

On-Campus Job Announcement

Radio Announcers Needed at KRCU-FM

Position Announcement

Hours Worked: One to three weekdays from 5:30am to 9:00am with the availability to fill in other weekdays from 5:30am to 9:00am when needed.

Hours per week: 3.5-10.5, with the possibility for more when needed.

Summary: Serve as On-Air Host/Announcer for KRCU 90.9 FM during Morning Edition, NPR's flagship morning news program. Specific duties include delivering station promotional content, reading public service announcements and weather forecasts. Regular audio production will be required as well.

KRCU is a fully licensed non-commercial public radio station which operates 24 hours per day, 365 days per year. As a result, successful candidates for employment at KRCU must be willing, prior to being hired, to work holidays and during university breaks. KRCU provides public radio programming to the more than 100,000 people in the southeast Missouri region including the communities of Cape Girardeau, Sikeston, Jackson, and Marble Hill. KRCU broadcasts National Public Radio and American Public Media programs, as well as a variety of music and locally produced programs.

Qualifications:

- Excellent communication skills.
- Ability to speak clearly and effectively.
- Ability to learn and operate complex electronic equipment.
- Able to work unsupervised with a high degree of responsibility.
- 3.0 grade point average (exceptions may be made upon interview).
- Commitment to work at KRCU for duration of enrollment at Southeast Missouri State University.
- Willing to work as early as 5:30 a.m.
- Position will include working holidays including Christmas, Thanksgiving, Easter, Spring Break, etc.
- Preference will be given to those students who will be able to remain in the area and work during the summer.
- Willingness to work as part of a team.
- Promptness is a must.

Helpful Skills:

- Public speaking experience.
- Basic understanding of acoustic principles and audio equipment (including microphones, digital audio editing, etc...).
- Familiarity with the Windows operating system environment.

- Experience in drama or theater.
- Familiarity with NPR and other public radio programming.

Deadline:

- Open Until Filled – Please stop by the KRCU Studios, at the Serena building on the Southeast campus in Cape Girardeau to pick up an application during regular business hours (Monday– Friday, 8:00am – 5:00pm). Or apply online at krcu.org/employment. For more information call 573-651-5070, or email Jason Brown at jbrown@semo.edu.