Beecham House
New on Masterpiece

Our Symphony Sunday Series transforms Sunday Afternoons on Maine Public Classical

The Learning Space brings the classroom to Maine’s students
A NEW SIX-PART DRAMA by acclaimed British-Indian director Gurinder Chadha takes viewers back to a time before the British rule in India, when the Mogul Empire was on its last legs and wealth was up for grabs. Beecham House is set on the cusp of the 19th century in Delhi and depicts the fortunes of the residents of an imposing mansion surrounded by acres of exotic woods and pristine lawns. The tale unfolds in 1795 as Englishman and former East India Company soldier John Beecham arrives with deep pockets in Delhi. He has all the appearances of a rugged individualist, but he is determined to reunite his family and even has an infant in tow – although he is hiding the baby’s identity.

Tom Bateman takes the role of enigmatic, soulful John Beecham, who has purchased the magnificent mansion, Beecham House, to begin a new life with his family. He can afford an opulent place as his abode, but what will his secrets cost him and those he loves? The ensemble cast includes Lesley Nicol, Gregory Fitoussi, Pallavi Sharda, Dakota Blue Richards, Leo Suter and others.

Rebecca Eaton, Masterpiece Executive Producer, said: “I haven’t seen a series as visually sumptuous as Beecham House in a long time. This is a new time and place for our audience – India in 1795, before the Raj. There is love and passion, too, and a storyline full of deepening mystery.”

Grantchester
Begins at 9:00 pm on June 14

NEW RELATIONSHIPS, deepening storylines, unexpected secrets and, of course, a slew of new cases are all in the mix as the popular crime series Grantchester returns for Season 5. It’s 1957, and Will Davenport (Tom Brittney) has settled into his role as the vicar of Grantchester, preaching to a packed church.
At the end of the last season, after tragedy struck Will’s family, he had to face the dilemma of being the man his family expected, or following his own calling. His friend, Detective Inspector Geordie Keating (Robson Green), has now accepted his wife Cathy’s commitment to her job – just about. Mrs. C. happily juggles her roles as the vicarage housekeeper and being a well-to-do married woman, and even Leonard has managed to carve out some happiness with Daniel. As time goes on, Will’s faith and Geordie’s patience will be thoroughly tested as they are reminded once more that there’s always darkness lurking in their little corner of Cambridgeshire.

Richard Bangs’ Adventures
Weekends at 10:00 pm; Saturdays at 5:00 pm

Richard Bangs seeks Adventures with Purpose looking for the history and traditions of special places. On Create in June, he visits several locations, including India, Costa Rica, Greece, Norway, and Morocco (pictured), where he’s on a quest to find the modern-day equivalent of the Kasbah.

Welcome to Maine Public’s Symphony Sunday!

Symphony Sunday is a new Maine Public Classical on-air series featuring past concerts courtesy of the Portland Symphony Orchestra and the Bangor Symphony Orchestra. Maine Public’s Music Director, Robin Rilette, wanted to keep the Sunday afternoon tradition of a symphony concert alive despite the lack of active concert performances taking place, and she found two very willing partners in the PSO and the BSO. Conversations were held, and in no time, this special series was born featuring stellar past performances by these two orchestras.

June’s lineup includes the playing of pieces by Brahms, Dvorák, Mahler, Bach, Bizet, Mendelssohn, Mozart and others! What an exceptional opportunity to take a break from the news of the day and become lost in the beauty of exceptional music performed by many of Maine’s premiere musicians. Starting every Sunday afternoon at 3:00, Symphony Sunday is scheduled to run through September.

Maine Public Launches Education Program
The Learning Space

Airs on Maine Public Television each weekday at noon and 12:30

Maine Public, in partnership with the Maine Department of Education and Educate Maine, recently launched The Learning Space, original, educational programming for students in Grades 3 to 5. Teachers from across Maine have developed original video lessons specifically for this project. With over 183,000 Maine students currently at home and 30,000 or more students without access to online learning, The Learning Space can help fill the void by providing exceptional educational programming via television.

“The Learning Space complements Maine Public’s other free educational resources – our 24/7 PBS Kids Channel, our PBS LearningMedia website, and new educational programming every weekday afternoon on The World Channel – and, as Maine’s public broadcaster, we are proud to be able to serve Maine in this innovative way,” observed Mark Vogelzang, Maine Public’s President and CEO.

The Learning Space will air through mid-June on Maine Public Television and all of The Learning Space episodes can be accessed on mainepublic.org for additional viewing opportunities. This project has been made possible through a number of channels including the financial support of these businesses and organizations: University of Maine at Augusta, Dead River Company, Finance Authority of Maine, Kennebunk Savings, John T. Gorman Foundation, Maine Community Foundation, and Maine Education Association.

Maine Public Community Films series joins the Bicentennial celebration with a year full of solely Maine focused films, from old Community Films favorites of the people, places and culture of Maine to new films from our arts partners.

- A Century of Summers – Saturday, June 13, 2:00 pm: The relationships among summer and native residents of Hancock, Maine, over the course of a century are recalled.

- To Row and Let Go – Thursday, June 18, 9:00 pm; Saturday, June 20, 2:00 pm: Over several years, Doug Welch started ocean rowing, built a wooden boat, and set out on an island adventure.

- Uncommon Ground – Thursday, June 18, 9:30 pm; Saturday, June 20, 2:30 pm: On May 19, 2019, Brunswick celebrated the 300th anniversary of its extraordinary Town Commons. For over three centuries, the Commons has served as an invaluable community asset.

- The Life of Senator Margaret Chase Smith – Thursday, June 25, 9:00 pm; Saturday, June 27, 2:00 pm: Maine’s own “Grand Lady,” as Smith was known to many, had a long and remarkable life. Her career carried her far from her Skowhegan home, but it was to Maine that she always returned.

June 2020 | Experience | 5

In Mae West: Dirty Blonde, Tuesday, June 16 at 8:00 p.m., American Masters takes an in-depth look at the entertainment legend who as a performer and writer, famously imbued her plotlines with commentary about some of the most complex social issues of the 20th century.
Bicentennial Edition of Road Trip Games is coming this month!

Every year, Maine Public’s Guide to Road Trip Games accompanies families across Maine as they load up their car, SUV, or RV and start exploring Maine’s favorite vacation spots. Loaded with classic travel games like “Bananas!,” “Fortunately, Unfortunately,” and “Two Truths and A Lie,” Road Trip Games is all about family fun.

Maine Public has teamed up with some amazing partners for this bicentennial edition of Road Trip Games – the Maine Bureau of Highway Safety and the Maine Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry – to create a travel guide that you’ll use again and again. You’ll find our guide to travel fun at Maine Turnpike Service Plazas and at all future Maine Public community events. You can also request one by sending us a note at 323 Marginal Way, Portland, ME 04101 or by emailing us at fun@mainepublic.org and we’ll get one right out to you!

Ann
Sunday, June 21, 4:00 pm

A no-holds-barred theatrical portrait of Ann Richards, legendary Governor of Texas (1991-95), was written and performed by Emmy Award-winning actor Holland Taylor. Ann is a compelling look at the impassioned, inspiring woman who enriched the lives of her followers, friends and family. Unfolding through public speeches and private phone calls with famous figures including Bill Clinton, Ann Richards is revealed as a complex, colorful and captivating character bigger than the state from which she hailed. Neither partisan nor political, Ann began as Taylor’s quest to understand what it was about this housewife, mother, grandmother, leader and iconic patriot who inspired so many people so deeply. Writing the play became a four-year journey for Taylor, crisscrossing the country, interviewing people who knew Richards, watching countless hours of video coverage and poring over reams of her personal and public papers at the University of Texas. Gloria: A Life
Sunday, June 28, 4:00 pm

Five decades after Gloria Steinem began raising her voice for women’s equality and championing the equality rights of others, her vision and call to action are as urgent as ever. Gloria: A Life brings viewers a richly detailed tapestry about one of the most inspiring and remarkable women in modern history. Starring Academy, Emmy and Golden Globe Award-winner Christine Lahti as Steinem, the play features an all-women cast playing both male and female roles. Act one focuses on Steinem’s life and path to activism. Act two consists of a “talking circle” with the audience to discuss the play’s themes, moderated by Gloria Steinem herself. This unique theatrical format offers a forum for Steinem’s philosophy on the necessity of conversation as a catalyst for change. Christine Lahti says of this part of the production, “The talking circle that is the second act of Gloria: A Life is equally as moving as people tell their own stories. As Gloria always says, there is healing in the telling.” (Photo: Joan Marcus.)
