Author Sam Quinones chronicles how the sophisticated marketing of prescription opioids and an enterprising group of heroin traffickers combined to create the epidemic that's now a leading cause of American deaths.

Beyond Glory - Three short pieces by Stephen Lang

Airs Monday, May 28, 2018, at 9 p.m. "As starkly moving as taps at dusk" says the Washington Post about Beyond Glory, a powerful tribute to military valor written and performed by stage and screen star Stephen Lang (Colonel Quaritch in Avatar). He portrays three recipients of the MEDAL OF HONOR recounting in their own words the incident that earned them the United States' highest military honor for valor beyond the call of duty.

Dreams of the Fallen

Airs Monday, May 28, 2018, at 11 a.m. In the United States, Memorial Day is often thought of as the unofficial beginning of summer, but its significance to this country runs far deeper. "Dreams of the Fallen" seeks to recognize and memorialize through music and poetry those who have protected our country—often at great sacrifice—from before its founding to the present. From "Taps" to Britten's War Requiem to numerous film scores and folk songs, conflict and memory have inspired some of the greatest music in history.

Airs Sunday, June 3, 2018, at 6 p.m. Following the death this week of Professor Stephen Hawking, Sue Lawley introduces a special programme looking back at some of the extraordinary thinking of one the world's most influential scientists. The hour long programme is another chance to hear his 2016 BBC Reith Lectures on black holes.

Louisiana Public Square: "News About the News"

Airs Sunday, June 10, 2018, at 6 p.m. How can viewers distinguish between fact and fake news and is social media blurring the difference? According to the 2018 Louisiana Survey, when it comes to trusting news organizations, more Louisiana residents put their faith in local media than national media outlets. Despite that trust, only 36 percent of the state's news consumers say local news deals fairly with both sides.

Intelligence Squared US Debates: Can Negotiations Denuclearize North Korea

Airs Sunday, June 17, 2018, at 6 p.m. Will all of the recent goodwill gestures between North and South Korea lead to the one thing Washington wants most? Can a deal be struck that denuclearizes North Korea? And what will they want in exchange for giving up that leverage? The debaters are Suzanne DiMaggio, Sue Mi Terry, Bonnie Jenkins, and Mira Rapp-Hooper.

Intelligence Squared US Debates: Does Humanitarian Intervention Do More Harm Than Good?

Airs Sunday, June 24, 2018, at 6 p.m. The international community currently faces a global refugee crisis and mass atrocities in Iraq, Myanmar, Syria, Yemen, and beyond. How should the West respond? Proponents of humanitarian intervention – the use of force to halt human rights abuses – argue that the world's most powerful militaries have a responsibility to protect innocent civilians around the world. But opponents argue that military intervention is a form of imperialism, and that it often worsens the conflicts it sets out to solve.

What's Bugging You For June 26, 2018

Airs Tuesday, June 26, 2018, at 6 p.m. Once again Dr. Beverly Burden, an Associate Professor of Biology at LSUS and our resident entomologist, joined Bill Beckett to discuss our insect world, both friendly and fiendish. We'll talk about what's new in the insect world and we'll took forward to your calls and questions about "What's Bugging You" at 800-552-8502.

Intelligence Squared U.S. Debates: As We Evolve, Do We Need God Less?

Airs Sunday, July 1, 2018, at 6 p.m. Does God have a place in 21st century human affairs? For many, the answer is an unapologetic yes. Belief in a higher power, they argue, is the foundation of human consciousness and the soul of all social, political, and scientific progress. However, skeptics say adherence to religious tradition serves only to fracture communities and prevent humanity from embracing a more reasoned social order. Should religion play a central role in human evolution, innovation, and discovery? Or has God become obsolete?

History Matters: U-Boats

Airs Tuesday, June 26, 2018, at 7:45 a.m. This week commentator Gary Joiner looks U-Boats during WW II in the Gulf of Mexico. History Matters is made possible in part by the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities and Louisiana Cultural Vistas Magazine.
