Job-Saving Deal

Layoffs begin at Carrier plant where Trump touted job-saving deal

The then-President-elect fudged the numbers to say he was saving even some jobs which were never in danger. But those that were on the chopping block have begun to end.

State Street Highrise Passes First Downsizing Vote

Rain Means Less Wiggle Room For State Street Project

City planners say they want to adopt a step up, step down approach as the West Lafayette skyline is revamped up Chauncy Hill.

If there are more significant rainstorms in the next couple weeks, the weather could delay the projected opening of the Purdue State Street/Cr edit: Stan Jastrzebski West Lafayette Highrise is expected up Chauncy Hill.

Special Events

Schubert's last works are large Sonatas, and Brahms' last works are miniatures – paired together it's a fantastic new release with pianist Jorge Frederico Osorio!

The prominence of numerous artists and musicians in the Greater Lafayette and surrounding communities not only makes our community a wonderful place to live, but a great place to move to and stay. Art is an integral part of our human culture and should be celebrated, which is why in 2014 WBAA launched the monthly series called the WBAA Arts Spotlight. The Archives
