Report from Santa Fe
with Lorene Mills
3rd Quarter 2019

Weekly 30-minute program videotaped at the
New Mexico State Capitol Building in Santa Fe.

- 07/06/19 In this second program, Dahr Jamail discusses climate disruption with Lorene. He is the author The End of Ice: Bearing Witness and Finding Meaning in the Path of Climate Disruption. When asked why he chose the term Climate Disruption, Jamail said he chose it because it is the most precisely scientifically accurate term possible. He said that it is a fact that climate always changes, it is the nature of it. But he further explained that when you inject the amount of CO2 into the atmosphere that the world is now doing, we are actually disrupting the climatic patterns of the planet.
- 07/13/19 Anna Hansen talks with Lorene about the DOE (Department of Energy) order 140.1, which is an order restricting the Defense Nuclear Facility Safety Board. Ms. Hansen has an extensive background in nuclear activity and nuclear safety. She first started working at Concerned Citizens for Nuclear Safety in 1996 when they won the clean air act lawsuit against the Los Alamos National Laboratory (LANL).

- 07/20/19 Ndaba Mandela is the honorary chair for the International Folk-Art Market in Santa Fe. His grandfather was the much beloved world iconic hero, Nelson Mandela, who won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993 with F.W. DeClerk. He was a legendary peace activist and the first Black president of South Africa. Mr. Mandela discusses with Lorene his memories and experiences growing up with such a famous grandfather as recounted in a book he has written entitled Going to the Mountain: Life Lessons from My Grandfather. The second guest was Teddy Warria, a Kenyan entrepreneur, who is using entrepreneurship as a tool to create new wealth among young Africans.
- 07/27/19 Sandra Cisneros, Pt. 1, discusses her writings and her current project with Lorene. Ms. Cisneros is a beloved Mexican-American writer, whose first book became an iconic favorite titled The House on Mango Street. Ms. Cisneros is a recipient of countless awards, including the National Medal of the Arts from President Obama. Her current project is traveling all over to document the current lives of immigrants with the idea of eventually creating a theatrical presentation of some kind.
- 08/03/19 Anna Merlan speaks with Lorene about people and their individual missions. Ms. Merlan is the author of the book Republic of Lies, American Conspiracy Theorists and Their Surprising Rise to Power. She discusses the history of conspiracy theory and theorists in America and why they are rising in influence and power now.
- 08/10/19 Janet Napolitano, Pt. 1, talks with Lorene about growing up in New Mexico and her experiences as first woman Attorney General of Arizona, first elected woman Governor of Arizona, Cabinet Secretary of Homeland Security with President Obama, and now as President of the entire University of California system. Ms. Napolitano has recently written a book titled How Safe Are We? Homeland Security Since 9/11.
- 08/17/19 Elizabeth Hoover is an anthropologist and professor at Brown University. She was in Santa Fe courtesy of the School of Advanced Research where she gave an address called "From Garden Warriors to Good Seeds: Indigenizing the Local Food Movement." Dr. Hoover is also author of The River is in Us: Fighting Toxics In a Mohawk Community. Her work has been on environmental and medical anthropology as it applies to Native American communities that are now responding to environmental contamination and the health issues involved.
- 08/24/19 Bill McCamley is Cabinet Secretary for the New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions. He discusses with Lorene the purpose of his department and how it functions to help those who need work find gainful employment. The department is also heavily involved in Apprenticeship programs to help train (or re-train) workers for employers in New Mexico. The other thing the department does is to set up the connections between people that are looking for work and the businesses that want to employ them.
- 08/31/19 Erica Elliott is author of Medicine and Miracles in the High Desert: My Life Among the Navajo People. Dr. Elliott is a physician and practices in Santa Fe. She has had an amazing odyssey in her life as an adventurer, world traveler, author, and now as doctor/healer in Santa Fe. In this program, Dr. Elliott discusses her life accomplishment with Lorene and her experiences as a teacher to the Navajo people.
- 09/07/19 Maya van Rossum is author of The Green Amendment: Securing Our Right to a Healthy Environment. Ms. Van Rossum explains that after 25 years of advocacy she realizes that our current system of environmental protection laws has provided protections and values but they stop short of accomplishing the true environmental protection that we and all communities across our nation and across our world need.
- 09/14/19 Janet Napolitano, Pt. 2, continues her discussion with Lorene about growing up in New Mexico and her experiences as first woman Attorney General of Arizona, first elected woman Governor of Arizona, Cabinet Secretary of Homeland Security with President Obama, and now as President of the entire University of California system. Ms. Napolitano explains how global warming is a threat to national security and discusses the current immigration problem and her recent book Republic of Lies, American Conspiracy Theorists and Their Surprising Rise to Power.

09/21/19 Sandra Cisneros, Pt. 2, continues the discussion with this multi award winning author. She tells Lorene that she felt it was time to give voice to people who live in the shadows and who can't speak for themselves, the migrants. Ms. Cisneros has been traveling and talking to migrants, undocumented workers, dreamers, and those associated with them; people who employ them, people who harbor them, and people who fight for their rights. She realizes the project is a never ending one but she has been recording interviews for about a year and hopes to create a chorus of voices that might become a theater piece or something that can be performed.

09/28/19 William Fulginiti has been the executive director of the all-powerful New Mexico Municipal League for 42 years. He discusses the history of the league (which began back in 1900) and its achievements, both now and in the past. Mr. Fulginiti is vice chair of the New Mexico Finance Association; he is on the water trust board and has received the governor's distinguished public service award and the New Mexico distinguished public administration award. Currently he sits on the commission for judicial compensation. He feels that he is able to help represent the interests of the various cities to the organizations in which he serves.

Creative Living 3rd Quarter 2019

7-2-19

- Interior decorator, Lee Brown will discuss 5 simple steps to eliminate clutter in the home. With her ideas, anyone can cure the "clutter bug" and create a well curated, personal, functional space for yourself and others. Brown is the director of WillowCollege.
- David Fisher is a self-taught soap maker, and he's going to demonstrate the basic melt and pour method of making homemade soap. He'll show how to cut and weigh the soap base, how to add fragrance and then show how to make two different basic soaps – one decorative and one more rustic with botanicals.

- Gailen Runge is the Creative Director for C & T Publishing, and she's going to discuss a relatively new product called Kraft-Tex as she demonstrates how to use it to make easy wristlets. This project only uses a little Kraft-Tex and two notions and no sewing is required.
- Dr. J Tim Rainey will talk about dentistry for young adults and tell what he means by the "$6000 death spiral." He believes dentistry should be transformed to what is called a patient-centered health science. He's with the Texas Institute for Advanced Dental Studies.

7-16-19

- Based on his new book titled "The Power of GET Statements," author, Gary Barnes will explain what happens in the brain when we actually write GET statements. He'll talk about how to create 8 to 10 GET statements and explain how to use them to achieve success. His company is Gary Barnes Int'l.

- Chef Johnny Vee (nee John Vollertsen) will demonstrate how to use store bought wonton wrappers to make salmon dumplings as well as a dessert. He is the director of Las Cosas Cooking School.

- Susan Legits is an independent demonstrator for Stampin' Up! She's going to demonstrate making various containers, cards, gift card holders and party favors just by transforming patterned paper through folding. The best part is you don't even have to measure the paper to transform it into something useful.
- Dorothy Brown, owner of International Fabric Collection, will talk about the properties of silk and show how to quilt using Dupioni silk. Since Dupioni silk tends to unravel, it's important to use a lightweight iron-on stabilizer to make it more manageable.

- Sharon Barnes is a therapist for sensitive and gifted children and adults. She is going to discuss how highly creative people can learn to overcome discouragement. She'll talk about how the Hero's Journey can be helpful to a highly creative person.
- Interior decorator, Latriece Brooks will explain why having an Interior Decorator involved in your remodeling or building projects can save money in the long run. Having someone you like and trust can help develop your scope of work as well as your financial budget. Brooks' company is Brooks Interiors.

- Chef Johnny Vee (John Vollertsen) will demonstrate two yummy and easy recipes to add to your brunch repertoire. He'll also discuss setting up a brunch for maximum effectiveness and talk about other recipes that are good choices. Vollertsen is the owner and operator of Las Cosas Cooking School.
- Dr. J. Tim Rainey will talk about biomimetic dentistry and the importance of maintaining the correct pH balance in our mouths. He strongly believes we should turn the need for repair of decay and treatment of periodontal disease from a "need" to a "choice" through education. He's with the Texas Institute for Advanced Dental Studies.

- President and designer, Kim Bailey is going to discuss kitchen remodeling and talk about the flow and function of the room, show how to update cabinets or how to replace cabinets as a whole. Bailey will show some of the new materials that are being used, including quartz, granite composite and sink designs. Bailey's company is Kim Bailey Interiors, LLC.
- K C Cornwell, owner of G-Free Foodie, will discuss some of the newest gluten-free box meals on the market, and she'll explain why they have become so popular. Besides food items, there are also jewelry, clothing and fragrance subscription boxes available, and she'll tell why they are great for trying out new ideas, products or hobbies.

- Erica Plank is a designer and owner of Unseen Hands. She's going to demonstrate a technique called Twilling which makes a beautiful stitch. She will also show how to do twilling on quilts, table runners as well as other fabric samples.
- Quilter and designer, Laura Murray will demonstrate how to use Shiva paintstiks and StarBuilder stamps for texture to create wall hangings, jacket embellishments or holiday decorations. Murray's business is Laura Murray Designs.

- If you've ever said "But I don't have anything to wear," you'll want to pay attention as Becky Johnson explains how our enemy is our wardrobe. She's going to share some tactical tips for winning the wardrobe war. Johnson's company is BeckyHomecky's Life UNITS.
- Bruce Johnson represents Minwax. He says that funky and functional charm are the buzzwords today, and he'll share a couple of ways to find new uses for discarded pieces, such as ladders and old drawers. He'll show how to turn these items into towel racks, centerpieces, and even a new wall display.
- Connie Moyers is retired from the NM Cooperative Extension Service, and she's going to talk about what she calls the "poison purse." She says we need to be wary of the danger of many common items we probably all have in our purses or pockets.

- Becky Johnson, Beckyhomecky's LifeUNITS, explains that "the empty nest" has been replaced by the phenomenon of the "Intergenerational Nest" which is where three or more generations of a family are linked together.
- Using a drawing method known as Zentangle, Pam Damour will show how to create your own fabric. She'll also share several projects where she has used this method. Damour is owner of The Decorating Diva.
- Americans are falling short of their dairy recommendations and Sarah Ryan, a registered dietitian nutritionist with DairyMAX, will suggest three ways to incorporate milk, yogurt and cheese into your daily meals. These three food items provide nine essential nutrients which help maintain healthy weight and improve over-all diet quality.

- Kate Chu is the owner of Chu's Consulting and pressed-flowers.com, and she's going to introduce working with pressed flowers. She'll talk about what supplies and tools are needed, show how to use the flowers in various ways and talk about storing the delicate leaves and petals.
- Diane Tunnell is an Independent Demonstrator with Stampin' Up! and she's going to demonstrate how to use a brayer to apply ink to an embossing folder to create the background for a card. She also has some other techniques she'll show.
- Creative Memories spokesperson, Diane Lampert will show some items that you'll want for gift giving or to keep and use yourself! Their company offers twelve different card kits and each card is unique once assembled. Cards and envelopes are blank and lots of bonus items are included to embellish your cards.

9-18-19
