ARTS SPOTLIGHT

The prominence of numerous artists and musicians in the Greater Lafayette and surrounding communities not only makes our community a wonderful place to live, but a great place to move to and stay. Art is an integral part of our human culture and should be celebrated, which is why in 2014 WBAA launched the a monthly series called the WBAA Arts Spotlight.

THE ARCHIVES

WBAA PEOPLE & EVENTS

Center Stage from Wolf Trap Concert Series

Center Stage from Wolf Trap showcases live performances from some of today's finest chamber musicians. Recorded in the acoustically superb Barns at Wolf Trap, these 26 one-hour radio programs are presented by hosts Rich Kleinfeldt and Lee Anne Myslewski. The Barns at Wolf Trap, a year-round facility hailed as "one of the best places to hear music in Washington," has become one of the D.C. area's premier venues. Consisting of two rebuilt 18th century barns, the venue serves as a theater, a concert setting for Chamber Music at The Barns, and the home to the Wolf Trap Opera Company.
