Public Affairs Ascertainment, July – September 2012

Life By The Drop: Drought, Water and the Future of Texas

Airs Sunday, July 1 at 7:00 p.m.

Life By the Drop is a close look at the state of water and drought in Texas, looking both to the past and the future for answers on how the state can manage a growing population amid a shrinking water supply. This report is a collaboration of KUT Austin, StateImpact Texas, and Texas Monthly.

Capitol Steps: Politics Takes a Holiday

4th of July Edition 2012

Airs Tuesday, July 3 at 6:00 p.m.

That's right, Joe Biden recently surprised us by announcing that in order to accommodate the Secret Service scandal and the requests of many public radio stations, the Capitol Steps July 4th edition of "Politics Takes a Holiday" will be a full hour. It's so wacky it just might work! Packed with new songs and more fun than a GSA party in Vegas, the Capitol Steps hope to remind you that if this special influences your vote for President...yikes, we're in worse shape than we thought. Not for the faint of heart or for those considering running for office. warning this program could make your side split and your brain go numb.

RISE - Climate Change and Coastal Communities

Program One: Sounding the Waters

Airs Monday, August 6 at 8:00 p.m.

Sea level rise and increasingly extreme weather patterns are two of the impacts of climate change. How are these phenomena created? What effects will they have on our coastlines? To what extent are we feeling them already? And what can we do to adapt to changing conditions? We explore these questions with a visit to San Francisco's financial district and other spots around the Bay.

RISE - Climate Change and Coastal Communities

Program Two: Facing the Riding Tide

Airs Monday, August 13 at 8:00 p.m.

Even when we do understand climate change and it's impacts, we often do nothing. Why is this? Part Two brings us portraits of two families, a farmer and a land developer. The Mellos and the Fosters provide two different answers to this question.

RISE - Climate Change and Coastal Communities

Program Three: Chuey's Story

Airs Monday, August 20 at 8:00 p.m.

Part Three introduces us to a single community and family. While adaptation to climate change is necessary, it will not be easy. And in the process, there will be winners and losers.

Groundwork: Democracy Close to Home

Airs Monday, August 27 at 8:00 p.m.

Hosted by Scott Simon.

At a time of political gridlock and polarization at the national level, Groundwork explores the tone and flavor of democratic action in towns and cities, where one's antagonist is not an opposing talking head or a politician from a state of a different 'color,' but a neighbor.

The one-hour special includes these stories:

- Energy: The people of Caroline, New York wrestle over the controversial gas drilling method known as fracking. Reporter: Jonathan Miller
- Civil Rights / Values: The debate over North Carolina's Marriage Amendment in an African American church in Hickory, NC.
- Immigration: In San Juan, Texas, the debate over how aggressively to police the border. Producer: Maria Martin
- Citizen control of government spending: The "participatory budgeting" experiment in Chicago's 49th Ward.
- Young people and democracy: A look at how young people are engaging in politics and social action four years after the Obama Wave.
- Environment: Fishermen in Kodiak, Alaska, their livelihoods threatened by ocean acidification, take steps to make their voices heard on carbon emissions.

LA Public Square: Bullying in Louisiana

Airs Sunday, September 2 at 7:00 p.m.

How can students, parents and teachers fight bullying?

National statistics indicate that nearly 1 in 3 students is involved in bullying. Louisiana has recently seen three high profile suicides linked to bullying at school. So, who is most at risk of being bullied? What is considered cyber bullying? And how can students, parents and teachers stand up against this aggressive behavior? A new anti-bullying state law goes into effect this coming school year, but is the statute too broad in its definition of bullying or not inclusive enough? We'll explore the answers to these questions and more on "Louisiana Public Square".

Life Stories - Jobs: Women at Work

Airs Monday, September 3 at 7:00 p.m.

Three portraits of women working - A pastor, a seasonal worker, and a judge.

These are public radio stories made over many years, by producer Jay Allison -- working together with Christina Egloff, and friends, colleagues, neighbors, strangers and whoever would take the loan of one of his tape recorders. They are are stories about life as we find it, and record it. HOST: Alex Chadwick In this hour: A Pastor's Journal (27:23) For two months, the pastor of Park Union Church in Chicago kept an audio journal chronicling her daily life and thoughts about the career and the calling of the ministry. Produced with Rev. Susan Johnson and WBEZ Chicago. After Labor Day (2:44) A short meditation on the end of the summer's work and the long winter ahead from writer Carol Wasserman. Produced with Viki Merrick. Retiring the Robe (27:05) On the occasion of her retirement, this Chicago judge borrowed a cassette recorder, and with her family, reflected on her 18 years on the bench. Produced with Judge Susan Snow, Brent Runyon and WBEZ Chicago.

Bullied: Teen Stories

Airs Monday, September 3 at 8:00 p.m.

Bullying isn't a new story, but lately, it is all over the news. And while young people are often the targets and the actors in bullying, we rarely get to hear their perspectives in the media. Bullied: Teen Stories is changing that. This hour-long special produced in collaboration with WNPR includes stories from teens with first-hand insight on bullying. From being called "Osama" in a Boston classroom, to looking at whether bullying prevention programs really work in Anchorage, youth producers from around the globe help show us what we don't understand – but need to – about bullying. Join teen hosts Council Brandon and Peyton Echelson-Russell for an hour of thought-provoking stories, interviews and teen perspectives on bullying. Bullied includes contributions from Blunt Youth Radio Project, ZUMIX Radio, Alaska Teen Media Institute, Hear in the City, Middletown Youth Radio Project and LatitudeNews.com. It is supported by a grant from the Motorola Mobility Foundation. The show was produced by WNPR, Connecticut Public Radio and presented by PRX, the Public Radio Exchange.

Archie McDonald Speaker Series

James A. Baker III

Airs Monday, September 10 at 8:00 p.m.

The Honorable James A. Baker, III, America's 61st secretary of state, is the featured guest for this Archie McDonald Speaker program recorded at Stephen F. Austin State University. Baker served as secretary of state and chief of staff to President George H. W. Bush, chief of staff and secretary of the treasury to President Ronald Reagan, and undersecretary of commerce to President Gerald Ford. He also led their combined five presidential elections and in 2006 co-chaired the Iraq Study Group. "Secretary Baker is one of the most influential policy makers of the 20th century, and, as such, has strongly impacted American politics and foreign affairs for decades," Dr. Archie McDonald said. "We are honored he has accepted our invitation to participate in the speaker series."

Baker, a resident of Houston, is the author of "The Politics of Diplomacy: Revolution, War & Peace, 1989-1992" and "Work Hard, Study. . .and Keep Out of Politics!" and is a 1991 recipient of the Presidential Medal of Freedom. He is a senior partner in the law firm of Baker Botts and honorary chairman of the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy at Rice University, and he serves on the board of the Howard Hughes Medical Institute.

The Archie McDonald Speaker Series was created in 2010 by the SFA College of Liberal and Applied Arts led by Dr. Brian Murphy, dean of the college. The annual event is designed to honor and preserve the legacy of a distinguished scholar, educator and community commentator who brings American culture to the average person. In the tradition of McDonald's writings and oral presentations, the speaker series will host a prominent national figure annually at SFA to discuss contemporary cultural issues—from politics to art. In the process, the national profile of SFA will be enhanced, and the community will be enriched.

American Radio Works: Preparing Kids for College

Airs Monday September 17 at 8:00 pm.

More people are going to college than ever before, but a lot of them aren't finishing. The problem is especially profound among low-income students. Only nine percent complete a bachelor's degree by age 24. Why are so many students quitting, and what leads a few to beat the odds and make it through? In this documentary, American RadioWorks correspondent Emily Hanford introduces us to young people trying to break into the middle class, teachers trying to increase their chances, and researchers investigating the nature of persistence.

The Jewish New Year: Music and Inspirational Teachings from the Kabbalah

Airs Thursday, September 20 at 11:00 a.m.

Music and teachings from the Jewish mystical tradition on the High Holy Days. Each year, on the evening of the new moon, the beginning of the month of Tishrei in the Jewish lunar calendar, Jewish people around the world begin a period of prayer and self-examination that ends, ten days later, with a twenty-four hour fast. These are the High Holy Days, beginning with Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, and ending with Yom Kippur, the day of atonement. These days are a time to reflect on the past year and to realign life with truth and wisdom, to prepare for a new year's challenges. In this program, Kabbalistic teacher, therapist, and author of "Sacred Therapy," Estelle Frankel and Cantor Richard Kaplan share the depths of insight accumulated by the Jewish mystical tradition of the Kabbalah. They discuss the insights in stories, teachings and music, gathered from that rich tradition.

Seeking Civility in Political Discourse

Airs Friday, September 21 at 7:00 p.m.

On this special election season edition of Peace Talks Radio, an assessment of the degree of the problem, and some ideas on how to address it, from a number of people. We'll hear from current Democratic congressman Tim Ryan of Ohio, former long-term Republican congresswoman Connie Morella from Maryland – both of whom actually agree on several things they think will help. We'll also talk with two media analysts - Western Washington University's Michael Karlberg and Hakim Bellamy of the Media Literacy Project, who'll comment on the media's role in heightening incivility in political discourse. And we'll hear from veteran reporter Art Schreiber, who covered Congress in the 1960's when, he says, it was all more civil and respectful.

Remember Us Unto Life with Rabbi Ismar Schorsch

Airs Sunday, September 23 at 7 p.m. Host Larry Josephson talks with Rabbi Ismar Schorsch, Chancellor Emeritus of the Jewish Theological Seminary, about the history, liturgy and customs of the Jewish High Holy Days, and the value of these ancient rituals in the modern age. The Jewish High Holy Days are the most solemn time on the Jewish calendar. The ten-day period between Rosh Hashanah (The Jewish New Year) and Yom Kippur (the Day of Atonement) are a period of renewal and reflection. Larry Josephson talks with Rabbi Ismar Schorsch, Chancellor Emeritus of the Jewish Theological Seminary, about the history, liturgy and customs of the High Holy Days, and the value of these ancient rituals in the modern age. Music appropriate to the High Holy Days is interspersed throughout.
