclaimed New York Shakespeare Festival.

Some of the most respected actors illuminate Juliá's impact as an artist, including Anjelica Huston, Edward James Olmos, Rita Moreno, James Earl Jones, Jimmy Smits, Andy Garcia, Sonia Braga, Rubén Blades and Esai Morales.

Raúl Juliá: The World's A Stage" on American Masters can be seen on 3-2 Friday, the 13th at 9:00 p.m. and Sunday, the 22nd at 11:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Saturday, the 14th at 7:00 p.m.

VAPE

59 milligrams per milliliter of nicotine in every Juul Pod is equivalent to 1 pack of cigarettes.

VAPE, a documentary about vaping (also known as Juuling) by New Mexico youth, is designed to help parents, educators and juveniles fully understand the spectrum of health issues and dangers associated with E-cigarettes. With the dramatic rise in youth users, it's important to understand the various uses of E-cigarettes, including for the consumption of nicotine and cannabis. E-cigarettes increase cardiovascular risk as much as cigarettes.

E-cigarettes are by far the most popular tobacco product among teens today. Nearly 12% of high school students and 3% of middle school students used the device in the past 30 days. Nearly 9% of students surveyed said they used an E-cigarette device with marijuana (1 in 11 U.S. students).

Among NM high school students, over half (52.3%) have used an electronic vapor product and over a quarter (26.4%) used an electronic vapor product in the past 30 days.

Among NM 8th grade students in Bernalillo County, over 3 in 10 (35.9%) have used an electronic vapor product and almost 2 in 10 (17.1%) have used an electronic vapor product in the past 30 days.

According to the Food and Drug Administration Commissioner, youth vaping is an "epidemic."

Watch VAPE on 3-2 Sunday, the 8th at 12:30 p.m., Tuesday, the 17th at 10:00 p.m. and Thursday, the 26th at 7:00 p.m. It airs on 3-1 Friday, the 27th at 9:00 p.m. and Tuesday, October 1st at 8:00 a.m.

Farmsteaders

"Farmsteaders" on P.O.V. follows Nick Nolan and his family of eight on a journey to resurrect his late grandfather's dairy farm—fighting to keep this homeland from "drying up and blowing away," something that has happened to about 4.7 million farms in the U.S. as the pressures of corporate-driven food have left deep scars in the region. A study of place and persistence, the film offers an unexpected voice for a forsaken people: those who grow the food that sustains us.

The Nolans work to balance their fears and hopes with so much at stake and in the face of cycling ups and downs. They are determined to reinvigorate their family dairy farm in the spirit of generations before them. For the Nolans only three things remain certain: family is everything, nothing ever stays the same and the land holds it all together.

"Farmsteaders" on P.O.V. will be broadcast on 3-2 Monday, the 9th at 9:00 p.m. On 3-1, it airs Tuesday, the 3rd at 9:00 p.m.

The Silence of Others

"The Silence of Others" on P.O.V. chronicles the epic struggle of victims of Spain's 40-year dictatorship under Francisco Franco as they continue to seek justice four decades into democracy.

Filmed over six years, the award-winning film follows the survivors organizing the groundbreaking "Argentine Lawsuit" to fight a state-imposed amnesia of crimes against humanity, where the emotional court battle uncovers a country still divided over its fascist history. The 2010 lawsuit has been repeatedly stymied by a Spanish legal system still bound to the blind eye turned in the 1970s.

The gripping documentary collates multiple narratives of intense individual and familial grief into a near-operatic surge of national pain. Viewers are immediately plunged into the heartbreak of Maria Martin, a frail octogenarian in a rural village, as she delivers fresh sunflowers to a roadside memorial marking where her mother was stripped, murdered and discarded by Nationalist soldiers at the height of the bloody Spanish Civil War—just one of over 100,000 civilian victims of the Franco dictatorship summarily buried in mass graves across the country. Although Maria was only six at the time, the recollection of her mother's death is still very vivid. Yet, the state mandates that she simply forget the entire traumatic event.

The Pact of Forgetting, a cross-party policy devised in the wake of Franco's 1975 death, decreed that the legacy of Francoism be essentially erased from the national record—everywhere from media coverage to classroom curricula—in the interest of forward-looking reconciliation between rival political factions. The 1977 Amnesty Law followed suit, granting freedom to political prisoners and impunity to their persecutors alike.

"The Silence of Others" on P.O.V. can be seen on 3-2 Monday, the 30th at 9:00 p.m. It will be broadcast on 3-1 in early October.

Hudson River School

In the vicinity of New York's Hudson River Valley, the Adirondack Mountains, Catskill Mountains and the White Mountains of New Hampshire, a group of American painters led by British born artist Thomas Cole forged an artistic vision of the American wilderness based on their love of nature. They became known as the Hudson River School, America's first school of landscape painting that emerged between 1825 and 1880.

Part one of Hudson River School: Artistic Pioneers focuses on this first generation of American painters—Thomas Cole, Asher Durand, Jasper Cropsey, Albert Bierstadt, and Frederic Church—who would impress the world with their creative brilliance and wondrous vision. These men regarded nature as a direct manifestation of the Divine, and looked upon the dense forests, clear running streams, rugged mountains and mighty rivers with a naïve wonderment and appreciation for the new-found bounty of inspiration that surrounded them.

Hudson River School: Cultivating a Tradition, part two, focuses on the second generation of daring young artists and their distinctive, luminist work that reveals the beauty of the newly-discovered American landscape, and also the tumultuous events of 19th century America.

This second generation of Hudson River School painters left the New York area to explore more far-flung regions of America. During the Civil War, their majestic images of an unspoiled West provided hope for post-war reconciliation and the promise of expanses of wild country, full of promise and unscarred by battle.

The artwork of this generation would transform the American wilderness into a cradle of national pride, and these pioneering images would come to symbolize a rugged individualism and American spirit.

The two-part Hudson River School can be seen on 3-2 Sunday, the 29th at 10:00 a.m. (Pts. 1 & 2) and at 9:00 p.m. (Pts. 1 & 2). On 3-1, watch it Monday, the 30th at 7:00 p.m. (Pts. 1 & 2).
