

Spring 2009

Three New Programs Join WVPE

Here and Now

12:00 - 1:00pm Monday-Friday

Hear and Now is a midday news magazine show produced each weekday by WBUR in Boston. In a typical week, the show will cover not only all the big news stories, but also the stories behind the stories, or some of the less crucial but equally intriguing things happening in the world. The arts and cultural scene are also richly represented on a daily basis on H&N. Host Robin Young is a whirlwind of energy who isn't afraid to grab a kit and get the story.

Beale Street Caravan

7:00 - 8:00pm Monday

Beale Street Caravan, the most widely distributed Blues radio program in the world, attracts more than 2.4 million listeners each week. Produced in Memphis, Tenn., Beale Street Caravan covers the world with the heartfelt sounds and colorful stories of the Blues and its music makers. Each week, Beale Street Caravan takes its audience to the greatest Blues venues in Memphis and around the US. The world's best Blues artists are featured in intimate performances and recorded the way the Blues were meant to be heard - burning up a stage in front of a Blues-loving audience.

The Splendid Table

12:00 - 1:00pm Saturday

The Splendid Table is a culinary, culture, and lifestyle one-hour program that celebrates food and its ability to touch the lives and feed the souls of everyone. Each week, award-winning host Lynne Rossetto Kasper leads listeners on a journey of the senses and hosts discussions with a variety of writers and personalities who share their passion for the culinary delights. The Splendid Table is produced and distributed by American Public Media in Saint Paul, Minn.

This I Believe Concludes Its Run

In April 2009, NPR will end its weekly broadcast of This I Believe essays on NPR. During an unprecedented four years on NPR, the series has engaged listeners in a discussion of the core beliefs that guide their daily lives. We have heard from people of all walks of life—the very young and the very old, the famous and the previously unknown, Nobel laureates, teachers, prison inmates, surgeons, students, politicians, musicians, corporate executives, farmers, poets, entrepreneurs, activists, and astronauts.

The original vision for This I Believe was that it would be a one-year project, and the fact that it has continued for four years is a testimony to the overwhelming listener participation in the series (more than 60,000 essay submissions to date), support from local stations, and the strength of the NPR/TIB collaboration.

Spring Campaign Begins March 24

WVPE is trying something new for our spring campaign. We are having a green drive. Instead of usual premiums and gifts, we are offering items with less environmental impact. From March 24 to April 1, Your NPR Station will be working to build its membership and help the community at-large as well.

You can help by making a pledge online, by mail or over the phone. Giving is welcome at any amount in a number of payment options. We also encourage you to give of your time through volunteering. Also, we love to hear from you. Please feel free to add comments to your pledges.
