Western Kentucky University is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
Due to exigent circumstances, full recruitment was not conducted for this position.

6) Total # of Interviewees Referred: For the period from March 23, 2014 to March 22, 2015, this Employment Unit interviewed 7 interviewees for full-time job vacancies.

7) Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives.

(a) Initiative: Participation in Internship Program

WKYU-FM & WKYU-TV operated a student internship program throughout the period covered in this report. This program is designed to give college students professional broadcast training and experience. We had 1(one) radio news intern and 1(one) television intern from Western Kentucky University.

(b) Initiative: Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.

WKYU-TV and WKYU-FM sponsor the Charles Anderson Public Broadcasting Fellowship Program, a program which provides a scholarship funding the tuition for a 3-credit hour college internship course for Western Kentucky University students interested in careers in broadcasting. The recent recipient received full tuition payment for the course during the summer 2014 semester, and received an hourly rate and a stipend while working within the television department.

WKYU-TV partnered with the Bowling Green Area Chamber of Commerce with a Scholarship Opportunity for three Western Kentucky University broadcasting students. Ten students competed for three awards in a video production contest where university students served as mentors in area elementary, middle and high schools.

(c) Initiative: Events or programs relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.

WKU NPR hosted Western Kentucky University students for career discussions on the following dates: April 1, 2014; April 24, 2014; November 04, 2014; November 13, 2014, March 03, 2015 and March 20, 2015. The Interim Station Manager/News Director led the discussion.

Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day at WKU (April 24, 2014). Recruiting and tour opportunity for careers in radio and television offered to 2nd through 12th graders from the surrounding area (Included TV Station Manager and TV Associate Producer).

Western Kentucky University Class Tours- Professor Dick Taylor Capstone Class (February 03, 2014). Discussion about broadcast operations, public files, and career opportunities.

Western Kentucky University Instruction that included Basic TV Production class (August 2014-December 2014). Recruiting employees and career instruction by TV Associate Producer/Director. BCOM 326 Broadcast Performance Class instruction (January 2015-May 2015).
Leadership Bowling Green. Station tours and career discussions (July, 2014). Hosted by TV Station Manager, TV Operations Manager, Radio Station Manager, and TV Producer/Director.

(d) Initiative: Training Programs for Station Personnel

The employment unit continues an ongoing commitment to enable station personnel to attend training programs and seminars designed to enhance their work and acquire skills that could qualify them for higher positions:
