

NEW ENGLAND PUBLIC MEDIA: DONOR BILL OF RIGHTS

New England Public Media believes that philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to the quality of life. To ensure that NEPM's philanthropic efforts merit the respect and trust of our listeners and viewers, and that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in New England Public Media, we declare that all NEPM donors have these rights:

1. To be informed of NEPM's mission, of the way NEPM intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
2. To be informed of the identity of those serving on NEPM's governing board, and to expect the board to use prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. To have access to NEPM's most recent financial statements.
4. To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
5. To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
6. To be assured that information about their donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by the law.
7. To expect that all donor relationships with individuals representing NEPM will be professional in nature.
8. To be informed by those seeking donations to be either volunteers, employees of NEPM or hired solicitors.
9. To be assured that NEPM has a strict policy against the sale or exchange of its membership lists to any organization.
10. To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.

Developed by New England Public Radio and based on The Donor Bill of Rights created by the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP); Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (AHP); Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE); Giving Institute: Leading Consultants to Non-Profits.