Old Idea, New Economy: Rediscovering Apprenticeships

Friday at 7 pm on WBAA News on 105.9 FM, AM 920 and the

WBAA News stream

Supporters on both the right and the left say the "earn while you learn" approach can help create a more skilled workforce, provide a path to solid, middle-class careers, and serve as a needed corrective to the "college for all" push that has left some students with piles of debt and no obvious career. In this APM Reports documentary we ask: How can apprenticeships expand to include careers beyond the traditional trades and reach new populations searching for a foothold in the middle class?

What's New

We'll hear music inspired from events on September 11, as well as some of the composers on this episode of What's New!

Inside Jazz with Don Seybold

Sunday evening from 8 to midnight on AM 920 and the WBAA

Jazz stream

We join Miles and Trane on their last tour together, check in on Lenny Tristano live in Chicago, listen to extended improvised movie music from The Necks, more modules from Nik Bartsch, new music from the Chick Corea/Steve Gadd Band, and jazz treatments of the music of Janis Ian, Joni Mitchell, and the Beatles.

ARTS SPOTLIGHT

The prominence of numerous artists and musicians in the Greater Lafayette and surrounding communities not only makes our community a wonderful place to live, but a great place to move to and stay. Art is an integral part of our human culture and should be celebrated, which is why in 2014 WBAA launched the a monthly series called the WBAA Arts Spotlight.
