WBAA QUARTER NOTES

What's New

Award-winning composer Jeremy Gill is based in New York, but first met host John Clare in Pennsylvania. The two met up to discuss Jeremy's vivid music in the WBAA studios recently. Hear chamber music and concert by Jeremy Gill on the next What's New, Tuesday night at 8pm.

Afternoon Classics

Weekdays from 2 to 4 pm on WBAA Classical on 101.3 FM

Each Friday at 3, Greg Kostraba presents "Your 3:00 Pick-Me-Up," music to enliven your Friday afternoon. This week, he will take you for a Short Ride in a Fast Machine by John Adams along with the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra conducted by Marin Alsop.

Inside Jazz with Don Seybold

Sunday 8pm-midnight on AM 920 & the WBAA Jazz stream

It was a rainy night in West Lafayette on October 10, 1959 when 12-thousand people showed up for two shows at Purdue's Elliott Hall of Music to hear Stan Kenton's Big Band, The Four Freshmen, and June Christy. You can hear the show this Sunday along with cuts recorded at Elliott by Erroll Garner in 1962 and live performances from other venues by major stars of the same period, Peggy Lee and Dave Brubeck. It's a virtual road trip into our musical past.

SPECIAL: The Politics Show from NPRFridays at 10 pm on WBAA News on 105.9 FM and AM 920

The definitive guide to the 2018 midterm elections, The Politics Show from NPR keeps you informed each week. Featuring the trademark wit that has long characterized the popular NPR Politics Podcast, this one-hour weekly roundtable discussion presents a deep dive on the major races, themes, and issues defining these historic elections.

ARTS SPOTLIGHT

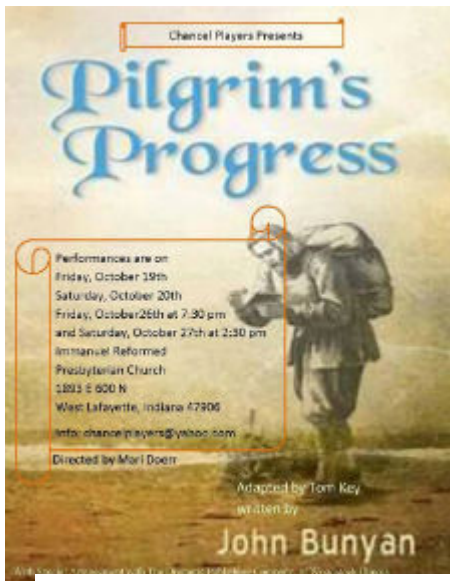

The prominence of numerous artists and musicians in the Greater Lafayette and surrounding communities not only makes our community a wonderful place to live, but a great place to move to and stay. Art is an integral part of our human culture and should be celebrated, which is why in 2014 WBAA launched the a monthly series called the WBAA Arts Spotlight.

THE ARCHIVES

Chancel Players of Lafayette

Chancel Players of Lafayette have produced thought provoking plays with moral and ethical focus from the Judeo-Christian perspective. Relying on good scripts, acting and directing, they often require little staging, and use of minimal settings/costumes. WBAA's John Clare spoke with board member Ralph Rorer about the group and their season.

WBAA Intern Profile: Nick Wang

Nick Wang joined the WBAA staff last summer and took over the newsletter while the other interns were on semester break. He focused on graphic design creation for multiple events. Nick has updated the website "topper" and is now updating all the elements on WBAA.org. Another major project this semester is listening to all the testimonial messages from the last several years, and sorting them to use for the next member drive. Nick will also be working to help record and edit new testimonial messages (so if you would like to record a message to use for the next member drive, contact Rachel Lattimore at rjlattimore@prf.org). Nick is a junior and that means WBAA will be able to benefit from his skills and hopefully allow him to expand his portfolio for his professional career once he graduates from Purdue.
