6.1 Telling Public Radio's StoryJump to question: 6.1

The purpose of this section is to give you an opportunity to tell us and your community about the activities you have engaged in to address community needs by outlining key services provided, and the local value and impact of those services. Please report on activities that occurred in Fiscal Year 2017. Responses may be shared with Congress or the public. Grantees are required to post a copy of this report (Section 6 only) to their website no later than ten (10) days after the submission of the report to CPB. CPB recommends placing the report in an "About" or similar section on your website. This section had previously been optional. Response to this section of the SAS is now mandatory.

Joint licensee Grantees that have filed a 2017 Local Content and Services Report as part of meeting the requirement for TV CSG funding may state they have done so in the corresponding questions below, so long as all of the questions below were addressed as they relate to radio operations in such report. You must include the date the report was submitted to CPB along with the TV Grantee ID under which it was submitted.

1. Describe your overall goals and approach to address identified community issues, needs, and interests through your station's vital local services, such as multiplatform long and short-form content, digital and in-person engagement, education services, community information, partnership support, and other activities, and audiences you reached or new audiences you engaged.

NPR Illinois is based in the Illinois state capital of Springfield. Our core DNA since we began broadcasting over 40 years ago has been statewide news coverage. NPR Illinois continues to serve as the hub providing coverage of state government to public media throughout Illinois. Much of this coverage is daily spot news provided for newscasts and websites like nprillinois.org. Additionally, we produce longer form features regarding state government and in-depth Internet/audio features through our Illinois Issues initiative. Our State Week program is a weekly, half-hour analysis panel accessing the news of the week in the state capital.

2. Describe key initiatives and the variety of partners with whom you collaborated, including other public media outlets, community nonprofits, government agencies, educational institutions, the business community, teachers and parents, etc. This will illustrate the many ways you're connected across the community and engaged with other important organizations in the area.

This past year, during a historic budget impasse, our Past Due engagement initiative expanded. The Past Due budget impasse initiative includes partnership with AARP and most of the Illinois public media. It expanded this year as we produced an 11-city, statewide listening tour to hear how citizens and organizations were being affected. Higher education and social services have been particularly damaged. <http://nprillinois.org/terms/illinois-issues-forums-0> in each city, local agencies and higher education voiced effects from negative to existential. Organizations shared the coverage we were doing with them regarding the impact. A frequent refrain at the end of forums would be attendees approaching us with thanks for finally giving them a chance to comment and better understand what was happening.

3. What impact did your key initiatives and partnerships have in your community? Describe any known measurable impact, such as increased awareness, learning or understanding about particular issues. Describe indicators of success, such as connecting people to needed resources or strengthening conversational ties across diverse neighborhoods. Did a partner see an increase in requests for related resources? Please include direct feedback from a partner(s) or from a person(s) served.

The NPR Illinois Education Desk has been covering the need for an equitable funding formula for years. This year the coverage was, "Go to," as a bill became law and major reform began. It the reduced journalism environment, our dedicated education reporter was more informed with the issues and players getting excellent recognition for coverage: • Want great reporting on the #SB1 school funding bill? Follow @dustyrhodes919, the Education Desk reporter at @nprillinois. -WGLT • Dusty, You are becoming a super star on CapitolFax! Great Reporting! My board is well versed on this issue due to your reporting. Thanks again. -Dan Brue, Meridian Community Unit School District #15 • My understanding is you did an interview with Dusty Rhodes of NPR on the 16th of June and you said you had absolute confidence in ISBE's (Illinois State Board of Education) numbers. Is that correct? "I don't know..." "I'm looking at the interview, trust me, it's correct. So, here is my question Senator..." -Testimony at the Illinois Senate Committee of the Whole on Education Funding • Two Schools: Putting a Face on Inequity. NPR Illinois Education reporter Dusty Rhodes stepped away from the numbers related to school funding and took a moment to hear directly from students. As part of the Metropolitan Community Project, students from Kelvin Park and New Trier High Schools recently visited the statehouse to share their perspectives with legislators. • Advance Illinois newsletter <https://mailchi.mp/advanceillinois/financial-watch-list-new-formula-and-legislator-forum-recap-april-20-1116066>

4. Please describe any efforts (e.g. programming, production, engagement activities) you have made to investigate and/or meet the needs of minority and other diverse audiences (including, but not limited to, new immigrants, people for whom English is a second language and illiterate adults) during Fiscal Year 2017, and any plans you have made to meet the needs of these audiences during Fiscal Year 2018. If you regularly broadcast in a language other than English, please note the language broadcast.

NPR Illinois Equity coverage aggregates national content from Code Switch, Latino USA and Michel Martin's Weekend All Things Considered along with our in-depth Illinois Issues and Education Desk reports: <http://nprillinois.org/post/illinois-issues-era-yesterday-and-today-0> <http://nprillinois.org/post/korean-students-bike-raise-awareness-comfort-women> <http://nprillinois.org/post/are-there-any-women-running-governor> <http://nprillinois.org/post/interview-first-openly-gay-country-band-lavender-country> <http://nprillinois.org/post/us-marshall-robert-moore-combating-racism-law-enforcement> <http://nprillinois.org/post/illinois-issues-slave-state> <http://nprillinois.org/post/springfield-native-writes-president-who-unites> <http://nprillinois.org/post/illinois-issues-sixteen-and-not-pregnant> <http://nprillinois.org/post/springfield-native-writes-miseducation-musical-inner-city-violence-more> <http://nprillinois.org/post/illinois-issues-battle-over-transgender-rights-bathroom-and-beyond>

5. Please assess the impact that your CPB funding had on your ability to serve your community. What were you able to do with your grant that you wouldn't be able to do if you didn't receive it?

Without CPB funding, we would have to use our limited resources to pursue more funds. We would have to release journalists that report on our state and community especially those not involved in state government coverage. Engagement personnel that work to convene our communities for greater understanding would also be reduced. Instead, we were able to fully staff our newsroom with eight journalists and do engagement activity that made a difference in our quality of coverage.

This section builds on the Census of Journalists conducted by CPB in the summer of 2010. These positions are the primary professional full-time, part-time or contract contributors to local journalism at your organization. The individuals in these positions will have had training in the standards and practices of fact-based news origination, verification, production and presentation. These are generally accepted titles for these positions but may not match position descriptions at your organization exactly. Please do your best to account for each professional journalist in your organization. Please do not count student or volunteer journalists.
