WBAA QUARTER NOTES

Order 9066: Chapter Two

Friday at 7pm on WBAA News on AM 920 and WBAA.org

The second chapter of this three-part series tells the story behind FDR's 1942 decision to sign Order 9066, which led to the incarceration of nearly 120,000 Japanese Americans from the West Coast. Japanese Americans also recall the painful process of leaving their lives and belongings — and even their family pets — behind.

What's New

Welcome back students! We'll feature classical music with a Boilermaker theme: trains! Composers from Aaron Copland to Jennifer

Higdon, Steve Reich to Villa-Lobos and Johann Strauss II have penned works with locomotives in mind. It's steamy classical music. Our special guest is David Hovde, sharing some Purdue traditions and student stories!

Inside Jazz with Don Seybold

Sunday evening from 8 to midnight on AM 920 and the WBAA

Jazz stream

A touch of Monk, generous helpings of Hudson, Corea, and William Parker, add a slice of Musillami, and some jazzed up Dylan and you've got a tasty dish to satisfy the most demanding taste.

ARTS SPOTLIGHT

The prominence of numerous artists and musicians in the Greater Lafayette and surrounding communities not only makes our community a wonderful place to live, but a great place to move to and stay. Art is an integral part of our human culture and should be celebrated, which is why in 2014 WBAA launched the a monthly series called the WBAA Arts Spotlight.
